

Local Happenings

A large number of Heppner people attended the water regatta above the McKay creek dam, on Sunday, and many report it an enjoyable occasion. Among those going over were the D. A. Wilson family, Spencer Crawford family, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Chaffee, Alva Jones family, Earl W. Gordon, Andrew Baldwin, Eva Hiatt, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Sigabee, Mrs. L. Van Marter and LaVerne, Jr., Beryl Coxen family, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Osmen Hager, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wells, Walter Moore, W. O. Bayless, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Gemmill.

James M. Burgess left Heppner Monday night for Portland where he took passage on the Admiral Peoples for San Francisco. He will engage in summer school work at Stanford university at Palo Alto for several weeks, expecting to return early in August to prepare for the coming school year. Mrs. Burgess is on a trip to the middle west where she will visit at Gethsburg, Neb., and Sioux City, Iowa. At the latter place she expected to attend the marriage of a niece, to take place shortly after her arrival. She will return to Heppner coincident with the arrival of Mr. Burgess.

Bobbie Turner came home Saturday from Walla Walla where he was a student at Whitman university the past year. During the spring term he was actively engaged in baseball, playing on both the varsity and his fraternity team. In some intramural games he pitched against Laurel Beach, of Lexington, who pitched the winning independent team to victory. Bobbie accompanied J. O. Turner and Ralph Campbell, of Salem, who were returning to Heppner from a short business trip to Walla Walla in the interest of Mr. Turner's combine harvester level.

Chas. Notson returned home Friday from Kentucky where he attended school the past year. On the westward journey he drove the Ford car of Mrs. Evangeline Cludas, of Scotts Mills, Ky., being accompanied by Mrs. Cludas and Miss Elizabeth Hadley, of Portland, the ladies coming west for a visit. Charles drove the ladies on to Portland Saturday, returning Monday in company with his sisters, Margaret and Mary, and V. M. Sackett. The Misses Notson had visited at Portland and McMinnville since Thursday last.

P. J. Doherty, of Ione, has succeeded Larry Kegley as Maytag salesman for Morrow county. Mr. Kegley having been transferred to Portland. Mr. Doherty was a Heppner visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Finch were visiting friends at Heppner over the week-end from their home at Medford, while Mr. Finch was also interested in locating an agent here for a furnace company which he is representing during the summer vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Finch are both former teachers in the Heppner public schools, and Mr. Finch taught last year in the Medford schools under E. H. Hedrick, superintendent also of the Heppner schools at the time the Finches were here.

Mr. and Mrs. French Burroughs were Heppner visitors Saturday from their home on Rhea creek. Good rains have been received in their neighborhood and the crop prospects are looking brighter. Mrs. Burroughs is looking quite extensively in turkey raising, having a flock of more than 200 birds this year which are doing fine.

Orrin Bisbee returned home Sunday from Palo Alto, Cal. where he was a student at Stanford university the past year, and will be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bisbee, for the summer. Orrin made the trip from San Francisco to Portland on the Admiral Peoples, and reports enjoying the ocean journey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McHargue of Spokane arrived at Heppner on Friday evening from Portland, and spent a day or so visiting with relatives at Heppner. They had been on an extended trip, visiting Seattle and then going as far south as Eugene. Mrs. McHargue was formerly Miss Neva Hayes of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengtson returned home Friday night from Eugene where they attended the graduation of their daughter, Miss Luola, from the University of Oregon. Miss Bengtson is on her way to New York to represent her chapter at the national convention of the sorority of which she is a member.

What amounted to a near cloud-burst caused the water to run in streams down Blackhorse and Sourdough canyons on Saturday, and considerable difficulty was encountered in navigating the roads in the vicinity.

Chas. Allinger, pioneer Ione resident was a Heppner visitor Saturday. A big rain was the order of the day in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Thorn will depart Saturday for Seattle where Mr. Thorn will represent the Pacific Power and Light company in the finals of the Northwest utilities public speaking contest. They will be absent for two weeks and while away will enjoy a visit to British Columbia.

Mont Bundy was in town Saturday and he was wearing a broad smile because of the big rain that fell over his part of the county Saturday. It was sufficient to guarantee a good yield of grain in the Lexington section. The rain was general all over the county.

C. J. Anderson, who farms in the Ione district, was a business visitor in Heppner Saturday. He was well pleased with the cool June weather in effect over the county.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. LaDusire departed for Portland Saturday to attend the Atwater-Kent dealers' convention in session there. They were accompanied by Glen Young who went to the city for a visit.

J. E. Huddleston was in the city the first of the week from his home near Lone ock. He reports his sheep now on summer range in the mountains and grass in good condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, Kay and Mary Lou, went to La Grande Monday where Mr. Ferguson attended a meeting of Chevrolet dealers. They returned Tuesday evening.

Frank Swaggart was in the city on Saturday from his home near Lena.

EVERHOT ELECTRIC COOKER

Cook your dinners easily—economically

You'll pay for your Everhot in no time at all—for it takes very little electricity to get a whole meal on an Everhot. Put in your meat according to our recipe book. Later put in your vegetables. Cook them all with one heat!

And with the Everhot you may cook the new waterless way! Cook your meats and vegetables in their own juices; preserve all their minerals, salts, vitamins.

50¢ DOWN

Think how you'll enjoy the Everhot on warm summer days. It will cook your entire dinner with clean, cool electrical heat.

The Everhot browns and roasts meats; bakes cakes, biscuits; cooks cereals and soups.

A TIP from Your Teacher

Among "Northwestern" students of last summer were teachers who paid us many splendid compliments. Of many letters later received was one which read:

"As a graduate of the University of Washington and the Ellensburg State Normal School, I am glad to state that your instructors are among the best I have ever known."

Information about the forthcoming summer session will be gladly sent to you on request.

Write direct to Chas. F. Walker, President.

Results of Thinking

Benefits from never wasting anything are clearly emphasized if we, as a scientist would, think about the matter, consider our condition and possibilities of "arriving" if we are prudent.

Just notice how people who save regularly do succeed.
