

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Bower and daughters Norma and Hazel of Corvallis were visitors over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Bower in this city. They came over the McKenzie pass and through the interior to Heppner, returning home on Monday by way of the Columbia highway. Mr. and Mrs. Bower are the parents of the Heppner pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Noble and Mrs. Noble's sister, Mrs. Goodnight of Vancouver, Wash., returned the end of the week from a very pleasant automobile trip through portions of Washington and Idaho. They traveled over the north and south highway in Idaho and report it one of the finest scenic roads they have traveled in the northwest.

The Misses Edna and LaVelle Florence, daughters of Price Florence, arrived from Portland on Friday for a visit of a few days with their father and other relatives in this city. The Misses Florence make their home with Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Vaughan in Portland, Mrs. Vaughan being their aunt.

J. E. Radford and family of Port Orford, Oregon, are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Gemmill just south of town, where Mr. Radford will work during harvest. Mrs. Radford is a sister of Mrs. Gemmill.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford of Heppner, Ore., spent July 4th and Friday in this city as guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Conover and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Conover. Vawter, whom we still like to claim as a Waitsburg boy, is editor of the Gazette at Heppner, one of the best weekly papers in the state of Oregon. As a young man he was foreman of the Times plant in the old Washington hand press days.—Waitsburg Times.

Peter Timm, Jr., lone wheatraiser, was a visitor at Heppner for a short while on Tuesday. He is now in the midst of his combining, and reports that some of his grain is making a good yield—far better, in fact, than he had expected, owing to the weeds. Harvest is beginning in earnest throughout the lone section.

Maurice Smead drove up from Portland on Sunday, bringing his mother, Mrs. W. W. Smead, who was a visitor in the city for several days, and who also visited with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Curtis at Marshfield while away. They were accompanied by Dr. McMurdo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hustan arrived home on Friday from a visit of a week with relatives at Portland and Albany. They also enjoyed a trip out to the coast, a delightful experience.

Bob Alstott, Tindal Robison, Frank Fraters and Egbert Young were Eight Mile farmers in the city on Tuesday, getting ready for the harvest. These men are now starting their machines and report many others getting under way. Some yields are reported around 25 bushels, and fields in that part of the county are expected to go even better.

Harlan McCurdy of Ione was in Heppner on Monday, having just returned from Granite where he is summering the Davidson and McCurdy sheep. He had been spending some three weeks in the mountain section where the weather conditions are ideal, and finds it pretty warm down this way.

A. C. Crowell, who was called to his old home at Lansing, Mich., because of the illness of his father, returned home the end of the week. He reached the bedside of his father, whom he had not seen for some 20 years, just before he passed away. He also visited at Cadillac, Mich.

S. E. Notson, district attorney for Morrow county, was a visitor in Condon Thursday. He drove over by way of the Burton and Wilson grade and was accompanied by Tindal Robison, who visited here with his mother, Mrs. Andrew Neel.—Condon Globe-Times.

Frank Young, who was in town Tuesday from his Gooseberry farm, stated that he had started his combine and that the wheat harvest would proceed rapidly from this date on. He has a large acreage of grain to thresh.

Brand new shoe found on Freeze-out trail. Call at this office.

Mrs. Alice Adkins arrived home on last Thursday after an absence of some six weeks spent at Central, Wash., with the family of her son, Harley Adkins. On the way home she also visited with another son, Ralph Adkins and his family at Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rice arrived on Monday evening's stage from Portland, and will spend a short time at Heppner. They have been making their home during the past fall and winter at San Francisco, and Mr. Rice has greatly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Booher of Condon and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beymer and daughters Audrey, Lucile, Wilma and Florence, all from Heppner, celebrated the Fourth at Ukiah. Mrs. Beymer is a cousin to Mr. Booher.—Condon Globe-Times.

J. W. Stevens and family, who have been on a ranch near Court Rock, Grant county during the past year, have moved back to Hardman where they will make their home in the future. They brought over their effects the end of the week.

H. R. Smith, Rock creek ranchman, was looking after business here on Tuesday. He has been busy of late getting up his hay, which crop is now about all gathered in.

Geraldine Elder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elder of Wapato, Wash., is spending a week in this city at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Mattie Adkins.

Miles Martin, wheatraiser of the north Lexington section, was looking after business here on Monday. James Adkins, who makes his home in Portland, was visiting over the week end with his mother, Mrs. Mattie Adkins, in this city.

Roy Campbell of Social Ridge expected to start his wheat harvest today or Friday. He was in town Wednesday looking after business.

Barney Doherty of lower Sand hollow was a business visitor in the city on Saturday. Wheat harvest is beginning down his way.

R. B. Rice spent a short time here on Saturday from his home at Artesian ranch, north of Lexington.

Lotus Robison, stockman of Hardman and Rock creek, was a Saturday visitor at Heppner.

No More Gas In Stomach and Bowels

If you wish to be permanently relieved of gas in stomach and bowels, take Bealman's Gas Tablets, which are prepared especially for stomach gas and all the bad effects resulting from gas pressure. That empty, gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach will disappear; that anxious, nervous feeling with heart palpitation will vanish, and you will again be able to take a deep breath without discomfort. That drowsy, sleepy feeling after dinner will be replaced by a desire for entertainment. Bloating will cease. Your limbs, arms and fingers will no longer feel cold and "go to sleep" because Bealman's Gas Tablets prevent gas from interfering with the circulation. Get the genuine, in the yellow package, at any good drug store. Price 31

Results of Thinking

Benefits from never wasting anything are clearly emphasized if we, as a scientist would, think about the matter, consider our condition and possibilities of "arriving" if we are prudent.

Just notice how people who save regularly do succeed.
