

BOARDMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Price were pleased to have their daughter, Mrs. Harold Say, come up Tuesday from Portland for a few days visit. Her two daughters, Shirley and Mary Nadelle, have been up here with their grandparents for several weeks.

The Home Economics club met with Mrs. Dan Ransier on Wednesday. About 20 were present and enjoyed a sumptuous luncheon. Mrs. Houghton of Umatilla and Mrs. Harold Say of Portland were out of town guests. Other invited guests were Mesdames Blayden, Gorham, Herein, Tyler, King and Mefford.

Alvin Kelly, a former Boardman resident, was a visitor on the project last week. He is living at Boulder Creek, Cal., since leaving here. L. C. Cooney and family were dinner guests Sunday at the Emmet Cooney home near Umatilla.

C. Astor Smith and Josephine Meidl of La Center, Wash., were visitors at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Everett Duggan. They took the Smith-Duggan baler back with them. Wayne and Kenneth Duggan accompanied them to La Center and will remain for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McClelland and baby came up Thursday night. The former returned to Portland the following day but Mrs. McClelland and baby remained for a visit at the Ed Kunze home.

Nate Macomber went to Pilot Rock Saturday night. Mary Chaffee went along and visited with Sybil Grace, staying over until Monday to attend the circus.

J. C. Ballenger was home Saturday for a short time. He has purchased a house in The Dalles and he took Harry Murchie back with him to do some remodeling on the house there.

Boardman friends of Arthur Schaefer were sorry to learn of his recent entanglement with the law and his departure from the paths of propriety. Arthur spent several years here working at various places and spent much of this time at the I. Skoubo and Nick Falser homes, and in all the time was never known to be dishonest. He was shot last week at Hermiston while attempting to rob a store. It is thought he must have fallen among the wrong companions.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorham and two daughters motored to Pendleton Sunday and were guests at the home of friends. They remained overnight and attended the circus on Monday.

Mrs. Doyle Hubbel and baby are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Agee while Mr. Hubbel is working in the harvest.

Miss Nellie Dillon came home this week from a pleasant two weeks vacation trip to Portland.

Mrs. Pete Sievin was grieved to receive word Sunday of the death of her brother, Wm. Dolan, at their old home in Ireland.

Mrs. M. J. Doney of Freewater was a visitor here Sunday. She is a sister of Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Guy Collins of Portland was a recent visitor at the Nick Falser home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson and Delbert made a flying trip to Wasco Sunday, returning the same evening.

Mrs. Pat Pattee and two children came Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Olson. Patees are now living at Fossil and Mr. Pattee went to Salem with a highway truck, so Mrs. Pattee took the opportunity to visit home folks. She came up from Arlington with Mrs. Bailey and sons Oren and Arthur and Miss Beth Bleakman who came up to see Mrs. Richard Dingman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tobin and two daughters visited Friday at the Nick Falser home. They were on their way to Spokane from their home in Paso Robles, Calif. Eldon Wilson has gone to the Gorgier ranch to work during harvest. Russell Mefford is working at the Kenny ranch near Heppner during harvest.

Mrs. Ray Brown has gone to the Ed Reitmann ranch to cook during harvest.

Nate Macomber was a dinner guest Monday evening at the Mefford home.

Vernon Root was 16 years old July 13, and on Sunday a fine birthday dinner was enjoyed at the home of his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mefford. His aunts, Mrs. Albert Macomber of Condon, Mrs. Ed Barlow and Evelyn all helped celebrate the occasion. Evelyn has been at Condon with her sister since the close of school.

Mrs. Claude Coats and daughter Echo are home from a pleasant visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Otho Stahl and family were week-end visitors at the Dan Ransier home.

"Snooky" little Dan Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier has been having difficulty with his breathing. A trip to the doctor on Monday showed the trouble to be hay fever and a touch of asthma. A change of climate was advised.

ALPINE

Mrs. John Nirschel of Pendleton and her sister, Miss Ruth Bennett of Alpine, left Wednesday for Portland where they will visit with relatives. They will also visit with relatives at Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary and family were Thursday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sepanek.

Wheat harvesting is in full swing out at Alpine. G. L. Bennett started on Thursday and is putting away a 25-bushel per acre crop. Shaw brothers who are harvesting their crop on the J. P. Conder ranch are reaping a 20 bushel crop. Doherty brothers are averaging 25 bushels, Melville brothers, 15 bushels, while Dan Lindsey, Mike Sepanek and Crockett Duvall are working together on their respective ranches and harvesting a good crop.

Willard Hawley was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary. G. L. Bennett accompanied by Mrs. George Lambirth were Echo visitors Saturday.

The Misses Bernice and Bertha Sepanek were Heppner visitors on Saturday.

Geo. Lambirth and daughter Celatha went to Lexington on Monday and brought home a combine which he had purchased from Otto Ruhl. Juanita Nirschel of Pendleton is spending the summer vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G.

L. Bennett.

On Thursday the Misses Bernice and Bertha Sepanek celebrated their nineteenth birthday. Those present were the Misses Celatha Lambirth, Margaret Melville, Gertrude Tichenor and Mrs. C. Melville. The Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson were Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary and children and Willard Hawley.

Chas. Melville accompanied by his niece, Miss Gertrude Tichenor, was an Echo visitor Friday afternoon. Norman Gideon and Gilbert White of Long Beach, Cal., are employed at West Camp ranch.

A large number of our young people attended the dance at Ione on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lambirth had as guests at their home on Saturday, the former's brothers, John Lambirth of Pendleton, Chas. Lambirth of Echo, and their brother Lefe Lambirth of Home, Idaho, whom they had not seen in 14 years. All enjoyed a pleasant visit with George and his family who also had as their guests for a short time Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Webber of Hanford, Wash.

Willard Hawley had the misfortune of losing his Chrysler sedan which was destroyed by fire on Monday. Mr. Hawley thinks a short circuit in one of the battery wires caused the fire. The car was completely demolished.

Shaw brothers and families were Monday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Melville.

Zill Smithers is combining the barley crop on West Camp ranch. He is assisted by Earl Cole.

He Wasn't Joking

Sir Harry Lauder, the famous Scotch comedian, once said: "The finest book I have ever read is my savings book. I never get tired reading it."

If you have a savings account of your own, you know that Sir Harry was not joking. He really meant it. Just think! A dollar at 4 per cent compounded quarterly will double itself in but little over 17 years. Why shouldn't a Bank Book be interesting? We invite you to open an account with us.
