

BOARDMAN

The June Silver Tea was given at the home of Mrs. Glen Hadley on Wednesday, 25 ladies being present and enjoying a social afternoon followed by a delicious lunch. Serving with Mrs. Hadley were Mesdames Kristensen, Hango, Howell, King and John Graves. It was decided to omit the July meeting since it comes the day before the 4th. The missionary meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. G. Smith on June 19.

A number of Boardman young people are planning to attend the C. E. rally Friday evening at Umatilla.

Mrs. Esther Theisen of Eugene accompanied Carroll Kennedy and Helen Chaffee to Pendleton on Sunday where they all spent the day. Remember June 17, Monday, is the annual school election. Two directors are to be elected, one to succeed T. E. Broyles, another to fill the vacancy caused by C. S. Calkins leaving.

The Home Economics club met Wednesday with Mrs. Ed Kunze. After the usual delicious luncheon always enjoyed at these meetings, the afternoon was spent in a social way.

There was a good attendance at the public sale at the John Brice place Saturday, but it is reported the articles brought very low prices. According to reports the auctioneer accepted the first bids so frequently that people were afraid to bid except on articles they planned definitely to purchase.

Mrs. Herbert Everett and son Leslie were guests Friday at the Nate Macomber home on their way to Bandon, Ore. The Everetts were Boardman residents years ago. Mr. Everett being in the Boardman garage with the Macomber brothers. The Everetts have a small service station between Echo and Pendleton at present.

How Are You Known?

Says the Wall Street Journal:

"Some men are known by their deeds, others by their mortgages." Yes, and still others by their stocks and bonds.

There are others, sad to relate, who are known by their DEBTS. Avoid this reputation by forming a saving habit and building up an account at our bank. If you do that, in time the stocks, bonds and mortgages will be yours. Bank with us. We want your patronage and offer you every convenience.
