in the valley. She was accompanied by her grandson, Duncan Ross. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Holman and daughter Marjory and nephew Bobby Cochran of Yakima motored in to town last Thursday. Here they were joined by Mrs. Holman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cochran, and all departed for an extended auto trip to points of interest in the Willamette valley. Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Robison returned Saturday from Longview, Wash., where they had gone to attend the funeral services of Miss Eva Stange. They were accompanied by Mr. Robison's sister, Miss Florence Robison of Portland who will remain for a week or more. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sargent have taken rooms at the Harris apartment. Mr. Sargent has about two weeks more of harvest work before he returns to his home in Eugene. Mrs. Hannah Ahalt is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Montague, in Toppenish, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Pfeffer, of Walla Walla, were week-end guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Chas. Nord. When they returned to their home they were accompanied by Mrs. Ray Burnett and three children who will spend two weeks in the Washington city. Mr. and Mrs. Cole Smith and their daughter Mildred, and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Casebolt and children, Mrs. J. W. Hoech and Miss Opal Elder, went to Sunnyside, Wash., to attend a reunion of the Elder family. Thirty people ate dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Elder and of these 28 were members of the Elder clan. Mrs. Casebolt is Mrs. Smith's sister. Mr. and Mrs. Casebolt and their three children have been having a pleasant visit with relatives in the northwest. They made the trip by auto from their home at Carrollton, Mo., stopping en route to see Yellowstone National park. They left Sunnyside Tuesday on the return trip. They will visit Mrs. Casebolt's brother at Spokane and another brother in Montana. They were much pleased with our country, Mr. Casebolt especially being interested in Yakima and vicinity. Guests at the E. J. Bristow home Monday and Tuesday were Mr. Bristow's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hachmuth of Beverly Hills, Cal., his sister, Mrs.

B. J. Hillery and his nephew, Bertrud Hillery of Vancouver, B. C. Six years ago Mr. Bristow had the pleasure of a visit with his youngest sister, Mrs. Hachmuth, but it had been 21 years since he had seen his oldest sister, Mrs. Hillery. While here Mr. and Mrs. Bristow and their guests motored to Heppner and Sand Hollow to call on old friends of the family. Mrs. Hachmuth made her home in Heppner for several years before her marriage. As the party came up from Portland they visited with Miss Blanche Bristow at Hood River and planned on stopping there again on the return trip. From Portland Mrs. Hillery and her son will go to their home in Canada and Mr. and Mrs. Hachmuth will drive south to their home in California.

The Blockhead Model

TAKE a look at most any fashion cut for men and women's clothing in newspapers or magazines and think for a moment if the pictures are a true likeness of us.

Elongated necks, faces that only the Egyptians carved in wood—the serious determined faces of dashing young men of the exaggerated square jaw creation.

Now that's just the way things are often represented to us these days, particularly in the clothing fields. Let's think for ourselves. You know how many of your friends look like those pictures just described.

Getting right down to facts and good judgment there is only one sensible way to buy our clothes and that is from a reputable merchant tailor.

None of us wants to look poverty stricken or as tho our clothes were snatched from a bargain counter. Clothes should be made from quality fabrics of recognized standing by a tailor who knows his business. Then we get what we want.

He Doesn't Need Much—

GAUDINESS is never acceptable, especially in the gentleman's attire. Few ornaments are generally needed to make his presence pleasing. But what jewelry he does wear should be of genuine quality. It lends an air of substantiality.

A genuine stone set in ring or pin gives a needed touch of color, as well.
