You buy 73 years' experience in gardening when you buy Ferry's purebred Seeds

IF YOU had gardened for 73 years—had raised tons of produce—had watched the plants and weeded out inferior strains till only selected quality results—you would know the seeds best to plant.

There is 73 years' experience in gardening back of Ferry's purebred Seeds. Ferry has done the experimenting for you. Ferry knows that these seeds are the children and the grandchildren of vigorous, purebred plants—seeds whose families for generations have produced vegetables of fine flavor and tenderness, flowers of supreme color and beauty.

These are the seeds you want in your garden. Ferry's thousands of tests each year help determine, so far as is humanly possible, that they will produce and produce correctly in size, color, vigor, and flavor.

Buy Ferry's purebred Seeds at "the store around the corner." They are fresh for planting now. Write for Ferry's Seed Annual. Its garden facts make it more than a catalog.

Price's home with 12 girls present. Enrolled for the course are Sybil Macomber, Elsie and Imogene Wilson, Mary Chaffee, Betty Muller, Bertie Richardson, Maxine Mackan, Lois Messenger, Grace Gillespie, Wanda Shane and two others whose names we did not obtain. Mrs. Price served cake and chocolate to the girls. She plans to have the different mothers serve at the various meetings.

Ray Barlow is home from Portland where he has been attending school since last fall.

Mrs. A. T. Hereim and A. T., Jr., were luncheon guests Friday at the Price home.

Boardman people will be pleased to know that Supt. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat will return next year. Under Mr. Marschat's supervision the Boardman school system has ranked as one of the best in the county. Other teachers who have signed their contracts are W. O. King, who will for the third year teach manual training and science. Mr. King has done splendid work as was shown by the fine exhibit of his manual training class on Friday. Miss Spike will return as home economics teacher for the second year and Miss Henry will teach the third and fourth for her third year. Miss Falk will probably not teach next year. She was given her contract but did not sign it. Miss Chapman will attend college and Mrs. Gillespie is still undecided as to what she will do.

W. A. Price and family will move to the ranch next week after two years residence in town.
