Mr. and Mrs. John T. Kirk returned Sunday evening from a visit of two weeks to outside points. They were at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Bush at Vernonia for a number of days, then visited Portland and Seattle. At the latter point they enjoyed a visit with an uncle of Mrs. Kirk, Geo. Moore, whom she had not seen for twelve years. They report weather conditions fair on the trip, meeting up with some snow and not small amount of rain.

Scott Brown received a letter this week from Homer D. Angell, attorney, stating that Judge McNary had just signed a decree in favor of Mary A. Brown, in the land case of the U. S. vs. Mrs. Brown. Scott writes from Ione, telling of the fine winter weather there. He has leveled 100 acres for alfalfa and has the ground ready for seeding. He operates the hay part of the R. A. Thompson ranch. Mr. Thompson is his brother-in-law.—Condan Globe Times.

Mike Sepanek, one of the original wheatraisers of the North Sand Hollow section, was a Saturday visitor in Heppner. He reports a fall of three inches of snow in his immediate vicinity, and states that the moisture came in time to be of great help to the growing grain, besides it was followed by a big rain, all of which will aid in promoting a better crop condition for the coming season.

Chas. Klinger is one of the newer settlers in the Lexington community, being located on a farm northeast of there. He was at Heppner on Monday to attend to some business affairs, and reported to this paper that it would be a good thing to have some more moisture in his section, though wheat is faring pretty well at present.

Miss Ruth Tash, who is teaching school at Woodland, Washington, and Miss Zada Tash, Robert and Durward Tash, of Portland, have returned to their respective homes after spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tash, in this city.—Arlington Bulletin.

Representative Joseph N. Scott of Pendleton was a week-end visitor at Heppner, interviewing officials and others here pertaining to legislation that will be before the lawmakers at Salem the coming session. While in Morrow county, Mr. Scott also visited Ione and Lexington.

Reid Buseick sends this paper greetings of the season from John Day, and states that he has enjoyed a fine business during the past year. Mr. Buseick runs a general store at John Day, and that little city is moving up all the while.

Merle Kirk has closed a deal for the W. S. McKimney place in Clarks canyon, which he has been occupying as a renter for the past few years. This is considered one of the best places in that section of the county.

A sister of F. D. Cox arrived Thursday morning from Salem on a visit to her brother whom she had not seen for 15 years. This sister is 76 years of age.

Hints for the Home

by Nancy Hart

The background of architecture and furniture may endure for a long time—for generations, perhaps—but the accessories of the home change style with amazing frequency.

Pictures wrongly framed or hung too high, with peaked wires; bric-a-brac that is passe, or arranged in a way no longer considered "good"—such small decorative errors as these brand the home as out of date far quicker than do its furniture or rugs.

The sofa cushions, reading lamps and erstwhile library scarf; the decorated screen fittings for the dining room—look to them carefully, for subtle changes have been at work among them, refining, simplifying, making them to the home what her accessories are to the French woman's toilet—seals that stamp the ensemble as up to date, or frankly "out."

Tomato Rarebit

1 tbl. minced onion browned in 1 tbl. butter; 1-2 can tomatoes, heated to boiling point; add 1-2 lb. cheese, cut fine, 3 eggs, well beaten. Season highly with red pepper and salt; stir constantly until cheese melts and mixture thickens. Serve on crackers or toast.

Grapefruit Salad

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

Rev. Thomas J. Brady, Pastor.
Next Sunday will be the first Sunday after Epiphany, and there will be mass in the church at Heppner at 8:30, followed by a second mass in Ione at the home of Mr. J. P. O'Meara at 10:30. There will be no mass in The Sands on the fourth Sunday of January. The second mass on that Sunday will be said in either Lexington or in Ione instead of in The Sands.

Last Sunday was set apart by the pastor as Financial Report Sunday, and it is the only day in the entire year on which financial matters are touched upon. The report read by the pastor will also be commented upon in the different stations on the next visit of the pastor. Miss Patricia Monahan and John McNamee were put in charge of the girl and boy January drive. The pastor places much hope in the efforts of the children. Miss Margaret Brogan was appointed to take charge in Lena. The report is a very creditable one for the congregation, and shows a most commendable spirit of sacrifice in the interest of true religion as opposed to worldliness and frivolity. That a small community of the population of Heppner should donate unto God and His Church more than five thousand dollars during a year is emphatic evidence that God rules the hearts and souls of men. This entire sum was contributed by the Catholic people themselves. Since the coming of the present pastor there has been no public appeal for funds in any shape or form, though there have been many appreciated offers from many non-Catholic citizens of the county. This year the pastor will purchase property for a new church and pastoral residence in Heppner. This matter is now in hand and announcement will be made later.

On the third Sunday of January.

that is, on January 20th, the first mass will be said in Boardman at 7:45, in Root's hall, and a second mass that same day will be said in Heppner at 11 o'clock.
