

BOARDMAN

The Boardman community was shocked and grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Emma Sherman who passed away early Saturday morning at her home in Boardman after a few days' illness, although she had not been in good health for the past two years. Emma Eunice Johnson was born March 11, 1864, in Steel county, Minn. On July 2, 1890, she was married to G. A. Sherman at Spokane, who passed away about twelve years ago. Two sons were born to this union, Leonard G. in 1891, who passed away in 1902, and Lloyd A. on June 12, 1893, who survives his mother. When it was known that Mrs. Sherman's illness was serious word was sent to Lloyd who arrived Wednesday before his mother lost consciousness. Two sisters, Mrs. Warner of Boardman and Mrs. Adaline Dart of Seattle also survive. Mrs. Sherman came to Boardman in 1919 in the days when Boardman was still a desert waste and was with her sister, Mrs. O. H. Warner at the Highway Inn at different times during the intervening years. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, July 28, at the church with Rev. W. O. Miller in charge. The church was filled with sympathetic friends and the floral offerings were beautiful. The Barlow quartette composed of Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Gillespie, Ray Barlow and Mr. Barlow, sang three selections, and Mrs. Welch of Portland sang a solo. Mrs. Titus played. Pallbearers were Messrs. Johnson, Kiltz, Root, Blayden, Ayers and Barlow. Interment was in the Boardman cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Egholm of Honolulu came Friday night and visited overnight at the W. H. Mefford home. Mrs. Egholm is a sister of Mrs. Mefford. They went on to Wapato from here and thence to Seattle and will also drive to Yellowstone before returning to their Hawaiian home.

Opplie Waggoner was a visitor on the project Saturday. He has been employed on the highway at Condon for a long time.

Ballegers were home for a short time Saturday, leaving early Sunday morning for Wasco.

Lee Meads, Brice Dillaboughs and Royal Rands returned this week from a marvelous motor vacation, going to the coast and visiting various cities enroute.

Ray Barlow is working third trick at Arlington for one of the operators.

Truman Messenger who is working in the harvest fields near Milton, was down and spent Sunday with his family who are here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barlow.

Mrs. Ed Barlow came home Sunday from Condon where she visited a week with her sister, Mrs. Albert Macomber.

Evelyn Mefford who has been in Condon for the summer is visiting with her friends, Mrs. L. W. Schaffer and Emma Agee at Mikkaio. Evelyn is enjoying her first experience on a wheat ranch.

Ed McClelland came up Friday from Portland to visit his wife and baby who are staying at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ed Kunze.

Pete Thompson and Harvey Saari came Friday and visited a short time at the Olson home. Miss Linda Hango came home with them after a pleasant fortnight visit in Spokane.

C. R. Packard and son Glen were visitors from Seattle at the home of the former's brother Leslie Packard and at the Spagle home.

John Graves is quite ill and was taken to the Wilcox home at Lexington on Saturday by Mrs. Geo. Gross. Dr. Conder from Heppner was called. Typhoid fever was feared.

Howard Ellis has purchased a classy new Durant six. He had a new Durant four but wanted something a little speedier.

Mrs. L. C. Cooney entertained at a lovely lawn party on Tuesday, July 23, at her home for the pleasure of Mrs. John Graves. About 20 were present. A treasure hunt was a pleasant feature of the afternoon. A delicious lunch was served at the close of the afternoon by Mrs. Cooney assisted by several of the East End ladies.

Rev. Miller will have his vacation during the month of August, so no church services will be held. Sunday school will be held as usual.

Mrs. Chas. Dillon and daughters left Friday for a visit with her mother at Gateway, Ore.

Mrs. J. F. Barlow has suffered acutely as a result of having her little finger smashed in the car door on Wednesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow, Mrs. Truman Messenger and Mrs. Claude Coates and Mrs. Barlow drove to Hood River and while there Mrs. Barlow had the finger dressed.

Captain and Mrs. E. P. King of McKenna, Wn., were interesting visitors at the A. B. Chaffee home over the week end. Captain King and Mrs. Chaffee studied telegraphy together in a telegraphic school in St. Louis. Each was surprised to find the other no longer youthful. Captain King has just been attending the training camp. He served as a captain in the late world war. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorham left Wednesday for Seattle to take in Buyers' Week there, and will spend a week in Portland before their return. The girls, Janet and Mardell will remain with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden.

Irrigon melons were on the market July 29th for the first time locally.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Blayden came Saturday from Portland for a visit. Mr. Blayden went on to Spokane and his wife will remain for a longer visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden.

Monday was excessively warm, and the mercury climbed to 104.

Mrs. Chas. Goodwin is expected home this week from an extended visit with relatives in Dakota and Minnesota.

Tom Hendricks has leased 20 acres of his ranch to the U. S. Commercial Air Service for an airport. W. A. Price and family motored to Heppner on Monday.

HARDMAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mahrt motored to Portland Saturday to meet Mrs. Mahrt's aunt, Mrs. Anna Gamble from Oklahoma, who expects to make an extended visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fuqua arrived here Saturday for a visit at the homes of Chas. McDaniel and Bert Bleakman. Mrs. Fuqua is a sister of these ladies. From here they expect to go on to Idaho to visit an aunt before returning to their home at St. Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel returned to Hardman Friday after a 2-months absence. Mrs. Chapel will be engaged in teaching in the grade school here the coming year.

Lotha Robison purchased a binder from Gilliam & Bisbee one day last week.

Esther Adams, Mary Saling, Marie Saling, Ted Burnalde, Forrest Adams and Victor Johnson were a party of young folks spending the day in the mountains Sunday.

Marvin Brannon was a visitor in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bleakman and son were dinner guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bleakman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Adams spent Monday in Heppner transacting business.

Mrs. Golda Leathers spent Sunday here visiting relatives.

Owen Leathers returned home Friday from Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Johnson passed through town Sunday morning on their way to the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Lotus Robison were guests at the home of their daughter Wednesday.

Mary Farrrens, Elvira Bleakman, Mary Cannon and Clifford Howell, while riding in the mountains last week, within half a mile of the highway, at what is known as the Poulson place, found a deer in the house.

Archie Cox was shaking hands with old time friends here Tuesday. Mrs. Mary Coats was taken to Heppner Monday to consult a physician.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

The eleventh Sunday after Pentecost. First mass at Heppner at eight-thirty. Second mass at Lena at ten-thirty. Friday will be the first Friday of the month. Devotions in honor of the Sacred Heart at seven-thirty. The novena in honor of St. John Vianney will begin Thursday morning at seven-thirty and will close with high mass on August the ninth at seven o'clock. Those who possibly can make this novena are requested to do so.

LEO V. WALSH, Acting Pastor.

Bert Mason, general merchant of Ione, was in attendance at the business institute here Monday evening. He reports harvest well advanced in that part of the county. Weather conditions have been favorable, but a little too hot during the past few days, with cool nights for refreshing sleep.
