

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford motored to Walla Walla early last Thursday morning and took in the 4th of July doings there, put on by the members of the American Legion post, enjoying a picnic dinner in the foot hills beyond Dixie and then returning for the big fireworks display in the evening. Before returning home on Sunday afternoon, they spent part of two days with relatives at Waitsburg, and enjoyed a trip among the wheat fields of that part of Walla Walla county, where they will reap an abundant harvest this season.

Edw. Lindken, lone wheat raiser, spent a short time in the city Wednesday morning. He reports Tuesday as being one of the worst days for dust that he has experienced since living in the county. It was one day when apparently the north end of the county was trying to move south; at any rate the air was thoroughly saturated with dust and the greater part of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kariher, son Wilmer and daughter Dorothy arrived at Heppner the end of the week from their home at Newcastle, Penn., for a visit with Mrs. Kariher's father, Andrew Baird, and other relatives in Heppner. They expect to remain here for some time through Miss Kariher will return east in time to enter the university in September.

Bert Palmateer and family of Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beers and daughters of Estacada were visitors in Heppner on Friday afternoon. They spent the 4th at the coal mines where they enjoyed the cool shade and fine water. Mrs. Beers is a sister of Mrs. Palmateer.

R. R. McHaley of John Day has been spending several days at Heppner this week. He was recently appointed trustee of the J. H. McHaley estate, succeeding Judge W. W. Wood of Ontario, resigned. Mr. McHaley is contemplating taking up his residence in this city.

Dr. McMurdo is in Portland this week where he is attending the convention of the American Medical association. Dr. E. P. Fagan of Portland is looking after the practice of Dr. McMurdo during the latter's absence from the city.

Theodore Anderson and son Harley were Heppner visitors on Tuesday morning looking after business in connection with making ready for harvest. Wheat on their places in Eight Mile will soon be ready for the combine.

Vawter and John Parker who made a trip to Joseph the past week returned home on Saturday. They were accompanied by their young sister, Katherine, who visited for a couple of weeks with relatives at Joseph.

Dr. Clarke of Portland, EYE SIGHT SPECIALIST, in Heppner two days, Sunday and Monday, July 14 and 15, at Hotel Heppner. Consultation free. 17-18.

Miss Bonita Aiken, daughter of Cyrus Aiken, arrived from Salt Lake the end of the week and will spend some two weeks visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Aiken in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Luttrell of Hermiston and Mrs. J. Templeton of the same city, were guests over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark in this city.

Herman Nielson was down from his Hood canyon home, remaining over Monday night.

M. R. Morgan and his brother-in-law, J. M. Hamblet, were visitors here on Tuesday from Ione. Mr. and Mrs. Hamblet have been guests at the Morgan home for the past two weeks from their home at Dayton, Ore. Many years ago Mr. Hamblet was engaged in wheat farming in this county, he and Mr. Morgan taking up their homesteads in the Ione section in 1892 and Mr. Hamblet moving to the county with his family in 1884.

Spencer Crawford and family motored over to Walla Walla Thursday afternoon and took in the big pyrotechnic display at the fair grounds there in the evening. Under the auspices of the American Legion post of that city, a reproduction of the Battle of the Marne was given in a very realistic manner, and people came from far and near to witness the display, no less than 30,000 people being gathered in the bleachers and grandstand and about the grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner and son, accompanied by Miss Annabel Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner of this city, who spent some two weeks or more in the Salem home of her uncle and aunt, arrived at Heppner the end of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Turner will spend several weeks in Heppner and vicinity, remaining here until about the first of September.

Born—At the maternity home of Mrs. Lillie Aiken in this city, Friday, July 5, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker of Ione, a daughter.

Mrs. W. W. Smead is visiting with the family of her son, John Glasscock, in Portland. She accompanied Mr. Glasscock to the city the past week.

Dr. Clarke, EYE SIGHT SPECIALIST, in Heppner Sunday and Monday, July 14 and 15, at Hotel Heppner. See him about your eyes.

Mrs. E. F. Campbell is visiting this week with her daughter and family, Mrs. Willis McCarty, in The Dalles.

Results of Thinking

Benefits from never wasting anything are clearly emphasized if we, as a scientist would, think about the matter, consider our condition and possibilities of "arriving" if we are prudent.

Just notice how people who save regularly do succeed.
