

Local Happenings

Miss Luola Bengé, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengé, departed Wednesday morning for Medford where she will take up her work for the coming year as instructor in the high school. Miss Bengé was graduated from the University of Oregon in June and her first teaching position in one of the state's larger high schools is a distinct recognition of her high scholastic attainments. Another former Heppner student also an instructor in the Medford high school is Roland Humphreys, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Humphreys of this city, who heads the mathematic department for his second year.

Leo Gorgor was here on Monday forenoon to attend to matters of business. Gorgor Bros. have finished with their wheat harvest and have the most of the grain in the warehouse at Ione. He was feeling good over the prospects of work starting this fall on Ione-Boardman market road which will touch their place about 11 miles north of Ione, and when that unit of the work is completed by next harvest it will make the chore of getting the grain to the station much less than it is at present over the cut-up dirt roads. Gorgor brothers will prepare for bulk handling of grain next season.

W. P. Mahoney and Jack Hynd visited Irrigon on Friday, having some business calling them to the project. They report good crops there this season, especially of alfalfa and melons, and the people of the north end projects are quite busy just now getting ready their exhibits for the North Morrow County fair to be given again this year at Irrigon, in which Boardman joins. Mr. Mahoney brought home a couple of very fine clusters of tokay grapes, just coming into full maturity, from the place of Fred Reiks, one of the original settlers on the Irrigon project.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Douglas were in Heppner on Monday closing up a deal for the disposal of their Morrow county wheat ranch. The purchasers are Robert Smith and sons Hugh and Harvey, and the land taken over in the deal is described as the South half Southwest quarter, section 24; West half East half, Southeast quarter Southeast quarter, section 25, all of section 36, township 1 south, range 23, E. W. M. The Smith brothers have been farming this land on a lease from Mr. Douglas. The consideration mentioned in this deal is $31,000.

Edward Brown and son of Redlands, Calif., are visiting with friends here, driving over from Walla Walla where they have been spending a few weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. Minnie Evans. Mr. Brown was formerly quite extensively engaged in farming in this county, owning a wheat ranch in the Blackhorse section. His father, John C. Brown, was a pioneer of the Heppner country and the Browns were for long years prominent residents here. Mr. Brown expects to return soon to his home in California.

Oscar Otto, formerly engaged in the music business at Heppner and now a farmer in the Irrigon district, was a visitor here on Saturday for a few hours while attending to matters of business.

Man's Clothes Tell Their Own Story

It doesn't pay to wear sloppy, poor fitting, catch-as-catch-can clothing now days. Not when people prefer the nicer things in every day life.

A man's clothes are just as important as anything else, in fact more so. And that's just the reason why they should be tailor made from recognized quality fabrics.

The merchant tailor isn't out of date as some fellows think. He is right to the front with the details of the latest information from the centers of style designing. He can make classy clothes for the old or young and give you just what you want.

Chas. W. Smith, county agent, and W. O. Bayless returned Monday from Omaha, Neb., to which point they accompanied a shipment of McNamer and Thompson sheep. The sheep, billed on consignment, were disposed of at Omaha as the market there was found to be nearly as good as the Chicago market. The men report having had a very enjoyable trip. Mr. Smith took advantage of the opportunity to gather data on shrinkage and other factors concerning stock en route to market, thus putting his vocation to practical use.

Henry Peterson, Eight Mile wheat farmer, was looking after business in Heppner on Saturday afternoon. He reports a good harvest this season, the wheat about all to market and will soon be ready for the fall work, providing a good rain comes along to put the summer-fallow land in shape.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Gordon departed on Sunday for a week's vacation which they will spend at Seattle and other points on Puget Sound. During their absence Mrs. Clay Clark and Miss Lucile Hall are in charge of the store.

Miss Rita Norris and mother who were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dix over the week end, departed Monday morning for Eugene where Miss Norris will be in charge of the domestic science department in the Eugene high school the coming year. She formerly taught in the local schools. With her mother, Miss Norris has been spending the summer at Denver, Colorado.

The marriage of Miss Dona E. Luttrell, daughter of Omar Luttrell, to Herbert Hill of Sherman county.

HEPPNER TRANSFER COMPANY

was solemnized at the residence of Milton W. Bower in this city on Wednesday, August 27, Mr. Bower officiating. The bride is a recent arrival here, coming from Sherman county with her parents, who have located on the John Hughes farm on Willow creek below Heppner.

Glen Young was attending to business here on Friday. He has finished with the wheat harvest, getting one of the best yields ever produced on the Young farm at Eight Mile. He finished with the delivery of the grain to the warehouse at Heppner this week and expects to leave the end of the week for a vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Peabody and daughter Thelma drove to Heppner on Saturday from their home at Sunnyside, Wash., and remained over Sunday as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reavis. Mr. and Mrs. Peabody are the parents of Mrs. Reavis. They returned home on Monday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wilcox who farm a few miles west of Lexington were visitors here on Saturday.

The Misses Mollie and Caroline Brown of Redlands, Calif., and Mrs. Minnie Evans of Walla Walla visited at Heppner and vicinity the first of the week. They returned with Mrs. Evans to Walla Walla on Wednesday to continue their visit there for a week or so before going to their California home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Thorn departed on Monday for their new home at Pomeroy, Wash., where Mr. Thorn will be district manager for the Pacific Power & Light company and enter upon his duties at once. Heppner folks wish Mr. and Mrs. Thorn great success in the new field of labor.

Emanuel Barlow and family have been spending a portion of the summer in Morrow county, while Mr. Barlow was working through harvest. They were formerly residents of this section, but for the past 19 years have been living in the Willamette valley near Oregon City.

Paul Marble, resident manager of Pacific Power & Light company, taking the place of Mitchell Thorn, expects that his family will arrive soon from their former home at Yakima. He has rented the residence property of Mrs. Chas. Farlong on Willis street, which will be occupied by his family upon their arrival here.

The Misses Evelyn Humphreys and Margaret Rood who have been spending a week with the parents of Miss Humphreys departed on Saturday evening, the former to her work as secretary at Pacific Christian hospital in Eugene, and the latter to her home at Hillsboro.

Jared Aiken, who has been visiting in this city with relatives and friends, went to Spokane Monday on business for a couple of days. He expects to leave for San Francisco the end of the week to assume his new duties with the Metropolitan Casualty company.

P. M. Gemmill, proprietor of Cohn Auto Co., left for Portland on Monday to attend the Plymouth-Dodge school conducted there this week.
