

Local Happenings

W. T. Campbell enjoyed a very pleasant visit with an old-time friend this week, whom he had not seen for a period of fifty years. T. J. Briley, of Brooks, Minn., arrived here the first of the week and remained over for a day or so at the Campbell home, and enjoyed immensely renewing the friendship formed so many years ago. He is on a trip west visiting with relatives at Spokane and Portland, and getting this near to Heppner he could not resist the urge to call on Judge Campbell. Mr. Briley was given a ride over the country by Mr. Campbell on Tuesday, after which he took his departure.

Miss L. A. Allinger, assistant cashier of Farmers and Stockgrowers National bank, was called to Portland the end of the week by the very serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Chas. Allinger of Ione. Mrs. Allinger had gone to the city for a day and was taken ill with bronchial pneumonia, and for several days was in a critical condition. According to last reports, Mrs. Allinger was improving, but her daughter was not permitted to leave her.

Mrs. Eliza Walbridge of Pendleton was in Heppner over the week-end looking after her property interests here. Mrs. Walbridge is owner of the corner lot on May street where the Star lodging house formerly stood, and it is understood she is disposing of this to a local business man. Her visit here was to see about straightening up the title to this property. Mrs. Walbridge returned home on Monday.

Creston R. Maddock and wife of Portland were visitors in this city on Friday. Mr. Maddock is special agent for a fire insurance company and has his headquarters in Portland, out of which city he works the territory in which Heppner is included. He enjoyed meeting up with numerous old-time friends here.

Miss Gladys Bengé had as her dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson on Monday evening, the Misses Nancy Harris, Hortense Kay, Gladys Horrell and Helea Haskins, all of whom were with the Whitman glee club, and were college friends of Miss Bengé at Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ward arrived here from their home at Perma, Montana, on Sunday. They were called to the city by the serious illness of Mrs. Ward's mother, Mrs. Sperry, who has been ill for some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Isom, suffering from dropsy.

Laurence Beach, who is in the automobile business at The Dalles, came up Monday to hear the Whitman glee club. His brother Laurel was leading tenor in the club. He remained for a day or so to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl L. Beach at Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnston, accompanied by the Misses Pearl Vail and Mary Gingrich, all teachers of Lexington school, motored to Portland from Boardman institute Friday evening. They spent Easter with Mrs. Johnston's parents.

The latest reports from R. W. Turner, Heppner citizen on his return from visiting the Holy Land and European points, is to the effect that he was with relatives in Illinois, and expected soon to reach home.

Dr. Samuel Tyler, eyesight specialist, will make his regular trip to Heppner, Sunday-Monday, April 7-8, at Peterson's store. Comfortable and becoming glasses guaranteed.—Adv.

For Sale—Bronze turkey eggs, 25c each. Mrs. Wm. McCarty, Echo, Oregon. 3-7p.

Mrs. Roy Masidine is visiting the farm home during the plowing season. She expects to return to her home in Portland Saturday to hear her daughters play in a big recital there on Sunday.

Richard Howell, son of Henry Howell, is here from Portland, enjoying a visit with relatives and friends. He may decide to remain in this vicinity during the spring and summer.

Dr. Clarke, of Portland, EYE SIGHT SPECIALIST, in Heppner, TWO days, Sun. and Mon., April 14 and 15, at Hotel Heppner. Consultation free. 3-4.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson of Portland were week-end visitors in this city, being guests at the home of Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Campbell.

Leo Gogger, extensive wheat farmer of the north Lexington country, was looking after affairs of business in this city on Saturday.

ALPINE.

Mrs. Stanley Straight spent the week-end with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Pearson of Echo.

Peggy Thompson and Ramon Moline of Laurel, Oregon, were Sunday evening guests of Miss Gertrude Tichenor.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Pearson and sons Jack and Don visited Sunday evening at the West Camp ranch. J. C. Thompson is assisting the Melville brothers with their spring work.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simonton were business visitors in Echo on Friday. C. Melville called on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moorehead on Friday evening.

Peggy Thompson who has been ill for the past week, is able to be about again. She started to school on Monday.

Ray Moline and Peggy Thompson were dinner guests at the West Camp ranch Thursday.

G. L. Benett made a business trip to Heppner Monday. The play, "Her Step-Husband," given by the young people of Alpine, on the evening of March 30, was a great success. Everyone enjoyed it immensely. All characters took their parts well, and the new stage was an important asset, adding to the effectiveness of the setting.

Celatha Lambirth, Willard Hawley and Alex Lindsey motored to Echo Sunday night on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simonton were business visitors in Echo on Friday.

C. Melville called on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moorehead on Friday evening. Peggy Thompson who has been ill for the past week, is able to be about again. She started to school on Monday.

Ugliest Woman?

Miss Mary A. Bevan, who is said to claim honors as the world's ugliest woman, arrived in New York aboard the Leviathan.

trip but it ended as a pleasure trip. They took in the movie, "Show People," before coming home.

The Easter services at Alpine consisted of a basket dinner at noon and Sunday school and church in the afternoon. There was special music. Church will be held at Pine City next Sunday. All are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nirschel and little daughter, Juanita, spent Easter Sunday with Mrs. Nirschel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bennett. They came from Pendleton Saturday and saw the play and drove back on Sunday night, spending Sunday visiting.

Mrs. Merle Bennett is visiting with her sister, Mrs. James McDaniell, at Eight Mile. Alfred Sibley and Paul Lee of Hermiston were visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity Sunday.

Hazel Ritchie, Ruth Bennett and Olin Ritchie went to Heppner Sunday night to see the show.

It is now an assured fact that the Heppner high school play will be given at Alpine on the night of April 6, at the monthly Farm Bureau meeting. Dr. Conder and the County Agent Smith have made the arrangements. Everyone is invited to see the play, which we are sure, will be very good.

Miss Gertrude Tichenor departed for Portland on Monday morning to attend to some business. While she is there, however, she will visit Miss Margaret Melville, a student at the Behnke-Walker Business college.

Merle Bennett and Grover Sibley attended the show in Echo Sunday night.

Ruth Bennett and Doris and Celatha Lambirth were business visitors in Echo and Hermiston Saturday.

The exhibits from Alpine at Boardman on March 29, were reported to have been some different from those of other Morrow county schools. The most outstanding of these exhibits were trays, baskets and toys made and decorated by the industrial arts class. The grade pupils had some maps and pamphlets on exhibition, also.

Mrs. Lambirth spent Friday in Pendleton.

Mrs. Chas. Schmidt and Alfred Schmidt spent Monday evening at the Bennett ranch.

Mrs. G. L. Bennett motored to Echo on a business trip Monday.
