POLLARD COMPANY OPENS IN BIG TENT

Excellent Programs Are Set for Chautauqua Starting Saturday.

Heppner's annual free chautauqua opens Saturday night under the big brown tent with one of the best programs ever presented here.

Sunday afternoon Heppner people will have an opportunity to hear and see a group of real high class radio musical artists.

Sunday evening the Radio Warblers give a highly entertaining program which, as they call it, is "A good time festival around the microphone."

Monday afternoon Olivar's Philippine Troubadours, a group of native South Sea Islanders play and sing their native music as only their race can.

A red letter day on the chautauqua program is Tuesday, the final day of the season, when the Bob Hanscom players are on the program.

CHAUTAUQUA DAY. Bible school meets promptly at 9:45. There will be a special chautauqua day feature in the opening exercises.

Immediately following the union services we will have a basket dinner together at the church to which everyone is invited to attend.

UNION SERVICE. There will be a union service Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the chautauqua tent.

J. G. Thomson departed for Ellensburg, Wash., Monday morning accompanied by his daughter, Miss Louise, who will remain there for the summer sessions of the state normal, where she has been a student during the past school year.

Council Passes Resolution For Boxing Commission

Following the presentation of a petition with 100 signers as provided by state statute, the city council at its meeting Monday evening passed a resolution empowering the mayor to create a boxing commission.

With the appointment of the commission all boxing matches staged within the city will come under its supervision, and a percentage of the receipts therefrom will go to charity.

EDITH IRENE SANFORD. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Christian church in Lexington, for Mrs. Edith Sanford, who passed away on Thursday, May 30th, at Morrow General hospital in Heppner, following an operation for appendicitis.

Harold Case and family moved to Fossil the past week where Mr. Case will open an undertaking parlor. He has been with the Case Furniture company at Heppner for the past two years and previous to that time had taken his course in undertaking, and is proficient in this profession.

SILVER TEA. The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a silver tea and bazaar in the parlors of the church on Saturday afternoon, June 15th, from 2:30 to 5:30. All are cordially invited to attend.

HAVE FINE STRAWBERRIES. This office is indebted to Mrs. Arthur Keene of Rhea creek for a nice sample of the very excellent strawberries being produced in their garden at this time.

CARD OF THANKS. We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends for their kindness and sympathy shown during the recent illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Miss Erma Duvall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Duvall of Lexington, who has been visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wald at Stanfield for two weeks, returned home the end of the week.

Last Sunday's Results Heppner 8, Ione 2; Condon 5, Wasco 4; Fossil 11, Arlington 1.

Arlington and Ione were the victims of a Heppner one-inning hitting rally, Thursday and Sunday, when the locals played both games away from home—Thursday at Arlington and Sunday at Ione.

Fans at Arlington were treated to a rare exhibition of baseball. After the fatal first inning in which five Heppner men crossed the plate, not a score was made.

After the first inning, "Toots" Montague also pitched a beautiful game, and allowed but six men to reach first. The first half of the first was too bad, however.

At Ione, the game was nip and tuck with no scores up to the sixth. Lanky "Larry" Ritchie was holding the Heppner boys in fine style, while Drake pitched his usual good game throughout.

Heppner's youngsters have been finding themselves since the shake-up of a few weeks ago which placed many of them in new locations and their batting averages have been picking up also with the gaining of more confidence with the stick.
