

BOARDMAN

Stanley King will long have reason to remember his sixth birthday which was Tuesday, June 25. On that day his mother gave a fine party for him. About 20 little folks were present and after a merry time with games they all partook of ice cream and cake. Present were Elvira, Asta and Erma Skobo, Or-thun Hereim, Stanton Hadley, Helen and Gordon Gross, Harry Humphrey, Elizabeth Kristensen, Mardell Gorham, Catherine Mead, Echo Coats, Billy Price, Norman Hango, Maxine Cooney, Buddy Johnson, and the King children, Mesdames Hango, Gorham, Price, Humphrey, L. G. Smith and Hereim enjoyed the party as much as the little tots.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ackerman came last week from California where they have been the past several months. They are guests at the Gorham home.

Ralph Say and daughter Ethel of Vancouver were overnight guests Monday at the Rands home. On Tuesday Mrs. Marion Emmett and daughter Doris stopped for a visit on their way to Hood River from their home in Salt Lake.

The Home Economics club gave a party to all the children of the project on Wednesday afternoon at Tom's camp. This is a fine picnic ground and the children had a fine time. Ice cream and cake was served by the H. E. ladies. The club will not meet during July or August.

Mrs. Dan Ransier will entertain at the next meeting of the H. E. club. It was decided not to meet during the summer months but later decided to meet once a month.

Paul M. Smith and family came Wednesday from Thorp, Wash., for a few days visit with friends.

Sunday evening a group picnicked at the river celebrating Chas. Wicklander's birthday. A big feed was enjoyed, a large birthday cake being served.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Crowder were up Sunday from Arlington. They visited Mrs. Dingnon who has been seriously ill for months and is gradually growing weaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Nethercott and family arrived Sunday from California and are visiting the Nickersons. They may remain for a time.

Candidate

Mrs. Jessie Woodrow Sayre of Boston, Mass., daughter of the late President Woodrow Wilson, who it is reported will soon be "launched" as a candidate for United States Senator.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cramer, Earl Cramer and son Basil came home Saturday from a wonderful motor trip to California, going to Los Angeles and visiting at points of interest all along the way. They visited Mrs. Cramer's mother in Fresno, Calif., stopped at Los Gatos where they lived 30 years before and visited friends and relatives along the way. They spent a short time with Jay Cox and family in southern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hadley and son left Tuesday for Oregon City to visit over the Fourth.

The light fingered gentry continue their work in this section and this week 50 young chix were taken from the Y. P. Rutherford ranch and four young pigs from the Z. J. Gillespie ranch. Some persons think it is local talent and others believe it to be outsiders but it is certainly deplorable when a farmer loses his live stock and poultry in a small community like this. Such things breed suspicion and distrust of neighbors.

George Shane and family were visitors from Arlington Saturday.

IONE
