

Local Happenings

Henry Howard was celebrating his 86th birthday on Tuesday. Mr. Howard has been laid up and kept at home during the winter by rheumatism, but was able to be up town Tuesday, feeling quite a bit better. He reported Mrs. Howard as feeling fine. She is 10 1/2 years older than her husband—Heppner's oldest resident in point of years, and among the very oldest of our pioneers, and in her 97th year she enjoys perfect health.

W. A. Anderson, brother of the late Geo. D. Anderson, has been appointed administrator of the estate, which consists principally of real property situated in Umatilla county. Mr. Anderson and wife were here for several days following the death of his brother, and they have returned to their home at Ukiah. They were brought over to Heppner by Chas. Hynd.

Sam McCullough has disposed of his place on Balm Fork to Carl Ulrich of Heppner. In the deal Mr. McCullough has taken over the town property of Mr. Ulrich. The ranch consists of some 600 acres of good grass land, with a small acreage under cultivation. Mr. McCullough is planning to move to town, and Mr. Ulrich has moved to the ranch.

Mrs. Jas. Jones, niece of Jeff Jones, was a guest for several days during the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jones in this city. She departed for her home at Huntington on Sunday morning, being accompanied as far as Pendleton by Mr. Jones and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gragg of Salem were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Gragg's mother, Mrs. Lillie Aiken. They returned home on Sunday afternoon, following a very pleasant visit with Heppner relatives.

Carl F. Bergstrom is well pleased with the outlook for crops in the Gooseberry section, and says the weather conditions are ideal. Worms bothered some early in the season, and in some fields tar weed is plentiful. The warm weather has done away with the worms, and the wheat is fast getting ahead of the weeds. Mr. Bergstrom was looking after business here on Wednesday.

N. A. Clark of Eight Mile spent a few hours in town Tuesday. The warmer weather and sunshine is working to the advantage of the farmers of that part of Morrow county. The worms had been pretty busy during the colder period and with the advent of more sunshine and warmer weather, their work has ceased.

Carl F. Troedson of Ione was a visitor in Heppner for a short time on Monday. He reported that a fine rain visited that part of the county during Sunday night, being quite general over all the wheat belt.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Olden of Rhea creek, were visitors here on Tuesday afternoon. They were making some arrangements for the picnic to be given at their place on Sunday next.

The pastor hopes that this service will be well attended by all and especially by all those who mourn their dead.

WILL PICNIC SUNDAY. People of the three school districts, and others who desire to do so, will take part in a picnic at the Grant Olden place on Rhea creek next Sunday, May 19th. Preparations for a big time have been made, the fruit trees are all in blossom at the farm, and Mr. Olden has put the place in excellent shape to care for the guests. No doubt it will be an occasion that everyone who attends will greatly enjoy.
