IRRIGATION BAN SET TO AID SWIM POOL

Sunday Evening Shut-Off Ordered and Legion Deputized.

There will be no more irrigating on Sunday evenings, according to action of the city council Monday evening, and the city officers will have plenty of help to see that the order is enforced.

It is believed by W. E. Pruyn, water superintendent, that if the people comply with the order of the council, that enough water should be available Sunday nights to fill the tank without endangering the reserve supply for domestic use and fire purposes.

The city fathers let it be known that they were aware of some people abusing their irrigation privileges, and for this reason ordered the publishing of the city ordinance in regard to irrigation, enforcement of which will be more stringent in the future.

Reading of the treasurer's semi-annual report showed the city finances to be in a rather depleted condition at the present time, though all indebtedness is being satisfactorily cared for, with bond redemption and interest payments kept up.

In regard to an adequate fire fighting organization for the city, several councilmen at the request of Mayor McCarty consented to do what they could in the way of starting same, it being stated by Chief of Police Devin that at the present time there is not so much as a pencil scratch to show that any such organization exists.

Bert Mason and W. W. Head, representing the Ione city government, were present at the meeting in the interest of securing uniform prohibition and traffic ordinances for Ione, Heppner and neighboring towns.

Fire Epidemic Keeps Lone Residents Busy

MRS. JENNIE McMURRAY, Correspondent.

Ione has been having a series of fires beginning at 5:30 Monday afternoon when Mrs. J. P. O'Meara returned from her shopping to find a small fire in her barn. It proved to be a stubborn little blaze and she and Mr. O'Meara had several bouts with it before they were sure it was extinguished and it was safe for them to retire.

Shortly before four o'clock the fire bell again sounded. John Bryson's barn was on fire and in a short time was burned to the ground. The building was not of much value, having been built 31 years ago by Mrs. Bryson's father, Mr. Wood. The frame was of logs that Mr. Wood had brought himself from the mountains. While this fire was burning another fire started up in the O'Meara barn, but was put out without much trouble.

A. E. Feller and wife and Ed Jackson and wife drove into town Tuesday morning just in time to spread the alarm that Mr. Bryson's barn was on fire. Mrs. Jackson was returning from an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson of Newberg. The rest of the party drove down last Sunday. They made the trip by truck and Mr. Feller brought home a diminutive Shetland pony for his little daughter.

Captain Hall and his two daughters gave a pleasing program at the Baptist church Monday evening. They are working in the interests of Linfield college at McMinnville.

The Christian Sunday school picnic held last Sunday at the Grant Olden ranch on Rhea creek was well attended. All report a very enjoyable day.

Mrs. Neis Jepsen and son Paul, of Portland, and Mrs. John Bush and son Neil, of Vernonia, visited recently with their sister, Mrs. Fred Ritchie at her summer home in the mountains.

The Fred Ritchie family drove to Ione Saturday, returning Sunday to their camp above Hardman, where Mr. Ritchie has work in a mill.

Al Friewald, of Portland, transacted business here Friday.

W. L. Skipton and Chas. Todd, of Sunnyside, Wash., spent Thursday and Friday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Misner.

Fred Mankin has joined the ranks of the tractor farmers. He sold his mules last week to Skipton and Todd of Sunnyside, Wash. He plans on getting a tractor before harvest.

Arthur Turner received a pleasant surprise last Friday evening when he returned to his home from his day's work. He found his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wright and their small son there to greet him. The Wrights are from Berkeley, Cal. and were en route to Lind, Wash. Mr. Turner had not seen his sister for twelve years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swanson and Mrs. Millie Newton spent a pleasant day on the John Day river Sunday, June 23.

The missionary society of the Congregational church will hold no meeting during the month of July. The August meeting will be held on the first day of the month, at which time Mrs. Ed Keller will be leader.

Mrs. Young arrived Saturday for a visit with her brother, Lee Beckner. Mrs. Young comes from Virginia.

John Michelbook who has been farming for the past year and a half north of Ione, has sold his leases and outfit to his brother, James Michelbook. John and family have moved to Joseph where he will use his two 60 h.p. caterpillar tractors to move logs. The tractors were driven to Boardman where they were loaded on flat cars and shipped to Joseph. The furniture was taken by truck. Carlton Swanson went with Mr. Michelbook and will drive one of the tractors in the logging.

W. E. Bullard and family left Monday morning on an auto trip to Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. William Olson were guests last week of George Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Olson now live in Missoula, Mont., but are former Morgan residents.

Mrs. J. P. Louy recently enjoyed a visit with her sister, Mrs. Nora Holland, whose home is in Seattle.

There was a regular communication of Locust chapter Tuesday evening of last week. This will be the last regular meeting until September. Besides the regular routine of work there was the report from the delegates in attendance at the grand chapter in Portland. This was followed by a social hour and refreshments to which the Masonic brothers were invited. Several of the

Gordon Ridings, of Eugene, star athlete at the University of Oregon, arrived in the city Monday and will have charge of the American Legion swimming tank during the summer.

County court convened at the court house yesterday for the regular July term, with all members present, and facing the usual amount of mid-year business.

LAURENCE CASE, 18 DROWNED IN RIVER

Life Lost in Attempting Rescue; Double Funeral Held Here Today.

Laurence Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case of this city, lost his life in the Columbia river at Brewster, Wash., on Sunday while attempting to save the life of his swimming companion, Nina Bowen. Report of the drowning was conveyed by message to the parents at Heppner shortly after the accident occurred.

The young people went in swimming in the stream at Brewster, and from swimmers reaching here, they had swam over to the opposite shore. After a short rest they attempted to return, when Miss Bowen was evidently attacked by cramps a short distance out from shore and began to sink. Laurence, who was near by, called to her "keep your head kiddo, keep your head," and she rallied for the moment, but before Laurence could reach her, she threw her head back and sank, the boy diving to bring her up. Just where they were at this time was a heavy undercut in the river and apparently both bodies were drawn under, as neither appeared again. Laurence was in the water for 45 minutes when his body was recovered. Rescuers arrived immediately with a pulmotor and worked hard to resuscitate him, but to no effect. The body of the girl was not recovered so soon and remained in the river for an hour and 10 minutes.

The drowning was witnessed from the shore by Mrs. Bowen, mother of Nina, who heard what was said but was powerless to render any help.

The day before, Saturday, Nina had fallen out of a cherry tree in which she was picking fruit, and hurt her back, but had not informed her mother of this, and it is thought she was caught by cramps and pain in her back when she began to sink in the river, and evidently her death was caused by heart failure, as her lungs did not fill with water.

Laurence left Heppner about six weeks ago, going to Brewster, where he secured work in an orchard. Here he and Nina became acquainted, and the acquaintance had rapidly ripened into an affection that caused them to become engaged. They had planned to be married a little later and go to the fruit farm of Laurence's father at Hood River to live, but death brot to an abrupt close all their happy prospects for the future.

Upon receipt of the news here, Mr. Case arranged with his son Harold Case of Fossil to go to Brewster for the body of Laurence. Upon getting there it was arranged to bring both bodies to Heppner for interment and they arrived here this morning, being shipped by train to Pendleton from where they were brought to Heppner by hearse.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church at 9 o'clock, Rev. F. R. Spaulding, the pastor, officiating and interment was in Masonic cemetery. The services were largely attended by the friends of the family, and deep expressions of sympathy were manifest on all sides, the tragedy having come to the parents and brothers and sisters of Laurence and to his schoolmates and friends here as a severe shock.

The boy was coming 19 years of age in September and Nina would have been 16 in a short time. Laurence was a hard working young man, a boy of very sensitive nature, but ripening into fine young manhood. Miss Bowen is said to have been a girl of fine Christian character, and in an adopted daughter.

IN ACCIDENT AT TACOMA.

Frank E. Parker received word Saturday evening of a car accident that afternoon in Tacoma, Wash., in which Mrs. Parker and sister, Mrs. Earl Hall, and their mother, Mrs. J. R. Cypert, were injured. The report stated that neither Mrs. Parker or Mrs. Hall were seriously injured, but that Mrs. Cypert was in a more critical condition. Mrs. Parker had just accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Hall to Tacoma on Friday, the Halls returning home from a visit here. From the report the party had evidently arrived safely on their journey over, and the accident happened after they arrived.

Ones Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Parker, left Sunday morning in the Parker car for a visit at Tacoma and to be of what assistance he might. He had intended leaving on Monday, but report of the accident caused him to start a day earlier. Mr. Parker was anxiously awaiting further word when in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Clemens of Pasco, Wash., are guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Chaffee in this city. Mrs. Chaffee and Mrs. Clemens are cousins, and the Pasco people are now enjoying their summer vacation.

Gordon Ridings, of Eugene, star athlete at the University of Oregon, arrived in the city Monday and will have charge of the American Legion swimming tank during the summer.

County court convened at the court house yesterday for the regular July term, with all members present, and facing the usual amount of mid-year business.

Attention, Masons. The regular communication of Heppner Lodge No. 69, A. F. & M., at Masonic hall on Saturday evening, July 6. There will be work in the E. A. and F. C. degrees.

Mitchell Thorn Wins Contest for P. P. & L.

Heppner and the Pacific Power and Light company both received signal recognition on Thursday last when the power company's local manager, Mitchell Thorn, won the championship in the northwest finals of the National Electric Light association's public speaking contest held in Seattle. Nine northwest utilities were represented in the finals and Mr. Thorn emerged with a clean lead from the field, bringing victory to his company, and more recognition for the Heppner office which has been his lot in every contest the company has held since he assumed the management of the local office some two and a half years ago.

"How I Can Best Serve Our Customers," was the topic used during the contest. Mr. Thorn emerged the winner from two preliminary contests, at The Dulles and Walla Walla to earn the right to represent his company in the final contest. He is highly elated that he was able to pull his company out in the lead at Seattle.

Besides earning the $75 cash prize offered in the contest, Mr. Thorn, and Mrs. Thorn who accompanied him, were treated to a most enjoyable trip to British Columbia, besides other entertainment features that made the event one long to be remembered. By winning at Seattle Mr. Thorn has gone as far as it is possible this year, though next year it is planned to carry the contest on to a national conclusion with the finals to be held at Atlantic City, and Mr. Thorn's many friends have already advised him to get his hotel reservations in early.

The nine public utilities represented at the contest were Pacific Power and Light company, Northwestern, Copco (California), Montana Power and Light, Washington Water Power, Idaho Light and Power, Portland Electric Power, Puget Sound Power and Light, and Mountain States Electric. As each of these held preliminary contests to choose their representative in the inter-company meet, Mr. Thorn actually won over a field of several hundred contestants.

Mr. Thorn participated in what was known as the employee's division of the contest, and in connection was held another for officials. The P. P. & L. came out on top in this contest also through its representative, Howard Cooper, of Lewiston, Ida., so that all told it was a clean sweep.

WASCO'S PENNANT ASSURED BY WIN

Locals Give Leaders Thrill By Tying in Ninth, But Lose Game 3 to 2.

LEAGUE STANDINGS.

Table with columns: Won, Lost, Pct. Rows: Wasco (13, 1, .928), Heppner (8, 6, .571), Fossil (5, 7, .417), Jones (4, 8, .308), Arlington (2, 11, .154). Note: *Last Sunday's game not reported.

Last Sunday's Results

At Wasco 3, Heppner 2; At Ione 2, Fossil 3; At Condon (not reported).

Next Sunday's Games

Arlington at Heppner; Ione at Condon; Wasco at Fossil.

With the defeat of Heppner Sunday Wasco is assured the championship of the Wheatland Baseball league, and will undoubtedly be the proud possessors of the fine new loving cup now on display in Peterson's jewelry store window, for at least the coming year. The cup must be won three times for permanent possession. Wasco has gone through the season to date with but one defeat, while Condon, her nearest competitor, has dropped three. Only one scheduled league game remains to be played.

Yes, Heppner was defeated, but not until she had dragged the league leaders through the dust in one of the best games of the season, and it took Wasco's half of the ninth inning to blot out the 2-2 tie, with the deciding tally. In the fourth Wasco got her first two on a double sacker by Meyer followed by Weedman's home run. That was all the scoring until the ninth, when Heppner tied it up. Erwin, hit by a pitched ball, was replaced by D. Bleckman, at first who took third on Sprouts' single. Sprouts stealing second and both runners scoring on Drake's hit. In the meantime Gentry fled out to Pitcher Soden. Drake stole second and started to third on L. Turner's grounder, where he was called out by umpire Bill Furlong, when the ball was sent to third after Turner was counted out first.

Wasco's deciding tally was gained through Tucker's triple-sacker, followed by Meyer's hit. Soden had considerable the edge in the pitching duel, breezing 10 Heppner batters, to Drake's four strikeouts. But while Wasco was mauling Drake's offerings, only five of her blows went for hits. Heppner at the same time taking four off Soden. It was a nip and tuck game with every run being earned, and fast playing was the order of the day.

In the last game of the league season Sunday, the locals will cross bats with Arlington at Rodeo field. A good game is expected.

PROCLAMATION To City Water Users

To aid in keeping open the American Legion Swimming Pool, considered by the Common Council of the City of Heppner to be a great benefit to the public health and comfort during the hot summer days, the Council has deemed it advisable to discontinue all irrigation on Sunday evenings from 6 to 8 o'clock, and has ordered that irrigation be discontinued at these hours until further notice. Irrigation on Sundays will be permitted only from 6 to 8 o'clock in the morning. That this order may be strictly enforced the Council has further ordered that all members of Heppner Post American Legion be deputized with authority to arrest anyone found violating its provisions, violators to be subject to the penalty or penalties set forth in the ordinance to be found in this issue of the Heppner Gazette Times. A strict compliance of water users to the provisions of this order will be greatly appreciated.

Dated this 4th day of July, 1929. By order of the Common Council of the City of Heppner. W. G. McCARTY, Mayor.

Fine Reception Is Given New York Elks Car

A welcoming committee composed of prominent members of the Elks lodge in Heppner drove to Pendleton Saturday to greet one of the four cars of the Elks Purple and White fleet en route from New York to Los Angeles on a nation wide good will tour being made in advance of the Elks Grand Lodge convention in California July 8-12. The delegation, headed by Earl W. Gordon, exalted ruler of the local Elks, accompanied Mr. Alpers, the pilot, to Heppner and a fine reception was staged, with a luncheon in his honor Saturday noon at the temple.

The tour was officially started in New York May 13, when Mayor "Jimmy" Walker sent the cars away bearing greetings to be presented to the Hon. Murray Hulbert, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, at the opening of the Los Angeles convention.

The four pilots, each driving a smart new Studebaker President Eight roadster finished in the purple and white colors of the order, separated on leaving New York, each starting westward on one of the four major transcontinental motor routes. Car Number 2 and its pilot, George Alpers, are heading straight west, most of the time following the route of the Lincoln highway. Of the three other cars, one is following a course laid out the Hudson river from New York to Albany, west through the Lake cities to Chicago, then northwest to Seattle via Yellowstone park route.

Another route following through Cincinnati, St. Louis and Kansas City to Colorado Springs, Albuquerque and Los Angeles. The fourth car is swinging down through the Atlantic Coast states before turning west through New Orleans, whence it will continue through the southwest via Dallas, El Paso, Phoenix and San Diego.

The tour is the most ambitious demonstration of the regularity and certainty to be attained in cross country motoring ever attempted. In collaboration with the American Automobile association and the Automobile Club of Southern California a detailed schedule was worked out which will bring the four cars together on the same day in Los Angeles. The wide divergence of their routes, the distances the cars must cover, and the varying conditions they will encounter on their way west mark the tour as an outstanding project which has aroused wide interest.

MORROW GENERAL HOSPITAL.

W. E. Cummings, working at the ranch of F. S. Parker near town, who was recently injured when the team ran away with him, is now well on the road to complete recovery. He received a severe cut on the leg as a result of the runaway. Earl Chrisman who has been ill recently with an attack of appendicitis, has recovered and is now up and around again.

Marin Bosch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bosch of Willows, who was operated on Monday for tonsillitis and adenoids, has returned home.

Nick Gentry underwent a minor operation Tuesday for removal of a piece of glass which entered his foot three years ago and recently gave him trouble.

J. S. Young of Eight Mile underwent a minor operation Thursday for nasal growth and obstruction of the nose.

Ralph Marlett underwent a minor operation Tuesday for removal of rock which hit his eye while he was at work at the rock crusher.

Dr. J. L. Callaway, osteopathic physician, formerly of Heppner, has returned and has temporary offices at the L. W. Briggs home. Permanent offices will be opened as soon as rooms are available.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crego, formerly residents of Heppner, were visiting over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moore. The Cregos are now residents of Walla Walla.

Snator Robt. Carsner was in the city a short while yesterday from his home near Spray. Mr. Carsner reports grass and hay conditions good in the Spray country.

Willard Herren and family this week moved into the property recently purchased by Mrs. Herren's brother, Eibert Gibson, from Mrs. Glenn Boyer.

Miss Edna Vaughn is home from Portland for a vacation of a couple of weeks.

TANK NOW READY; IONE PLAYS TODAY

Fourth of July Activities Lively Here; Dance at Pavilion Tonight.

With the arrival of Gordon Ridings, U. of O. athlete and Red Cross swimming instructor, the Legion pool was opened yesterday in his charge, and many folks took advantage of the occasion for a cool dip. The tank will be open from now on, and a large crowd was expected to make use of it today.

Heppner and Ione started their two-day ball series yesterday, and the battle this afternoon is expected to be hot. The teams are evenly matched, both being composed of young players who are showing great form.

Last evening the dance at the pavilion was largely attended and Cole Madsen's dance band of Portland made a big hit. They will be on hand again tonight, and a much larger crowd is expected.

Many more people are present for the activities here than was expected owing to larger and more pretentious celebrations at neighboring towns. Arlington, Ukiah and Walla Walla have proved especially attractive to local people, while others have sought mountain shade as an ideal respite from the work-a-day world.

McMurdo Makes a Fine Record at Virginia U.

The Park County News, published at Livingston, Montana, under date of June 18th, has the following to say regarding a nephew of Dr. A. D. McMurdo of this city:

"Chas. E. McMurdo, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. McMurdo of Willall, received his B.S. degree in electrical engineering at the University of Virginia, on June 11. He was president of the senior class. "He graduated from the Willall high school with the class of 1924, and entered the University of Virginia the following September. He is a member of the Tau Beta Phi, national honorary engineering fraternity, and is president of the Trigon engineering society. He was also initiated into the "Raven Society," which was instituted in memory of Edgar Allan Poe, who was an alumnus of the university and is the highest honor the university can offer any student. He was awarded the Isabella Merrick Sampson scholarship for the past three years in the engineering department and has been on the dean's list of distinguished students since it was started in 1927, with an average above 90 in all his studies.

"He has held an instructorship in physics at the University for the past two years, and an instructorship in engineering drawing for the past two quarters. Last October he was sent to Atlanta, Ga., to represent the university at the national convention of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. He is also chairman of the Virginia branch of the same society.

"He has accepted a position with the Westinghouse Electric company at Pittsburgh, Pa., for the summer and expects to return to the university next fall to take post graduate work, and he also has the offer of four instructorships.

"His mother went to Virginia to be present at the commencement exercises and to visit her old home."
