

Local Happenings

Jason Biddle thinks the farmers should have some snow for the benefit of crops, but does not like the signs very well and fears the needed moisture is going to be long delayed. However, we are sure that he does not want to be classed with the weather prophets, as anything might happen this time of the year. Mr. Biddle was attending to business affairs here on Monday forenoon.

W. P. Mahoney, C. L. Sweek and John Kelly motored to Condon on Saturday to attend the funeral of George Mayhew, prominent citizen of that community who was killed in an automobile accident near Condon on Thursday last. Mr. Mayhew was very well known in this city, as he was called here frequently on business matters.

Hints for the Home

by Nancy Hart

If you are seeking ideas for the table decoration for Christmas and do not want to use flowers, remember that you can make a gay and modernistic Christmas tree centerpiece by simply forming a cone of cardboard and applying rows of fringed green crepe paper round and round it.

Cut double thicknesses of paper in two inch strips and fold it; fringe the cut edges to a depth of one inch; cut small circles from the cardboard cone and paste tissue paper in brilliant colors over the holes and then paste the rows of fringe around the cone.

Use a small boudoir lamp with globe as mounting for the tree—and when the light snaps on you'll have as colorful and appropriate a Christmas centerpiece as the heart could desire.

Vegetarian Menu
 Corn and tomato soup
 Nut Outlets Creamed cabbage
 Salad of peas and cheese
 Popovers and stewed apples
 Non-stimulating drink

Good Sunday-Night Supper Salad
 Crisp and shred lettuce, place in the center a hard-boiled egg halved and stuffed with deviled yolk and chopped anchovies. Pour over the lettuce a French dressing flavored with anchovy paste and chopped pimientos.

Bacon Delights
 Make a sauce by cooking in double boiler for 15 minutes 1 1/2 cups tomato puree, 1-2 teaspoon mustard, salt and pepper to taste and 3 tablespoons quick cooking tapioca. Put 6 slices bread in baking pan, cover each with thin slice of cheese, a spoonful of sauce, then a slice of bacon. Bake in hot oven until bacon is crisp and brown.
