

BOARDMAN

Rev. D. A. Thompson of Portland delivered the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday. The service was largely attended by parents and friends of the graduates. A duet "Whispering Hope" was beautifully sung by Mrs. Claude Coats and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie with Miss Henry at the piano. This number was to have been sung by the Barlow quartette but because of Ray's absence the two sisters sang it. Dr. Thompson took for his subject, "What is Life?" and spoke on the physical, mental and spiritual aspects of life. In the evening Dr. Thompson held a splendid "Mother's Day" service which was also well attended.

Doyle Hubbel and family who have been living on a ranch near Bickleton for the past several months have returned and are at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Agee for a time. Wallace Matthews celebrated his ninth birthday on Saturday when 12 of his small friends attended a party given for him by his aunt, Mrs. Nate Macomber. After an afternoon of games the guests partook of an elaborate luncheon. The young host received many tokens of his friends. Present were Lorraine Dillabough, Maxine Balenger, Maxine Strobel, Janet Gorman, A. T. Herem, Jr., Theodore Wilson, Feter Farley, Helen and Catherine Mead, Edwin Rainville, Clara Mae Dillon, Ralph Skobo, Mrs. Marschat assisted Mrs. Macomber.

Harry Crawford was up from Portland for a few days on business. He was a guest at the Weston home during his stay here. Wm. Strobel and family have moved to the Walter Knauft ranch, which is now owned by La Grande parties. Homer Cason of Portland spent a few days here on business.

Mr. Wilkins who resides on the Frank Otto ranch was surprised to have his wife come in unexpectedly last Sunday. She is at Forest Grove until the close of school. Mother's Day was commemorated at the Y. P. Rutherford home Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wristen and Frank Rutherford of Arlington were up for the day.

John Brice has traded ranch property here for town property at La Grande. They will probably not leave until fall. Mrs. Stella Darling and son Ralph of Ashwood, Ore. were guests at the Jas. Howell home recently.

Mrs. J. E. Price has returned to her home in Portland after a pleasant visit at the home of her son, W. A. Fritch, and family. On Sunday they all motored to Cove to visit another son.

D. S. Barlow and wife of Heppner and Mrs. Alistott were visitors at the J. F. Barlow home on Tuesday. Mrs. R. L. Ware of Idaho is a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Fritch. Mrs. Carrick and two children of Vernonia are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson and her assistants. Mrs. Calkins with her quiet, unassuming way, counts her friends by her acquaintances and everyone regrets her departure.

Following is the original poem by Mrs. Rands: Old friends are leaving us every day; It seems so many are going away. The homes look lonely with loved ones gone. It doesn't seem right; it seems all wrong. Oh, how we'll miss their kindly faces. They tell us others will take their places. Of course we welcome the friends that are new. But, oh, how we'll miss the old ones too. These partings are coming too fast to suit me: My eyes fill with tears and I hardly can see. When I think of the Calkins' going away. They know it is best, we can't bid them stay. But, dear friends, we'll miss your many kind words. They'll live on when you're gone so the Holy Book reads. So God bless you and keep you from harm and all cares. May happiness be yours for all time. is the prayer.

Ray Barlow took the railroad examinations in Portland last week. If successful he will be qualified for a position as operator, having had his training at a school in Portland and his experience working with Mr. Mead at Heppner. Y. P. Rutherford is driving a new Durant sedan. Mrs. J. C. Ballenger spent several days last week in The Dalles with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Murchie, Mrs. Murchie who was seriously ill a few weeks ago is much improved. The operetta, "Snow White" was presented Friday night by the children of the grades under the direction of Miss Henry and Mrs. Marschat. Snow White, the heroine, was ably played by Mary Smith, who is developing a splendid voice. Adeline Wilbanks took the part of the cruel stepmother. The huntsmen, the dwarfs, were interesting features. A Chinese dance was given by the primary girls that was very pleasing. The Rhythm Orchestra played several selections and as always on their appearance, received a good hand. The work of training 20-odd small "singers" to a proper sense of rhythm so that they could handle the tambourines, the sticks, the cymbals bells and other music-making apparatuses is indeed an accomplishment and much credit is due Mrs. Marschat for her efforts. Carl Wicklander gave the oration, "The Call to Arms" which he spoke at Heppner and Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Calkins and Alice leave the last of this week for their new home near Jefferson, Ore. On Saturday Mr. Calkins had a public sale and disposed of all of the articles which he did not plan to take along. Mr. Hendrickson acted as auctioneer and things brought a very good price, especially the cows, one cow with calf bringing $12 and another $125. The sheep were purchased by the Delano brothers.

Adolf Skobo and family were entertained at the A. A. Agee home Sunday at a lovely dinner. Mrs. Bert Bennett has been suffering with an ulcerated tooth and her face has been swollen badly. O. B. Olson and Robert Wilson each received a shipment of 300 baby chicks the past week. F. E. Swayer, of Hermiston, was a visitor on the project Sunday.

Finishing up some small bands at the King and Shane ranches completed shearing on the project. Approximately 12,000 head of sheep were sheared this year. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mefford spent several days visiting relatives near Seattle, returning the early part of the week.

Mr. Chamberlain, a representative of the McGuire Real Estate company of Portland, was looking over prospects on the project last week. Dr. Thompson was an overnight guest at the J. E. Johnson home Saturday. Saturday he was entertained at Rev. Miller's home in Umatilla.

Mrs. Everett Dugan was pleased to have her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith of La Center, her sister Mrs. J. W. Meid and husband of Ridgefield, Wn., with her for Mother's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dillon extended their hospitality on Monday evening at a sumptuous dinner party with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat and the Misses Spike and Henry as guests. The evening was spent in a social way.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat left the day after commencement for Berkeley, Cal. Miss Henry returned to her home at Athena and will later go to Monmouth for the summer. Miss Chapman plans to spend the summer at Hood River. Mr. King will remain at home this summer as will Mrs. Gillespie. Miss Falk will spend the summer at her home in Salem. Miss Spike's plans are still indefinite.

The high esteem in which Mrs. C. S. Calkins is held in the community was shown Thursday at the farewell party given for her at the home of J. R. Johnson. Forty-four ladies were present and enjoyed spending an afternoon with the honor guest before her departure for the new home near Jefferson. A program was given consisting of piano solos by Mrs. Mead and Mrs. Spagie, a reading by Mrs. Messenger, a piano solo by Mesdames Spagie and Mead, reading Mrs. Herem, Mrs. Royal Rands read a clever original poem. Mrs. Chaffee as president of the H. E. club presented Mrs. Calkins a prettily decorated cake tray and cover and read an original poem. Mrs. Messenger on behalf of the many friends in the community made a neat speech of presentation. She gave the honor guest a fine slumber robe. An elaborate lunch was served by Mrs. Johnson and her assistants. Mrs. Calkins with her quiet, unassuming way, counts her friends by her acquaintances and everyone regrets her departure.

Following is the original poem by Mrs. Rands: Old friends are leaving us every day; It seems so many are going away. The homes look lonely with loved ones gone. It doesn't seem right; it seems all wrong. Oh, how we'll miss their kindly faces. They tell us others will take their places. Of course we welcome the friends that are new. But, oh, how we'll miss the old ones too. These partings are coming too fast to suit me: My eyes fill with tears and I hardly can see. When I think of the Calkins' going away. They know it is best, we can't bid them stay. But, dear friends, we'll miss your many kind words. They'll live on when you're gone so the Holy Book reads. So God bless you and keep you from harm and all cares. May happiness be yours for all time. is the prayer.

Ray Barlow took the railroad examinations in Portland last week. If successful he will be qualified for a position as operator, having had his training at a school in Portland and his experience working with Mr. Mead at Heppner. Y. P. Rutherford is driving a new Durant sedan. Mrs. J. C. Ballenger spent several days last week in The Dalles with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Murchie, Mrs. Murchie who was seriously ill a few weeks ago is much improved. The operetta, "Snow White" was presented Friday night by the children of the grades under the direction of Miss Henry and Mrs. Marschat. Snow White, the heroine, was ably played by Mary Smith, who is developing a splendid voice. Adeline Wilbanks took the part of the cruel stepmother. The huntsmen, the dwarfs, were interesting features. A Chinese dance was given by the primary girls that was very pleasing. The Rhythm Orchestra played several selections and as always on their appearance, received a good hand. The work of training 20-odd small "singers" to a proper sense of rhythm so that they could handle the tambourines, the sticks, the cymbals bells and other music-making apparatuses is indeed an accomplishment and much credit is due Mrs. Marschat for her efforts. Carl Wicklander gave the oration, "The Call to Arms" which he spoke at Heppner and Pendleton.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie Hackman. Ella Farrans and Mrs. Hattie Johnson were shopping in Heppner on last Thursday. Hardman schools will close Friday, May 17, after one of the most successful school terms the system has ever enjoyed. Those graduating from the eighth grade are Leon Chapin and Elvira Bookman. The only senior graduating from the high school is Mildred Farrans. The high school student body was entertained at a charming banquet given Friday evening in honor of Miss Mildred Farrans who is graduating. Toasts and short talks were given by Miss Louise Torre and Wm. Johnson. Following the banquet gifts were presented to Miss Farrans and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing. Those present were Zetta Blackman, Marie Saling, Lucile Farrans, Mary Inkseep, Cora Rue, Darrel Farrans, Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Mrs. Myrtle Maht and Miss Louise Torre.

The Shell Oil company men did their bit of spring cleaning on Thursday, brightening up the service station with some paint. J. N. Batty purchased a Delco-Light plant for his farm home, also a pump. The sale was made through the local dealer W. F. Maht.

Miss Louise Torre was a week-end guest of Mildred Farrans at her mountain home south of Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson entertained at their home on Saturday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Avi McRoberts, George C. Medlock, James Wolfe, Wayne Baird and Oscar Letraco. Part of the day was spent on a picnic near Rock creek. A good time is reported by all.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to the Jack DeVore place on Rhea creek to visit with Charlie