MRS. FARNSWORTH CAME HERE IN 1874

Pioneer Dies Following Short Illness; Final Tribute Paid.

Death called another of Morrow county's early pioneers this week when Mrs. Katherine M. Farnsworth passed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Thomson in this city on Saturday night, April 13 about 11 o'clock, following a short illness. Mrs. Farnsworth had but recently returned from spending the winter months at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Dinsmore at Menlo Park, Calif. During this time she had been ill, but on arriving at Heppner seemed much improved, but suffered a relapse from which she failed to rally.

Funeral services were held at the Episcopal church on Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Stanley Moore officiating. The attendance of friends of the family was large and the floral offerings were many and beautiful. Mrs. Farnsworth had lived in this city for long years, her family grew up here, and she was a highly respected citizen in the community, known and loved by a large circle of friends because of her kindly and neighborly disposition, and her passing is mourned by many aside from the members of her family.

Katherine Margaret Pray was born in Findlay, Ohio, February 4, 1850, the daughter of William K. and Emeline E. Pray, both of New York City. She came to Oregon by way of the Isthmus of Panama with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Smith and settled at Portland. On June 18, 1873, she was married at Portland to Orin E. Farnsworth and came with him to Morrow county in 1874, the family settling on Rhen creek where Mr. Farnsworth engaged in sheep raising and some farming on a small scale, but which business increased as time went on until he was known as one of the leading men in the industry in this community. The family later moved to Heppner where they made their home, Mrs. Farnsworth passing away a few years ago.

To Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth nine children were born, seven of whom are still living, these being four daughters and three sons, Mrs. Chas. Thomson, Mrs. L. E. Biebee, Mrs. J. W. Beymer of Heppner, Mrs. W. L. Dinsmore of Menlo Park, Cal., and three sons, Frank P. of Heppner, Edward T. of Monument and Karl W. of Enterprise. Besides these Mrs. Farnsworth is survived by one sister, Anna F. Pray of Toledo, Ohio, and seven grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS.

For the assistance given, the many kindly expressions of sympathy and the beautiful floral offerings by friends and neighbors, in the hour of our bereavement by the death of our beloved mother, Katherine Margaret Farnsworth, we extend our sincere appreciation.

THE MENACE OF MODERNISM.

There have been other days when unbelief was more popular than today. But it is certain that so-called Modernism is entrenched at the present time, and to such an extent that we may well pause to consider the menace. This will be the subject of the evening sermon at the Church of Christ. The hour is 7:30. The morning worship (10:30) is centered about the Lord's Table. The evening sermon will be, "Living the New Testament Life as a Disciple."

A place for everyone at the Bible school at 9:45.

Christian Endeavor invites young people at 6:30.

MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorris Mitchell, Mrs. Everett Hayes and Grandma Early arrived at Heppner Sunday evening from Joseph. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Early were guests at the home of Mr. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker over Sunday night, and accompanied Mr. Parker on to Eugene to spend a few days, arriving back at Heppner this evening. Mrs. Hayes visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Crawford. The Joseph folks will return home tomorrow.

Heppner Juveniles Assist at State D. of H. Meet

The biennial state convention of the Degree of Honor Protective association was held in The Dalles April 9th and 10th. This is the first time the convention has met in Eastern Oregon in thirty years. Joint hosts for this occasion were the lodges from Pendleton, Baker, John Day, La Grande, Heppner, Bend and The Dalles.

Juvenile clubs of Heppner and The Dalles exemplified the work of the children. They made a very attractive picture in their new uniforms. Heppner juveniles had the honor of introducing the national president, Mrs. Olson, regional director, Mrs. Gelsner, and state president, Mrs. McCord. Mrs. Olson commended them for having the largest juvenile club in the state, and for the way they put the work on, also for having journeyed so far.

The juveniles left Heppner at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning in Mr. Bleakman's Reo speed wagon, and Mrs. Hilma Anderson's car, and they arrived at The Dalles at 10:30. They were entertained at lunch by the superior lodge. Those making the trip were past president Margaret Sprinkel; president, Eileen Kenny; vice president, Theodore Thomson; second vice, Helen Doherty; usher, Pearl Barton and Phyllis Jane Pollock; flag staff, Billie Thomson, Marie Barton, Alice Bleakman, Frank Anderson, Ted McMurdo and Irene Beamer; flag bearer, Guy Moore, and flower girl, Louise Anderson. At 4 o'clock they started for home, after having spent a very enjoyable day.—Reporter.

Plan Benefit Dance For Swimming Pool

Heppner unit American Legion Auxiliary has completed plans for a benefit dance for the Legion pool. Music for the dance, which will be held in Elks' hall Friday evening, May 3, will be furnished by the Blue Devil orchestra of The Dalles. Because of the fact that it will require the expenditure of several hundred dollars to put the pool in condition for opening this year, and the further fact that Heppner Post is still in debt from operation of the tank last year, the Auxiliary is taking this means of permitting the public to aid in putting the tank in shape. The members of the auxiliary believe the tank to be a civic institution, and urge every citizen of the city to buy tickets, whether or not they are dancers.

"Pickles" Gives Promise; Date Will be Set Soon

Waterfalls, sparkling pools, Viennese costumes, peasant carnivals and quaint folk dances of Old Bohemia all go to make "Pickles," the annual high school opera, one of the prettiest and sprightliest of the popular operettas. The date of presentation will be announced next week.

In stage effects, setting forth the aforementioned background, the opera this year will far exceed all former presentations of like nature, declares Jas. M. Burgess, superintendent. But not alone in scenery will "Pickles" be distinguished. In spite of the ludicrous name, the melodies are harmonious and beautiful, and though humorous in nature, a beautiful theme of romance runs throughout.

The plot centers around an American pickle merchant who tries to corner the pickle market in Vienna. Varied and numerous are the experiences encountered, including a mix-up with the royalists. The pupils cast by Miss Kate Francis Ede, coach, are well adapted to their parts, it is declared, and Heppner and vicinity may look forward to a real treat.

BOY SCOUTS.

The Boy Scouts do move. We have been making some real progress during these past few weeks. There was a hike to the mountains by a group of seventeen boys, on which some cooking tests were passed and a lot of fun had.

During the meetings the boys have been working on various tests and passing them; boxing the compass, signaling, fire making, knots, Scout laws, etc.

Wednesday evening, April 17, Dr. Johnston gave the boys and two lone Scout girls a demonstration in bandaging and first aid care of fractures. Both the triangular and the roll bandages were used. The doctor gave us quite a thorough lecture and the boys did a lot of practicing.

This Thursday evening, April 18, there will be a court of honor, held in the new Scout and Camp Fire Girl room in the high school basement. Several boys will receive their tenderfoot badges and one or two will be made Second Class Scouts. There are several boys just on the verge of becoming First Class Scouts.

We have lately acquired a library of merit badge books which will be put in the school library and can be drawn upon by the boys in the usual way. We hope soon to have some Star, Life and Eagle scouts in our troop.

"Her Step Husband" to be Presented at Lexington

The play, "Her Step-Husband," which was given at Alpine school house March 30, is to be given at Lexington school auditorium, April 25, at 8 o'clock.

Because those attending the play before pronounced it a great success with a fast-moving plot and lots of laughs, the senior class of Lexington high school is sponsoring its second presentation, so that people who have not seen it may have the opportunity of doing so.

The play concerns a young woman, who, having eloped against the wishes of her relatives, has been tempted to "romance" a little about her new home. When the visit of her aunt impends, it is necessary for her to employ a good many subterfuges to keep up the delusion, thereby putting herself and her friends into a very uncomfortable position. The part of this enterprising lady is taken by Hazel Bennett. The part of her husband is played by Grover Sibley, and Murrell Bennett takes the part of the young man who poses as her husband during the visit of Miss Emily Paisley, Bernice Sepanek, the aunt whose visit causes all the trouble.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Rev. Stanley Moore, Missionary-in-Charge.

Holy Communion at 7:00 a. m. Church school at 9:45 o'clock. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. The nineteenth annual convention of the Episcopal church in Eastern Oregon, held at Baker, was the best convocation that this district has yet had. Much progress has been made both spiritually and materially. The church is growing in its sense of spiritual stewardship as well as in numbers and in the amount of property it has acquired. Those who returned from the general convention of the church, held in Washington, D. C., last October, brought back the real note of the convention which was personal evangelization and consecration. By personal evangelization they mean the kind of evangel by which individuals bring other individuals to Christ just as the early Christian church did. Everyone present at the convocation, we are sure, took away with them fresh hope and faith and a deeper love for Christ and his work.

During the convention Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Moore were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Morse, former residents of this city.

1929 DECLAMATORY MEET BIGGEST YET

Prize Winners Come from All Over County; Go to Pendleton Next.

The Morrow County All-School Declamatory contest has grown to such proportions that next year it will probably be necessary to make a new arrangement for running it off, declares Jas. M. Burgess, superintendent of the Heppner schools and president of the county declamatory league. Such a verdict was evidenced following the fourth annual contest held at the local school auditorium Saturday, in which more schools were represented and more contestants entered than ever before.

"Quality of the recitations was undoubtedly in advance of former years," Mr. Burgess said, "indicating a growth of interest. That this interest is county wide is shown by the distribution of prizes, which were won by not one or two of the larger schools, but by many different schools."

Irrigon school carried off the most honors for a single school, receiving three first and one second prize, thus leaving Heppner and Ione far in the rear. Lexington and Pine City in the high school selections showed remarkably well.

A great deal of improvement was shown especially in the lower grade humorous section, comprising grades 1, 2, 3, and 4. Mr. Burgess declared, while the oratorical selections of the high school division deserve special mention for the quality of the entire contest. This does not mean that other sections were mediocre, but that these were outstanding in selection and rendition. An amusing feature, cited by Mr. Burgess, was that from an equally divided number of boys and girls in the grade sections, all the prize winners were boys.

Judges of the contest, Mrs. Theo. Kubik and Miss Blanche Reed of the Walla Walla public schools, and Alfred Lomax, professor from the University of Oregon, each expressed surprise at the quality of the pieces, and at time they found distinctions to be very slight between selections in the same class.

A unique and unusual feature of the program was the appearance of the Irrigon Club band, which played immensely with their lively music. This band is composed entirely of students of the Irrigon schools under the direction of Supt. R. J. Maaske. They showed lots of pep and zip and performed like veterans. Morrow county may well be proud of this organization.

Prize winners, who received gold medals for first place and silver medals for seconds, are announced as follows:

Division I, high school, Dramatic: first, Dorothy Leach, Irrigon; second, Earl Wattenberger, Pine City; third, W. L. Dinsmore, Menlo Park; fourth, Buck Wins the Wagon, Oratorical: first, William A. Foy, Irrigon; second, Erma Duval, Lexington; third, an innocent of his blood, Hum was the word, Irrigon; fourth, The Supposed Speech of Patrick Henry, Humorous: first, Arthur Bergstrom, Gooseberry; second, Johnny Gets Ready for Company, second, Floyd Oliver, Irrigon; third, Tommy Stearns at the Library.

Division II, upper grades, non-humorous: first, Elie Lindsey, Alpine; second, Harold Heiler, Ione; third, The Supposed Speech of Patrick Henry, Humorous: first, Arthur Bergstrom, Gooseberry; second, Johnny Gets Ready for Company, second, Floyd Oliver, Irrigon; third, Tommy Stearns at the Library.

Division III, four lower grades, non-humorous: first, Ernest Johnston, Irrigon; second, Harold Neill, Pine City; third, The Supposed Speech of Patrick Henry, Humorous: first, Marvin Cox, Lexington; second, When Father Hanks the Picture, second, Scott McMurry, Irrigon; third, When Johnny is Sent to the Principal.

These prize winners will go to Pendleton next Saturday to represent Morrow county in the annual Morrow-Umatilla County Declamatory contest, in which they meet the winners from the neighboring county.

New Forest Ranger Arrives; Other Notes

F. F. Wehmeyer, new district ranger for Heppner, is on the job and getting acquainted with his duties in this part of the Umatilla forest. He takes the place of Geo. Clark, and comes from Dayton, Wash. Mr. Clark has departed for Dayton, where he will be located for the future, his family to follow as soon as school closes here. Likewise, the family of Mr. Wehmeyer will arrive at Heppner following the close of school at Dayton. The new ranger reports some two feet of snow inside the timber belt, and with the approach of warmer weather this will be melted rapidly, probably causing some rise in the streams.

Oscar G. Rollins, assistant forest ranger on the Heppner district, reported for duty the first of the month. Mr. Rollins is stationed temporarily at Dixon ranger station where he is in charge of spring maintenance work. He will move some time in May to Ellis station where he will be located throughout the summer. Mrs. Rollins accompanied her husband back to the forest.

Elmer A. Hinton, fireman, who has been on duty at the Bull prairie ranger station for the past several years, is back on the job. Mrs. Hinton will join him soon and will spend the summer at Bull prairie.

Kenneth Bleakman, fireman, stationed at Ditch creek, reported for duty on the 15th. Messrs. Bleakman, Hinton and Rollins are repairing telephone lines, rebuilding fences, cleaning out roads, maintaining trails and doing the hundred and one things necessary to place the forest in condition to meet the coming fire season.

Camp fire permits will be necessary for those who desire to make a camp within the forest. The permits may be obtained from any forest officer. Building a fire without a permit is a misdemeanor and those who do so lay themselves liable to a stiff fine. Forest officials have been notified to enforce this regulation in a stringent manner.

Elmer Hinton reports two feet of snow at Bull prairie. This ought to please the irrigators but it isn't encouraging to the stockmen who have a five months' feeding season behind them.

We are about to face another fire season. Everyone is asked to cooperate in fire prevention and suppression. The national forests are your forests. The costs of fire suppression, based on all fires large and small, average $100.00 a fire. Taxes pay the bills. Sixty per cent and up of all fires are man caused. Human carelessness and cussedness. Taxes are already too high and we can help reduce them by being careful with fire. Mighty little to it, just be sure to put out that last spark, whether it's a match or a camp fire.

Pupils Will Compete In Poppy Essay Contest

The grade pupils of the Heppner schools will compete in the American Legion Auxiliary essay or story contest, being conducted throughout the state of Oregon to arouse greater interest in the annual poppy sale. The subject is "The Story of the Poppy" and the contestants may treat it in either essay or story form as they choose. The local contest closes on Tuesday, April 23, and a committee from the Heppner unit will judge the papers and send the three best to the state department president.

Competition shall be as follows: first, second and third grades; fourth, fifth and sixth grades; seventh and eighth grades. Six prizes will be awarded, three to the grades whose pupils write the winning essays or stories and three to the pupils themselves. Prizes to the grades will be suitable pictures to hang on school room walls and prizes to the pupils will be checks for $5.00.

These prizes will be donated by the department of Oregon and will be presented to the winners by the unit or units. Announcement of the prize winners will be made by the middle of May and prizes awarded immediately thereafter.

The local poppy committee is anxious that one of the state prizes be won by a Heppner pupil, and any further information regarding material or rules for the contest may be had by consulting with the local chairman, Mrs. Charles W. Smith.

William Henry Farley Dies From Accident

William Henry, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Farley, of Boardman, died at St. Anthony's hospital at Pendleton Saturday night from concussion of the brain, the result of a fall from a horse at the Farley farm on Friday, March 29. At first it was thought no serious injury was sustained, as the boy seemed perfectly normal up until the Tuesday prior to his death, when he took a very sudden turn for the worse and on being rushed to the hospital at Pendleton it was found on x-ray examination that his skull was cracked at the base of the brain. The doctors at that time offered little hope for his recovery, and the lad became gradually weaker until his life ebbed out on Saturday.

Funeral services were held from St. Patrick's Catholic church at Heppner on Monday, morning and afternoon services being attended by a very large concourse of friends and relatives of the family. Rev. Thomas J. Brady, pastor of the church, officiated. Interment was in Heppner cemetery.

William Henry Farley began life at Heppner, being born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Farley on October 16, 1915. At the time of death he was aged 13 years, 6 months and 4 days. His untimely death came as a severe shock to his loved ones, and many friends, who have the sympathy of the entire community in their sorrow.

CARD OF THANKS.

To all those who so kindly assisted us during the suffering and death of our beloved son, William Henry, and for the many expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings, we give our heartfelt thanks. Especially do we thank the kind people of Boardman for their aid and sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Farley.

BLOW-UP IN SIXTH LETS CONDON WIN

Track Meet Nets Nine Markers to Overcome 5-Run Lead.

A difference of nine errors—Heppner 9, Condon 0—spelled defeat for the locals at Condon Sunday in the second Wheatland league game. A score which would have read Heppner 6, Condon 5, on earned runs, was thus changed to read Heppner 6, Condon 11.

Heppner led off with four runs the first inning—a double by Thorn, DeVaney's walk, singles by Van Marter, LaMeer and Drake, netting the tallies, combined with a squeeze play on which Drake was sent in by Van Marter, coaching at third. Van himself was caught attempting Marter walked, scoring on LaMeer's single. Gentry fanned and Cason was out pitcher to first.

That was all the scoring till the fifth, when, with two away Van to score from second on LaMeer's triple, who in turn scored on Drake's single.

Then came the turn in a ball game. "Kewpie" Clow, who had been pitching mediocre ball, took a new lease on life when he himself clouted the longest hit of the day, a long drive over the center fielder's head, on which he trotted leisurely around the bases for a home run. Though he was Condon's first batsman in the fifth and there was no more scoring in that inning, from that time on he bore down hard and pitched a winning game.

Heppner, feeling a little too secure with their five-run lead when the sixth rolled around, were all unprepared for the assault to come. It was too hectic to tell in detail. Suffice it to say that 14 Condoners faced Drake in this inning, and a combination of eight hits and five errors resulted in nine tallies, four of which were earned. Another unearned run in the eighth gave Condon their 11 markers.

It was a disagreeable day to play ball, cold and blustery, making pitching especially difficult. But in spite of this, and the nightmare in the sixth, it was a good ball game. Anderson, who umpired behind the bat, kept the game moving along and was impartial. Hecker was base umpire and likewise did a good job.
