

BOARDMAN

On Christmas Day, Miss Nellie Messenger became the bride of Edwin G. Sharpe of Pendleton, at a beautiful wedding at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Mildred Messenger, sister of the bride and Horace Williams of Pendleton, attended the couple. Miss Mildred wore flame colored crepe satin and the bride was charming in blue crepe satin. The bridal party descended the stairs to the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Ora Messenger, a cousin of the bride who is visiting here from Kingman, Kans. The house was decorated in blue and white and this color scheme was carried out in various ways. Under a canopy of blue and white the marriage vows were taken, with Guy L. Drill, pastor of the Christian church at Pendleton, officiating. The ring ceremony was used. After the wedding the guests were seated at a table beautiful in blue and white and a marvelous five course dinner was served. Dainty rosebud baskets in blue and white were favors. Sixteen guests were present. Mrs. Marie Sharpe, mother of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Drill and Horace Williams were out-of-town guests. Delbert and Rachael Johnson, and Ray Barlow, Boardman, were present at the ceremony. The newly married couple departed for Portland on the afternoon stage and after a short honeymoon will be home to their friends in Pendleton.

Nellie Dillon was pleasantly surprised Saturday night when about twenty or more of her friends walked in unannounced to help her celebrate her sixteenth birthday. The evening was spent in games and dancing and later a lunch was served by Mrs. Dillon who planned the party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorham entertained a number of their friends at a radio watch party on New Year's eve. Some games were played and some excellent selections heard over the radio. An elaborate lunch was served late in the evening. Present were Messrs. and Mesdames Guy Barlow, Claude Coates, W. O. King, N. A. Macomber and L. V. Root.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead entertained at a wonderful dinner on New Year's day. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Calkins and Alice, and W. O. King and family.

The cemetery association is sponsoring a movie Saturday night, Jan. 5, at the schoolhouse. Rudolph Schildkraut playing in "A Ship Comes In." The theme deals with a Polish immigrant who came with his family to the U. S. and after winning his citizenship, the father, although innocent, is convicted of murder and sent to prison. The picture is said to be very good. A "Gang" comedy will also be shown.

Miss Francienne King was hostess to a number of her girl friends at a one o'clock luncheon Monday. Canning little baskets were used for favors. Invited guests were Janet Gorham, Helen Mead, Mary Smith, Grace Gillespie, Maxene Ballenger, Maxene Strobel, Morine Olson, Birdie Richardson, Lillian Hango and Lorraine Dillabough.

Boardman friends are interested to hear of the arrival of a son, born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee at Pendleton last week. This is their second child.

The losing team was to give the victors a party, following the high school alumni game, and since the high school lost they paid their score by having a pleasant party Friday night at the Mefford home. Forty-six were present and spent the evening with games and dancing.

The Boardman high school played Helix on Thursday evening at the local gym. The game was closely contested and full of interest and the last quarter Helix had a good streak of luck, making several successful long shots, thus defeating Boardman by a 21-17 score.

Richard Berger was brought home the day after Christmas from the hospital at Pendleton where he has been for the past two months. He will go back the 15th to have the cast removed. He is at the Jenkins home.

Harry Crawford came up from Portland and spent several days visiting old friends and on business.

Marvin Ransier spent the vacation visiting friends eight miles out of Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Morgan and sons who spent Christmas at the H. H. Weston home, returned to Portland, taking Mrs. Weston with them for a visit.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley of Everett, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard entertained at an informal but delightful dancing party at their spacious home on the West End. The early part of the evening was spent playing cards. The hostess served a dainty lunch late in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley left Friday for their home after a week visiting with Mr. Bradley's mother, Mrs. J. L. Jenkins.

MAGGIE ALENA MAY MILLER

Early Monday morning the body of Mrs. Maggie Alena May Miller was laid to rest in the Lexington cemetery. The body was shipped to Lexington from Bend, Oregon, and was met by relatives of the deceased at the railroad station and taken from there directly to the cemetery, where Rev. Stanley Moore, rector of All Saints Episcopal church of Heppner, read the burial service and preached a short sermon.

Maggie Alena May Holroyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Holroyd, was born at Guyandotte, W. Va., Oct. 11, 1860. Here she grew to womanhood and was, on August 14th, 1884, united in marriage to J. L. Miller of Maysville, Ky. To this union was born four children, all of whom survive; Floyd and Iris Miller of Pagosa Springs, Colo., Mrs. Chas. A. Marquardt of Lexington, Oregon, and Claude L. Miller of Cincinnati, Ohio. She also leaves six grandchildren and a brother, G. W. Holroyd of Birmingham, Ala. Her husband, parents, a brother and a sister having preceded her to their final rest.

She passed away at Bend after an illness of a few weeks, on Dec. 28, 1928, at the age of 68 years, 2 months and 17 days. She was an Episcopalian by birth but joined the Presbyterian church with her husband after marriage, under whose guidance she raised her family. She was a dutiful and loving daughter, wife and mother, and a helping friend to all who needed her help and sympathy. She will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Now on Display in our Showroom!

Today you can see the most sensational automobile ever introduced—The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History, a Six in the price range of the four!

Today, this amazing new automobile is on display in our showrooms and we cordially invite you to come in for a personal inspection! When you lift the hood and see the new six-cylinder valve-in-head engine you will realize that a new era has dawned for the buyers of low-priced automobiles. Representing four years development and testing, this new power plant is a marvel of advanced design. At every speed it operates with that delightful smoothness which everyone demands today in a modern automobile. It develops approximately 32% more power than any previous Chevrolet engine. It displays sensationally greater speed and faster acceleration. And yet, despite this brilliantly improved performance, it maintains Chevrolet's worldwide reputation for economical transportation by delivering better than an average of twenty miles to the gallon of gasoline!

Great Array of New Features
Matching this spectacular advance in performance is the greatest array of new features Chevrolet has ever announced.

The big, new four-wheel brakes are exceedingly quiet in operation. The new two-beam headlamps with foot control dimming device were never before available in Chevrolet's price class. And so on throughout the entire chassis, you will find feature after feature previously demanded in the finest of automobiles and now offered on the Outstanding Chevrolet in keeping with Chevrolet's policy of constant progress.

Distinctive New Beauty
But, however impressed you may be by the mechanical superiority of the Outstanding Chevrolet, your admiration will reach even greater heights when you study the car's distinctive beauty—

—the marvelous new Fisher bodies represent a masterful example of artistic coachwork. Never have beauty, comfort, convenience and staunch construction been more skillfully combined in the bodies of any automobile!
