Official Paper for Morrow County.

pass, and do not doubt it, others are coming. There seem to be very few limitations to the ability of man to conquer the elements. But there is one definite limit.

When Lieutenant Soucek sought to make a new altitude record, eight miles above the ground, he had to breathe oxygen from tanks in order to keep alive. As it was, breathing was an agonizing experience. His adventures proved there was a limit to human progress in the sense that man is confined to the little globe in which he is born.

A 16-YEAR-OLD school boy shot and killed another school boy, all over an 18-year-old girl in Portland. The Portland Telegram printed all the love letters of this little girl. We make no comment on the Telegram, for this, for the simple reason that as a newspaper it does not amount to much anyway. But we would like to see the picture of the man who was responsible for this printed in the Telegram. If the Telegram is casting about for something sensational of the oozy, sloughing-cesspool type, it can print the picture of its editor who is responsible for this kind of journalism. Let the people see what this kind of an editor looks like. He could write an article and say, proudly, "I'm the man who dissected and laid bare the white soul of this little girl. I'm the man whose mission on earth is to jab my reportorial pen into the heart of a child and I do it so that I can sell my paper for two pennies. I'm the man who gloats on human grief, and the tender sentiments of a little school girl, written in innocence, I would make sensational and salacious." When the Portland Telegram prints the picture of the man on its staff who was responsible for this inhuman act, it will achieve its greatest sensation. How the morose, neurotic and degenerate would thrill at the picture of such a man.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

FATHER'S DAY.

JUNE 16th is Father's Day, and we want to urge everyone not to overlook this occasion. For some reason, Mother's Day is much more widely observed than Father's Day. This is understandable in the light of the beautiful sentiments that are aroused by the very word "mother"—yet father need not be neglected as too often he seems to be.

Father may seem indifferent to such an occasion as Father's Day. Probably, if asked, he would call it "nonsense" and ask his children to "forget it."

Father may seem austere, or too practical to care for such trinkets as you might be moved to purchase for him, or, in many cases, it might seem ridiculous to present him with a gift out of his own money.

But remember one thing: A man is only a boy grown up. Your father, no matter what his exterior, has hidden away in his heart a little boy. And that little boy will come to the surface and with father will retire to his room as happy about the red pair of suspenders, or the tie, or the box of cigars that you have given him, as any little boy would be about a box of marbles or a baseball glove.

Don't be fooled by your father. He likes little attentions just as much as mother does.

THE LIMIT OF MAN.

THERE is no way of predicting the extent of developments in the radio field. Tests by the Canadian National Railway near Toronto indicate the futility of predicting the ultimate destiny of radio. It is possible now to talk casually from moving trains, to send telegrams from them, and to broadcast from them.

Years ago it was thought the ultimate was reached when phonograph records broadcast were heard over a comparatively short distance. At that time anyone suggesting that broadcasts might be made from a moving train would have been considered insane. In ancient times such a prophet would have been burned at the stake for witchcraft.

Yet these miracles have come to

A TRIBUTE

The finest example of military courtesy I ever have heard of, was when the allied commanders conferred on Marshal Ferdinand Foch, the leadership over all the mighty hosts rushing to the defense of the great principle of world democracy.

Valiantly the little Frenchman struggled, his back to the wall, confronted by a merciless foe. Modestly he accepted a position of supreme trust, of highest honor. And, he pledged the support of a soldier-citizen to maintain the dignity of his exalted station. The eyes of the world were upon him—its prayers with him.

At his command the legions sprang to the conflict, against the most terrible fighting machine the world had ever known; a thousand years of history were written within the compass of less than half a bloody decade.

Then, the surrender—the armistice. Nobly he confronted personally his fallen enemy, dictating less of exactions than many considered fair to the conquerors. With dignity he retired to his home, his people, his duty well done. The world acclaimed, but aroused no feeling of selfish vanity on part of its hero.

In his own allotted time he crept away, to lie down beside the unknown soldier, beneath the Arch of Triumph, where both sleep, oblivious to the din and uproar of the cannon.

Another great soldier will repair once in awhile to the shrine near the great cathedral; he will doff his cap and remember the hour when the little marshal accepted the commission naming him the world's greatest commander. He will recall the trying, bloody hours of conflict; and he will turn away with a swelling heart, for that's the sort of heart our own "old Jack Pershing" has.
