

ALPINE.

On Thursday evening of last week Doris Lambirth returned home from school with Dorothy Doherty and spent the night at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Melville spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neill of Butter Creek entertained at a variety shower in honor of Mrs. Charles Moorehead and son Robert, at their home on Saturday afternoon. The little fellow received many nice gifts. Those present were Mrs. Jake Bowman and son, Mrs. Joe Foley, Mrs. John Moore and daughters Naomi and Audrey also her granddaughter, Lois Gene Neill, Mrs. Charles Bartholomew and daughters Francis and Betty Gene, Mrs. Dan Lindsey and daughter Annie Ree, also sons Elec and Bruce, Mrs. G. L. Bennett and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Merle Bennett, Mrs. Burl Wattenburger and son Burl, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neill, Dee Neill and son Harold, and Ralph, also his daughters Beulah and Bernice, Miss Evans and Alma Neill.

Bountiful refreshments were served to the party.

C. Melville and brother Charles spent Wednesday afternoon in Hermiston returning home by way of Echo.

A good crowd attended the church services at Alpine on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys to Heppner accompanied Mr. Bower to the services. Services next Sunday will be held at Pine City. Mr. Bower will have charge of the services. Everybody is welcome.

On Tuesday afternoon immediately after school, Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary and their son and daughter, Irl, Jr., and Mildred, and Mrs. Anna Heiny accompanied by the Misses Gertrude E. Tichenor and Bertha Sepanek, motored to Lexington to call on Mr. and Mrs. Monte Bundy and family.

On Thursday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Bennett accompanied by the former's mother, Mrs. G. L. Bennett, spent the day in Pendleton. While there they attended the demonstration dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Nirschel who reside there. Mrs. Nirschel is Mrs. Bennett's daughter.

William Doherty has returned to his home here after spending the Thanksgiving holiday vacation with relatives and friends in Portland.

Mrs. Mike Sepanek and daughter Bertha motored to Heppner on Saturday.

Catherine Doherty is visiting relatives in Portland. Her sister Mary, who is in a Portland hospital is improving slowly.

The Campfire Girls of Pine City held a fun meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simonton on Friday evening. All report a wonderful time and said they did enjoy the bountiful dinner served by Mrs. Simonton.

Messrs. Charles Melville and Berry accompanied by the former's niece, Miss Gertrude Tichenor, spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson.

The Rhea Creek Grange sponsored three one-act plays Saturday evening at their hall, following which a well-filled hox chest was raffled off. It was won by Lillian Kincaid of Lexington. Those who attended from here were Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary, Mrs. Anna Heiny, Bertha and Bernice Sepanek, Ruth Bennett and Celata Lambirth.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Finley and son Claud, Jr., spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsey.

C. Melville made a business trip to Hermiston on Tuesday.

*So sleek her skin, so faultless was her make

To see so fair a rival.*

—Dryden.

Cleansing, as you have probably suspected by my last few talks, isn't the simple thing you might judge it to be. In fact, it is so important that neglect of this one process is enough to cause half a dozen serious complexion defects. Blackheads, whiteheads, excessive oiliness and even the pimples and blemishes of Acne may be directly traced in numerous cases to improper, half-effective cleansing measures.

Last week I told you about the importance of washing. Today I am going to talk about the virtues of Cleansing Cream, for it is by a clever combination of these two agents that hygienic cleanliness may be accomplished.

Not even an every day morning and night wash will thoroughly cleanse your skin. You see, skin structure is layer on layer of thin, delicate tissues, and through them run pores, each one of which is the opening of a tiny feeding oil gland. These pores must be kept free of dust and powder accumulations, or they cannot function. And pores that have gone "on strike" cause half the skin troubles of the feminine world. If you think soap and water sufficiently cleansing, try this experiment. Wash as thoroughly as you like. Then spread a film of a pasteurized cream all over your face. Let it stay on for four or five minutes, and then wipe it off. Look at your cloth! You need no further proof of the inadequacy of soap and water.

Choose a light, delicate cleansing and massage cream if your skin is sensitive. If it is oily or inclined to blackheads, use a pasteurized cream, as through a special process it is prepared to normalize these conditions. But be regular in your cleansing—you would have a beautiful skin. Never allow make-up to remain over night. And, as an extra reminder, tuck a jar of the pasteurized cream in your office desk or in the kitchen drawer, and treat your face to a beautifying cleansing during the day.

These are simple, commonsense rules which every woman—whether she be sixteen or sixty—will be wise to heed, for strange enough, as simple as they are, they are not so widely known as they should be.

Almost any day is a good day to start this scientific care of the complexion—whether it's to preserve the good looks you already possess or to set about in a sane, sensible way to reclaim those you have lost.

motored to Heppner on Tuesday.

Mrs. Merle Bennett left for Pendleton on Tuesday to care for her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Nirschel who is suffering from influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Finley and son Claud, Jr., were Hermiston visitors on Wednesday of last week.

Joe Thompson and gentleman friend, also his daughter Peggy, were Monday evening guests at the West Camp ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary and son Irl, Jr., and daughter Mildred, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Heiny and Celata Lambirth, spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Schmidt.

The Community Christmas treat will be held at the Alpine school house on December 23, instead of December 22 as announced last week. A fine program has been planned and a good treat is in store for all.

"Mommer, how do you spell 'fulfill'?" asked Billie Bunnie of his mother one night.
"I do wish you would not call me 'mommer,'" replied Mrs. Rabbit.
"Sweetest Mother of mine, how do you spell 'fulfill'?"
"That's better. You spell it f-u-l-l-i-l-l."

"Thank you, mother, dear."

Then there was a scratching and everything was still. Br'er Rabbit was seated before the fire dozing. Every little while his head would go down and Billie Bunnie, or Bobbie Bonnie would sneeze and wake him up again.

"Mother dear, if I had two apples and Daddy one, how many—" "You are too stingy to give Daddy any," broke in Bobbie Bunnie.
"Never mind, children, you go on with your work. If I do your work, you'll never learn anything," said Mrs. Rabbit soothingly.

Down, down, down went on Br'er Rabbit's head until it was against the paper.

"Cher-CHOO!" went Billie Bunnie. "Mercy me!" exclaimed Br'er Rabbit. "What was that terrible noise?"

"It was Billie—I think she must be taking cold. I'll have to give her some aloe and castor oil if she doesn't stop sneezing," answered Mrs. Rabbit, as her husband settled himself in his chair.

All was quiet for a long time—Billie stopped sneezing, but both of the children were watching their father and waiting to wake him up. All was very still and the two children went over and kissed their mother good night. Then they stole softly up stairs.

By and by there was a BUMP! "My goodness!" exclaimed Br'er Rabbit. "Is the house falling down?"

"I guess one of the children dropped a book," said Mrs. Rabbit, as she went on with her sewing.
Br'er Rabbit settled himself once more, and was soon fast asleep.

"Mother, I want Daddy to kiss me good night," came a voice from up stairs.
"I'll come up there with a paddle if you don't let me sleep," laughed Br'er Rabbit, as he took off his coat and started up stairs.

One Sunday morn., the pastor noticed a new member at church. He went over to talk with the newcomer.

"Well, well, I'm mighty glad to see you, Rufus. Guess you-all haven't been to church in a good while."

"I had to come. I need strength," answered Rufus. "You see, it's this way. I've got a job whitewashin' a chicken coop and weedin' a watermelon patch."

First Senior—What in the deuce did you get your hair cut so short for?

Second Do—Wanted to get it off my mind as much as possible.

"Their chauffeur seems a sober, careful fellow."
"Well, for the wages they pay they can't well expect anything else."

"That's the chap who bought the Daily News."

"Really! How much did he give for it?"
"Two cents."

"No matter where I hide," sighed the leopard, "I'm always spotted."
