Oregon Historical Society, Public Auditorium

Heppner Gazette Times

Volume 45, Number 46

HEPPNER, OREGON, THURSDAY, Jan. 31, 1929.

Subscription $2.00 a Year

John W. Hughes Buried "CHARM SCHOOL" At Fossil January 22nd COMING FEB. 12

Junior Class Play Replete With Comedy; Music Being Prepared.

(Fossil Journal) John W. Hughes, former Fossil postmaster and well-known citizen, died at his home in The Dalles Sun-day and was buried in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Fossil following fu-neral services at the Methodist church here at 1 o'clock Monday Rev. Glenn P. White officiating. Mr. Hughes was born at Hartville, Wright county, Missouri, Dec. 13,

"The Charm School," with cast from members of the junior class 1870, and came to Spray, Oregon, in of Heppner high school, will be pre-i884. In 1893 he married Francis sented at the school auditorium on Tuesday evening, February 12 Due to unavoidable circumstances the Hardman for five years. Returning to the Yazytack neighborhood they presentation was postponed from to the Haystack neighborhood they the December date previously an-nounced. Its presentation will be the first school entertainment of the year, but will be followed close-during the four following years. In the year, but will be followed close-ly by a series of attractions now in course of preparation, says Jas. M. Burgess, superintendent. "The Charm School" is a fast-1914 he was appointed postmaster at Fossil and served nine years. In 1924 the Hughes family moved to Bend where Mr. Hughes again en-"The Charm School" is a fast-moving comedy drama, in which a young man unwittingly finds him-self in the surroundings of a young women's seminary. Such a circum-ing house. It was at The Dalles stance is fruitful of many amusnig where Mr. Hughes sustained the stance is fruitful of many amusnig situations, and as brought out in where Mr. Hugnes sustained the last of a series of attacks of paraly-sis, the first of which he suffered before he left Bend. His widow, Mrs. Frances Hughes the play by a well chosen cast will afford the audience a great deal of special musical numbers are be-ing arranged by Miss Kate Francis Ede, music supervisor, to be given during interludes and as a prelude to the play. A great deal of effort has been expended not only in the greateries Ms. Frank B. McCord of The Dalles and Miss Kelly Hughes of Bandon survive. A son, Earl, died when only a little over a year old. Mr. Hughes was an enthusiastic member of the Odd Fellows, Mason-ic and Woodmen of the World lodges. He had attained the thirty-second decrees in Masonrue and my burial ceremonies.

Mr. Hughes is also survived by his brothers, Sam Hughes of Hepp-ner and Rev. I. N. Hughes of Portland, besides other relatives resid-ing on the Coast and in Missouri and Texas.

Chas. A. Johnson, who as a young man, lived many years in Morrow county, both at Heppner and Lexhas been expended not only in the preparation of the play but the special numbers as well, and they should be well given. The play cast follows: Austin Bevans Henry Robertson

David McKenzie _ Fletcher Walker George Boyd Cornet Green Jim Simpkins John Parker Nolan Turner Tim Simpkins Harry Wells Anna McDaid Harriet Morgan Virginia Dix Homer Johns Elsie Benedotti Miss Hayes Miss Curtis Saily Boyd Evelyn Swindig Jane Allstott Mary Beamer Muriel Doughty Ethel Spelvin Alix Mercier

Katherine Bisbee Lillian Stafford Erma Schulz Gertrude Doherty Madge Kent . Dotsie Margaret Beckett Managers are: Stage manager Duane Brown; business manager Roderick Thomson; property man ager, Katherine Bisbee.

Heppner and Lexington Split Double Header

As a preliminary to the Heppner-Lexington town team game at the school gym last evening, in which Lexington won 34-30, grade school teams from the same towns put on a fast exhibition, Heppner emerg-ing on the long end of the 10-8 score. "Mitch" Thorn was again high individual point gainer in the town clash with eight field goals. Playing for Heppner were Thorn Hisler, forwards; Beighle, center Ferguson, Bucknum, and Poulson guards. For Lexington, Gentry Lane, forwards; Nichols, center Slocum, Carmichael, Palmer and Wright, guards.

The grade line-up: Heppner, second degree in Masonry and was a member of the Shrine. The Fossil I. O. O. F. lodge had charge of the

IICIVIJ

A Close Race

Messrs. Cohn & Groshen have disposed of a fine bunch of lambs, Former Resident Here for which they received a price of 12% c, according to report. The boys Dies at Gresham Home are just a little sore, however, as they sold a day too soon, another necessary to feed them about five tons of imported corn, and then hay ington, died at his home in Gresh-am, Oregon, on Sunday, January 27. His funeral was held at that place on Tuesday afternoon of this week. While a resident here, Mr. Johnof sale C. D. Childs of Sapinero, Colorson followed warehousing for many years and held positions at Lexingdo, arrived here on Saturday for a visit of some two weeks with his ton and Heppner, and when hand shearing of sheep was all the vogue a visit of some two weeks with his sister, Mrs. Henry Taylor and fam-ily. It has been 18 years since they met and the visit is being mutually enjoyed. L. W. Childs and son he was among those who were call-ed the "100 strikers," and followed this line of work for many seasons. Later, with his family, Mr. Johnson David, of Arlington, were here also over the week-end. He had just moved to Portland and for a num-ber of years worked on the docks returned from a visit to the old family home in North Carolina, and there, making his home at Greshcame along with his brother C. D. am. He had been in ill health for the past two years. Mr. Johnson to enjoy the reunion at the Taylor was a member in good standing of Doric lodge No. 20, K. of P., of this ANNAPOLIS, made with co-op-eration of U. S. Navy, Star Theater Sunday and Monday. city, having joined the order here when he was a young man.

In attempting to is attending court here this week, assisting District Attorney Notson in the prosecution of the case of State of Oregon vs. Ralph Butler, Mr. Randall, another Pendleton attorney, is also assisting in the prosecution of this case. George Ritchie, Ione hotelkeeper, and Louis Balsiger, grain buyer of the same place, are among out-of-town visitors on jury duty during buyer coming along with an offer that raised this price two cents. In caring for the lambs it had been inconvenient to cert back and forth inconvenient to get back and forth through the snow is high, also, and it would have been nice to have received that 2d-ditional two cents. The lambs were in excellent condition at the time in the case of State of Oregon vs. John Kilkenny, Jr., Pendleton at-Wright and Chester Saling. He is a member of the firm of Baley, Raley & Warner of Pendleton. Mrs. Bessie Owen of Maupin has been a visitor at the home of her father, Albert Osmin. this week. At Maupin Mrs. Owen is engaged as chef in a hotel and she has made her home there for the past two years or more. L. Van Marter, manager of the Peoples Hardware company, is ab-sent from the city on business in Portland. Mr. Van Marter made the trip down by car and exper-ienced little difficulty in getting through turn | snow out his way, and more comon the short street leading from Chase to Main just south of the McRoberts stable Friday, the Shell Red wheat at $1 per bushel.

James A. Fee, Pendleton attorney.

FROM SALEM

bere T. Reid

By Albert T Reid

Oregon Voter Reporting Service.

To Stabilize County Clerk Fees Salem, Jan. 24 .- Donald J. Ryan, chairman of the county clerks' legislative committee, has been in Saof legislation regarding county the bills introduced this week by the Clackamas county representa- the weather, this game was posttives are sponsored by the county poned from an earlier date. John Farley, who is now recovered quite well from a severe attack of influ-enza, hopes to be in shape to take his place on the team in Satuday's clerks' legislative committee. The measures are state-wide in application.

by Representative H. H. Chindgren, which proposes to establish a mini-mum recorder's fee of $1.00 for five folios or less, Mr. Ryan explained that the burden would be placed upon those receiving the service. Rev-enue from the recorder's office amounts to approximately $10,000 per year in Clackamas county, Mr. Ryan states, and it is estimated that the new bill would produce addi-

CIRCUIT COURT Rabbits Near Alpine STARTS GRINDING

It was a bad day for the rabbits down Alpine way Sunday. Some 75 residents of that vicinity and peo-ple from neighboring points, includ-ing several carloads from Heppner, gathered at the old Kilkenny place Many Cases Disposed of Since Monday; Night and staged one of the most success Sessions Held. ful drives recorded in several years The drive started at 11 o'clock from the Mike Sepanek farm,

Big Drive Nets 3000

One of the busiest terms of cirrounding up a large portion of the rabbits in the canyon bottom for cuit court for several years in a distance of some four and a half miles, past the Kilkenny house to a Morrow county started grinding Monday morning, with J. Alger Fee, point where a pen had been con-structed to receive them. The drive circuit judge for this district, on netted in the neighborhood of 3000 furry denizens of the sage land. the bench. The third trial since Monday is The Alpine Farm Bureau, spon-sors of the drive, were hosts to the now in progress, that of the State of Oregon vs. Ralph Butler, on the charge of asault with a dangerous weapon. C. L. Sweek and Attorney visitors, providing a bounteous lun-cheon at the end of the drive, which weapon. C. L. Sweet and Attorney, Green of La Grande are counsels for defense while Attorneys Fee and Randall of Pendleton are as-sisting the prosecution. Wright was devoured in large quantities by men, women and children who were Saling and Chester Saling, tried on the charge of the possession of mash fit for the distillation of inmash fit for the distillation of in-toxicating liquor, are held for re-trial as the jury in the case failed to agree after being out for 24 hours. In the damage suit of Alex Wilson vs. Glenn E. Carpenter, the at the Kilkenny farm for two at the tranning and hunting, was growing out of a fight in which the services engaged some months ago, parties engaged some months ago, and plaintiff asked for $7500. The jury allowed him $571. jury found for the plaintiff. Car-penter appeared in his own behalf. Providing the snow remains on the ground, the Alpine Farm Bu-Charles Bookman and John Gil-man, charged jointly with operating reau will sponsor another drive at the same place next Sunday. a distillery for the purpose of man-ufacturing intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes on arraignment and plea of guilty were each sen-tenced to one year in the Oregon state penitentiary at Salem and a fine of $50.

Arlington vs. Heppner Lloyd Leathers, charged with non-support, on arraignment, entered a plea of not guilty, and asking for a piez of not guilty, and asking for an attorney was extended time in which to prepare for trial. In the case of J. G. Pearson vs. Tom Caldwell and Cyrus Barker, motion by plaintiff for non-suit al-lowed by the court. Dayal Widam vs. Carl Widam, order for default made by court, as defendant failed to appear.

W. W. Graves vs. J. J. Kelly, case ismissed for want of prosecution. Bessie C. Owen vs. Robert W. Owen. default and decree of divorce granted plaintiff on failure of defendant to appear. Plaintiff was awarded custody of Frank Owen.

Federal Land Bank of Spokane va. A. E. Harrison, et al., default and decree granted plaintiff by court on failure of defendants to арреаг.

State of Oregon vs. Harry Graves, on two indictments, cases dismissed on motion of state due to death of defendant.

State of Oregon vs. Arthur B. Fletcher, case referred back to the grand jury for further investigation.

Weldon Ayers, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, on arraignment entered plea of not guilty, and was allowed time in which to prepare for trial. L. Sweek will appear as counsel C. L. F. Duvall vs. F. A. Stapleton, case dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

In explaining the bill introduced game, but may not be able to do so. The lineup will be strong, however, and a good game is expected.

of the church Sexagesima Sunday, of the sixtieth day before Easter. Services on that day will consist of a low mass in the Heppner church clerks' and recorders' fees. Both

Portland. Mr. Van Marter made the trip down by car and exper-ienced little difficulty in getting fbrough. Grant Olden of Rhea creek was in the city Wednesday. Plenty of snow out his way, and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting for up. Solution al revenue of between $2500 and $3000 for the county. The second bill, introduced by Senator Linn E. Jones is intended to stabilize fees for services of snow out his way, and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting in the city Wednesday. Plenty of snow out his way, and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting snow out his way and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting in the city Wednesday. Plenty of snow out his way and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting in the city Wednesday. Plenty of snow out his way and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting in the city Wednesday. Plenty of snow out his way, and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting in the city Wednesday. Plenty of snow out his way, and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting in the city Wednesday. Plenty of snow out his way, and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting in the city Wednesday. Plenty of snow out his way, and more com-ienced little difficulty in getting in the city Wednesday. Plenty of snow out his way, and more com-snow out his way. And more com-

lem for several days in the interests loss of one or two of the best play-Because of sickness of so many of the members of the Heppner team, as well as the inclemency of

В.

ninute

The conference game of basket-ball between Arlington high and Heppner high will be played on the Heppner floor at the high school gym on Saturday evening, at 7:30, and the home team hope to carry off the laurels, though they are somewhat crippled because of the

Basket Ball Saturday,

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

Rev. Thomas J. Brady, Pastor. Next Sunday will be the liturgy made ravenously hungry by the long tramp through the snow and the execution ceremonies. G. Sigsbee, manager of the Star theater, was in the thick of the drive grinding away at his movie camera, and is in hopes of having ome good pictures to throw on the

at the Knikenny farm for two months trapping and hunting, was given possession of the dead rab-bits for removal of their pelts. In timing Mr. Albee, it was found he could skin two of the animals in a nny, forwards; Furlon center: Thomson, Jones, guards Lexington, Munkers, Evans, wards; Warner, center; Peck, for Val entine, Lane, guards. Melvin John ston referred both games.

O. E. S. Cheer Club

Elects New Officers

The Cheer club of Ruth Chapter No. 32, O. E. S., was entertained on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Gordon, worthy matron, at which time the officers for the new year were chosen, these being Mrs. Gertrude Parker, re-elected president; Mrs. Carolyn Johnston, vcie-president; Mrs. Ealor Huston, secretary-treasurer. Following the election a social hour was enjoyed, the ladies parti-cipating in a game called "cooty," in which Mrs. Mitchell Thorne received the grand prize. This game created a lot of amusement. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

ATTENDING COURT.

Numerous people from outside of town have been in the city this by Miss Ede. week attending circuit court. Some come as jurors, others as parties to suits being heard, and others as witnesses. Because of being snow ed in, it is reported that a number of jurymen from the far parts of the county were unable to make it to Heppner, there being too many big drifts to buck in getting over the roads. W. T. Reynolds, Hardman, Louis Balsiger and George Ritchie, Ione, C. Melville, Alpine D. Cox, Jr., Lexington, J. G. Doher ty, Blackhorse and B. P. Doherty Jr., Sand Hollow, were jurors from outside points reporting at cour Monday morning

FACING A NEW DAY.

This will be the subject of the Sunday morning sermon at the Church of Christ. This will be the first service since the close of the meeting and ought to be full of life and spirit.

The evening service will begin at 7:30 with a song service and we invite everyone to attend.

Bible school meets at 9:45. Morning worship at 10:50. Christian er having a figure, inscription and Endeavor for the young people at the date. 6:30.

There will be a baptismal service

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING. Indians of the Pacific Northwest will be the subject of particular study at the February meeting of the Woman's club, which will be held day after tomorrow (Saturday, February 2) in the Legion hall, at 2:15 p. m. getting the machine out. Because evening, February 7, at 7:30. This of the heavy snow, R. J. Pratt, lo- change was made necessary on ac-

"Myths and Legends of the North American Indian," by Spence, is the depression. No serious damage was book to be used as background for done the machine.

book to be used as background for the informal talks on the subject to be given by Mrs. Frank Turner and Miss Velag Basister Miss Velna Bannister. Another set of stereopticon slides. priced right. 46-tf. Judge Alger Fee and Reporter J. S. Beckwith came in from Pendleconsisting of illustrations of Pacific Northwest Indians and their ton on Sunday afternoon to be pres-manner of living, has been obtained, ent on Monday at the convening of and these will be thrown on the circuit court. The judge met with Boardman people in the city the screen and described by Mrs. Har-some trouble bucking snow drifts first of the week, coming over to Anyone interested, whether a helped out of the ditch this side of old Case. member of the club or not, will be very welcome. Particularly it is to his machine, however. Rev. Melville T. Wire, pastor of hoped that persons who have Indian relics or souvenirs, or who can the Methodist church of Pendleton, give personal anecdotes of Indian and Rev. Mr. Jeffery of Seaside days, will brave the bad weather were in Heppner the first of the and attend the meeting. week, Musical numbers will be a piano duet by Mrs. Walter E. Moore and port. week, presenting the claims of Wil-Musical numbers will be a plano duet by Mrs. Walter E. Moore and Mrs. Wm. Poulson, and vocal solo Methodist church here Sunday morning.

K. OF P. NOTICE.

Important meeting of Doric lodge No. 20, next Tuesday evening, Feb. 5. Good attendance desired. JASPER V. CRAWFORD, KRS.

Grant Olden, Rhea creek farmer, s spending some time in the city this week, as a juror.

J. H. Helms, Butter creek resident, is doing jury duty here this voek.

ANNAPOLIS, made with co-operation of U. S. Navy, Star Theater Sunday and Monday. protected.

Havey Miller is among residents of the Lexington vicinity doing jury duty in the city this week.

> $109 for Old Coln Gettysburg, Pa.—At a sale of an-tique coins, a $50 gold peice sold for $109. It was minted in 1852.

A $2 coin bearing only the mint date of 1806 sold for $6. The $50 coin was plain on one side, the oth-

ANNAPOLIS, made with co-op-There will be a baptismal service at the close of the morning service. MILTON W. BOWER, Minister. MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

cal Shell manager, did not see the count of inclement weather

Martin Stewart has left the Cocil. Lambing is scheduled to start there Febuary first. Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Peck, Peter Mr. and Mr. Farley, George Mit-chell and John McNamee were Boardman people in the city the last month.

"At the present time there is an attend circuit court. eight-day discrepancy between time Word received by Frank Farns- specified for the preparation of bal-worth states that his mother, Mrs. lots and the time in which an ab-Katherine Farnsworth, is ill at Mensent voter's ballot may be obtained.

210.

lo Court, California, where she is spending the winter at the home of states that county clerks shall prestates that county clerks shall predaughter. pare the ballots not more than 40 Mrs. George French, sister of Sam

Hughes, who has been visiting at This raises the time limit from the Heppner for some time with her present law which gives not more relatives, departed on Sunday for than 22 or less than 19 days. If the relatives, departed on Sunday for her home at Riverton, Wyoming.

The Hardman stage, carrying the United States mail, was unable to get through Tuesday morning and absent voter's ballot may be ob-W. T. Reynolds is in the city from Hardman on jury duty. He came in on horseback, and reports of the was forced to turn back after reachng Heppner hill, C. W. Smith is engaged in a rabncreasing snow in his vicinity lead him to believe it may be necessary to walk and break a track for the it poisoning campaign near Boardhorse in order to get it home. He says the horse is an adept at folman, having departed from the city Fuesday evening. He is expected lowing his tracks through the drifts. ome tomorow. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beckner were

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Moeller are troduced, thereby harmonizing with visitors here on Saturday from their home southwest of Ione. At in the city, appearing as witnesses in the State vs. Ralph Butler case. that time the Jordan butte coun-try had some 14 inches of snow, The Moellers now reside in Portland.

D. Cox, Jr., who farms near Lexand no doubt some has fallen since The wheat fields are thoroughly ington, finds it possible to get thru the snow to spend evenings at home when not serving as a juror. Earl Evans, in the city on jury Miss Mary Clark arrived home on Sunday from Eugene, being met at Arlington by her father, M. D. Clark and Paul Gemmell. Miss duty, reports fine success with lambing at the Evans farm down Miss Willow creek.

Clark finished her work at the Uni-versity of Oregon the middle of the Dr. A. K. Higgs of Portland is in ballot box is said to be confusing Heppner on legal business connected with his land holdings in this year and will now be at home. J. G. Doherty and B. P. Doherty, Jr., both residents of the Sands secounty. Hanson Hughes, of the firm of Hughes & Hughes, has been contion, are among out-of-town jurors. The younger Mr. Doherly reports sheep doing well on straw and corn diet and lambing will not begin unfined at home this week by illness. Oscar Davis left this week for Ce-til late in February. Noah Pettyjohn, Morgan wheatcil where he will be engaged during the lambing season. E. J. Keller is spending the week a population of 100,000 or less, Mr. There will be a second mass in Lena the defendant. Ryan states. It will produce a ma-terial increase in the revenue from 10:30. county clerks' fees, amounting to about $1200 per year, in Clackamas county, is Mr. Ryan's opinion.

Twelve bills, intended to amend with an Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart. Confessions will be the present election laws, will simheard before this mass and Holy Communion will be distributed. This mass is put at an early hour so as to provide for the school chilson of Astoria who introduced the blils. "These amendments were recommended by the legislative dren ample time to return home for breakfast and arrange things for committee of the county clerks association at its meeting in Portland school. Confessions will be heard before the mass. On Saturday following, that is on February 2nd, there will be mass at 8 o'clock, the day being the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary Candles will be blessed before this of the Gospel for the day. Bene or less than 35 days before election amendment passes, harmony with the absent voter's law will be obtributed next Sunday in Heppner and in Lena, tained not more than 30 days nor less than six days before the elec-JUVENILE DEGREE OF HONOR.

tions," he said. Candidates for state offices are re

Owing to the severe weather, the quired to file certificates of nomina meeting of the junior class of jution 45 days instead of 40, under the veniles provisions of house bill No. 206 inday, February 8.

the absent voter's law. The Secre-Ed Musgrave, ranchman of Rhea tary of State and cities of 200 or more population are required to creek, was looking after business interests here on Saturday.

send arranged ballots to county clerks, not more than 45 days nor New Spring Dresses now arriving less than 40 days in the provisions of house bill No. 208, Representaat Curran Hat Shop. These ar priced right. 46-tf. tive Robison stated.

Discontinuance of the use of small Ralph I. Thompson, Willow creek farmer and stockman, is spending ballot boxes for state and district

The presence of more than one he said.

How to punish the known owners of known sheep-killing dogs, the known owners of unknown dogs,

Mark J. Barthel vs. S. A. D. Gurley, et al., case dismissed on motion of plaintiff

State of Oregon vs. Charles Chanchurch at 7:30, with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, terminating dler, case dismissed on motion of district attorney.

John Doherty, charged with gam bling, on arraignment entered plea of not guilty, and asking for an torney was given time in which to prepare for trial.

Judge Fee, finding the business before the court to be crowding it for time, convened night court yesterday and may continue this procedure until the docket is cleared. Jurors not now serving were ordered by the court to report at 1:30 this afternoon.

mass and used during the reading Union Missionary Officers diction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given after the mass. Only will be given after the mass. Only wax candles can be blessed on this day. Next Sunday will also be the feast of St. Blase, bishop and mar-feast of St. Blase, bishop and mar ter the mass. The parish report for purpose of choosing officers and the month of January will be dis-committees to serve during the coming year.

The following were chosen: Miss Lulu Hager, president; Mrs. Ralph Bonge, vice president; Mrs. Elbert Cox, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Frank S. Parker, Mrs. A. M. Pheips, Mrs. Harold Case, program com-mittee; Mrs. Robert Thompson, will be postponed until Fri-Mrs. A. D. McMurdo, Mrs. Sam Lininger, refreshments committee

WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE.

Oegon State Agricultural College, Corvallis, Jan. 30.-C. W. Smith, county agent of Morrow county, will attend the annual extension service conference to be held at this college February 4 to 9 inclusive, County agents from 27 Oregon counties will cooperate with local extension staff executives in the discussion of last year's experiences and this year's work. An educational program has been prepared by Paul V. Maris, director of extension service, and members of the executive staff. Problems deal-ing with every branch of the service will be discussed, and plans for the unknown owners of known dogs and the unknown owners of un-known dogs will doubtless be a problem which the legsilators at the "We thought of starting a sinking priced right." New Spring Dresses now arriving at Curran Hat Shop. These are priced right.

ballots is asked in house bill No. a vacation in the city on jury duty.

Pertaining to Sheep-Killing Dogs

as, a negro, was sentenced to prison for life for killing another negro in

Murdered-But Alive Caruthersville, Mo .- Peter Thom-

