Dean, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brookhouser, aged three months, died at the home of his parents in this city on Monday, January 8, after an illness of two days, from acute pneumonia following influenza. Burial took place on Tuesday afternoon at Heppner cemetery, with short services at the grave conducted by Milton W. Bower, pastor of the Christian church. In this sad bereavement, the family have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

Geo. Dykstra came down from the ranch the first of the week. He has been laid up there for a while, undergoing some bodily repairs, following an accident in which he was tramped on by a horse. One leg was pretty badly cut by the calks on the horse's shoe, and severe bruises on other parts of the body. He is quite well recovered now and able to be about town.

The regular meeting of Heppner Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, will be held at Legion hall on Tuesday evening, January 15. Hostesses for the evening will be Mesdames D. A. Wilson and R. B. Ferguson, and a full attendance of the members is requested.

Heppner hotel installed a new heating plant this week, in line with the renovating policy of Mr. Rankin, manager. Rooms are being cleaned and refurnished, and in a short time it is expected the lobby will be removed to the main street entrance.

Herbert and Jack Hynd, of Cecil sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynd, were calling in the city this morning. Jack Hynd, senior, who recently suffered injuries in an automobile accident is reported to be improving rapidly.
