Miss Kate Ede, teacher of music in the Heppner schools, reports to this paper that she was greatly pleased to be able, through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, to attend the opera, "The Chocolate Soldier," presented by the students of Whitman college in Walla Walla on Thanksgiving evening. She gives a glowing report of the splendid performance of the Whitman music students, both the soloists, the chorus work of the singers being of a very high order, and the acting superb, all of which was very ably sustained by the splendid Whitman orchestra. She was especially proud that her former pupil, Bobby Turner, though in his first year at college, was placed among the singers in the chorus, being in the tenor section. There were nine principal soloists and actors, among these being Laurel Beach, of Lexington, high tenor, whom the leader says is the only student in the school that was able to sustain the very high tenor of the character he represented in the opera. The chorus was composed of 45 singers, and the entire performance went off with snap, and Miss Ede feels that it was indeed a rare treat to be able to see this splendid presentation of a popular opera.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Clark of Eight Mile recently had the pleasure of a visit from their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Allen of Redmond, who spent a day or so at the Clark home. Mr. and Mrs. Allen were just leaving on a visit to his old home in Tennessee, coming over to Eight Mile to say goodbye to Mrs. Allen's folks. They were traveling by auto and the journey east was made over the southern route through California, and after spending some time with his people, Mr. and Mrs. Allen will start the return journey, stopping over at Newton, Ill., for a visit with Mrs. Allen's relatives. They expect to be home in the early spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Saling drove over from Prairie City Monday, remaining in Heppner until Tuesday. They have been at Prairie for several weeks, helping their son, Archie Saling and his wife in getting located there. Mr. Saling works for the dredging company on the new dredge that will soon start operating on the John Day river at Prairie, and Mrs. Saling is engaged in the office of the company as book-keeper.

David Hynd returned from Portland and Yamhill, Oregon, on Tuesday. In company with his brother, Jack Hynd, they went to Yamhill for a visit with their brother-in-law, George Doney, who has been an invalid for several years, suffering from paralysis. Jack remained at Yamhill to help care for Mr. Doney for a short time.

B. H. Peck and his daughter, Miss Irene Peck, were visitors in Heppner Saturday. Hog butchering during the cold snap was in vogue at the Peck farm, and Mr. Peck was able to get his season's supply of meat put away. Miss Peck is teacher of the school at Cecil this year.

T. M. Scott, father of the late Mrs. Lawrence Redding, was up from his home at Salem on Saturday to attend the funeral of his daughter. Mr. Scott was for many years a farmer in the Sand hollow section northeast of Lexington.

Walter Jepson who raises pork and turkeys on his place up Rhea creek about 12 miles south of Ione, was looking after business in Heppner on Saturday.

Karl L. Beach, Lexington merchant, was looking after matters of business here on Tuesday. He and Mrs. Beach were at Walla Walla on Thanksgiving and took in the "Chocolate Soldier," the opera presented by the music department of Whitman college, and in which their son, Laurel, was one of the leading characters, and their younger son, Harold, was a member of the chorus. The performance was well received and Keelor Grand theater was filled to capacity the two nights the opera was presented. Mr. and Mrs. Beach greatly enjoyed the musical comedy.

Charley Barlow met with a little excitement Sunday afternoon, caused by his car turning turtle with him. The accident happened near the grand stand at Rodeo grounds, and the car went over as Charley attempted to pass another machine on the highway and was forced into the soft shoulder. While the little car was somewhat damaged, Mr. Barlow escaped injury.

The December meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society will be held at the Methodist church basement Tuesday, December 18, at 2:30 p. m. The study of Africa, as begun at the November meeting, will be continued by Miss Hager, and the program will consist of several other interesting numbers.—Secretary.

Jess Beardsley of The Dalles is juggling as conductor on the local branch line train for a couple of weeks. He formerly held a position on this run as brakeman, but has since been advanced to the place of conductor, and his headquarters have been at The Dalles for a number of years.

E. C. Amspoker, Crockett Sprouls and James Thomson, Jr., departed on Tuesday morning for Seattle, where they will start on Saturday on their trip to Japan and China, and other points in the Orient. The boys were driven to Arlington by Alva Jones, where they took the train for Portland.

Tyndal Robison and wife were Eight Mile people in the city on Saturday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Lawrence Redding, their neighbor. The change in temperature out that way was very marked on Friday. Mr. Robison states—from near zero to 40 above.

A very enjoyable time was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Antone Cunha on Thanksgiving, when Ernest Dumoand, son of Mrs. Cunha, and some cousins of Mr. Cunha came to make them a visit, and helped to devour the big feed prepared for the occasion.

Jason Biddle and wife of Rhea creek were visitors here on Saturday. They had just returned from a visit with Mr. Biddle's sisters residing at Portland and Corvallis, and the family had Thanksgiving dinner in Portland.

Paul Gemmill, of Cohn Auto Co., will leave on Saturday for Detroit, Mich., where he will attend a convention of Dodge dealers. He will board a special car at Spokane, and expects to be absent until about the first of the year.

N. A. Clark was in town on Friday from his Eight Mile home. During the recent cold snap the thermometer came near to the zero point, and the warmer weather coming on Friday was welcome.

Joe Batty, Eight Mile farmer, was in the city on Saturday.

J. H. French was a Heppner visitor yesterday from his home in the Gurdane section. But little winter has been experienced out that way so far this season, and the weather has been pretty mild.

Attorney C. L. Sweek is spending a few days in Portland this week on business. He went to Pendleton on Monday with Judge Fee, and from there on to Portland.

Mrs. G. W. Swaggart and son, Wilbur Swaggart, were here from Pendleton on Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late George C. Aiken.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Troedson of Morgan, were visitors in this city for a few hours on Monday while shopping.

Mrs. S. S. Strodman and daughter were shopping in this city on Saturday from their home at Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlson of Gooseberry were here on Tuesday and doing some Christmas shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rice were visitors in the city on Saturday from their home at Artesian farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. G. Doherty were Blackhorse people in this city for a short time on Wednesday.

Albert Nelson, wheatraiser of Lexington, was a visitor here on Wednesday.

Joe Devine, Lexington farmer, was a Tuesday visitor in the city.
