

Local Happenings

Noah Clark says the ground has never worked better in years than it does this spring, and the Eight Mile farmers are in their fields and turning up the ground at a lively rate with the big plows. Mr. Clark was in the city for a short time Monday. He had just received word from his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Allen, who reached their home at Redmond on the 15th after a very pleasant journey by auto from Illinois and Tennessee, where they spent the winter. They came by the southern route, and noted while in Texas that the thermometer registered 90 in the shade, and their journey home was without mishap or delay of any sort because of weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Warren of Kinzua, Oregon, are visiting in Heppner this week. They have been at the new lumber town during the fall and winter, and Mr. Warren will again take up sheep raising for the season, expecting to get started about the first of April. After that work is over, Mr. and Mrs. Warren will return to Kinzua. They were formerly located at Boardman, but have traded their property there for property at Longview, Wash., and later on may go to that city to live.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner and son Don arrived from their home at Salem on Saturday evening for a visit of a few days with relatives here while Mr. Turner is looking after business affairs. They were accompanied by Vawter Parker, U. of O. student, who is spending the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker.

Miss Mildred Green, student at Oregon State Normal, Monmouth, is spending spring vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Green, being accompanied by the Misses Bertha and Lavina Millholland of Corvallis, also students at the normal school and friends of Miss Green.

Jon Conder, University of Oregon freshman, arrived home on Friday evening for the spring vacation at the home of his father, Dr. J. P. Conder. Besides carrying a heavy course at the university, Jon is taking music and art, the music including instruction in pipe organ.

Carl Cason was in Portland over the week-end, visiting with Mrs. Cason and the little daughter, Beryl, the latter having recently undergone an operation from which she is slowly recovering. Mrs. Cason will remain at Portland until the little girl is well again.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bennett of Alpine were visitors in Heppner on Wednesday. Mr. Bennett is just recovering from an illness which kept him confined at home for two months. He reports farming operations moving along nicely in the Alpine section.

Eldon Wood, who has been pastor for the past three years of the Christian churches at Lexington and Ione, has closed his work with these churches, and with Mrs. Wood is moving to Eugene where he will take up work at the University and get his degree.

Mrs. Chas. Burchell of Lexington was a visitor in the city for a short time on Wednesday afternoon.

Ellis Thomson arrived home on Saturday from Eugene, where he is a student at the university, and has been spending the week's spring vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thomson. Mr. Thomson motored to Portland to meet his son, and on the return they were accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Conder, home from Eugene for the week. The party just missed witnessing a fatal accident on the highway near Cascade Locks, when a sedan from Idaho was struck by a freight truck, thrown into the ditch and the driver killed instantly.

Glenn Young, who with his father, J. S. Young, is extensively engaged in wheat raising on the Young farm in Eight Mile, thinks the prospects were never much better for a crop than at present. In his section the farmers are quite busy with spring plowing and the work is moving along well. Mr. Young was a visitor here on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Noble motored down to the Columbia river on Sunday afternoon, and Mr. Noble states that the new lambs are very numerous on the ranches along the highway, but at the river range conditions are backward and not as far along as up toward the foothills.

D. C. Wells, Pendleton real estate dealer, was here Friday, bringing over a prospective buyer of Morrow county property. Mr. Wells was interested in the Ralph Butler place below town, but on arriving here found that Mr. Butler had already made disposal of the ranch.

S. E. Notson, district attorney, went to Pendleton on Wednesday, having some legal matters to present to Judge Fee. He contemplated going from there to Portland for a stay of a day or two while looking after matters pertaining to the duties of his office.

H. E. Young states that spring has arrived in the Butter creek section in good shape and ranchers and hay raisers about Pine City are getting busy with the spring work. Mr. Young was in Heppner on Monday looking after business matters.

B. F. Swaggart, who was in the city from his ranch on Monday, thinks that conditions could not be much better and there is promise of a fine crop out this year, because of the abundance of moisture and prevailing weather conditions.

W. P. Mahoney, vice president of First National bank, who has been laid up for about two weeks at home, suffering an attack of sciatic rheumatism, was able to be at his desk in the bank again on Monday, but not yet fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith and two daughters were visitors in Heppner Monday evening from their home at Ione, taking in "Abel's Irish Rose" at Star theater.

Miss Louise Thomson, student at Ellensburg State Normal, is home for the spring vacation, visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shively were visitors in Portland over Sunday, where Mr. Shively took part in the trap shoot.

Adam Knoblock was in Portland over Sunday, and while there took part in the trap shoot. Adam reports that he got it "in the eye" when he stepped up to do his shooting, hence the showing made was not up to his usual standard. The buckle of a shell was responsible, he says.

J. B. Way, for a number of years engaged in farming in the Lexington section, was here the first of the week from his home in the Willamette valley. He is thinking of returning to Morrow county if he can get suitably located.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner, who spent a few days with relatives here departed yesterday morning for their home in Salem. They were accompanied that far by Vawter Parker on his return to Eugene.

Chas. Latourell and Frank Shively, of Heppner, and Earl Warner of Lexington, were members of the Heppner Rod and Gun club who attended the Everding Birthday trap shoot in Portland Sunday.

R. W. Thomas, executive assistant of the Umatilla National forest, is in Heppner this week to audit the records of the local ranger's office. Mr. Thomas is from the office at Pendleton.

Mrs. F. B. Nickerson arrived home on Sunday from California, where she was called by the death in a train accident of her brother-in-law. She was met at Arlington by Mr. Nickerson.

Herbert French was in from the ranch of J. D. French and Son at Gardane on Saturday. This is the first time he has been able to get over the hill since the big snow. He reports that the grass is slow in getting a start in his vicinity.

The dedication of the new veteran's hospital at Portland on Monday was an attraction that took a number of Heppner people to the city. Among those going down for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Alva Jones, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Gimmell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam. Going along with these people was Mrs. Earl Gordon, who visited the city on business and pleasure combined.

Oscar Keithley reports that since the weather is returning warmer, and there is no freezing of nights, vegetation out Eight Mile way is beginning to show up as it should. Mr. Keithley visited Heppner Tuesday on business.

Troy Bogard, Eight Mile wheat rancher, was looking after business here on Friday. He expresses himself as well pleased over the splendid condition of the coming crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz motored to Wapato, Wash., on Sunday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Merritt. They returned home Monday afternoon.

Shooters driving to Portland for the week-end, and taking part in the exhibition shoot there on Sunday were Dr. A. D. McMurdo and La Verne Van Marter.

Lawrence Redding was looking after business affairs here on Wednesday afternoon, having to return to his Eight Mile home in a heavy shower of rain.

The sewing club of the American Legion Auxiliary and Relief Corps will meet at the home of Mrs. Spencer Crawford, Wednesday afternoon, March 27, at 2:30.

Merle Becket is up from school at Corvallis, spending spring vacation week with his mother, Mrs. Frank Shively. He is a student at Oregon State college.

Mrs. Emma Gemmill motored as far as The Dalles Sunday with her son, Paul, and remained there for a visit with her son Walter and family.

Mrs. Glen Jones accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Alva Jones to Portland on Sunday. She was called below on account of the illness of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shurte of Wapato, Wash., announce to Heppner friends the birth of a daughter, Mary Louise, at the hospital in Yakima on March 12th, 1929, weight 6 pounds. Latest reports state that mother and child are doing well.
