

JOHN M'EWAN LINES UP COACHING STAFF

Billy Reinhart, Gene Shields and Prink Gallison Named as Assistant Coaches.

Fall Grid Work to Start Within a Few Days.

In years gone by the University of Oregon boasted wonderful coaching staffs, but it is doubtful if any compare to the present array of mentors.

J. J. McEwan

Captain John J. McEwan is at the helm for his fourth season. When he became head coach four years ago, he inherited few players of outstanding ability.

But the Oregon army mentor builded slowly and wisely. He concentrated on bolstering the line, the last year his efforts bore fruit. Oregon won the Northwest championship by trouncing Washington, 27 to 0; Oregon State, 12 to 0; and Montana, 31 to 6.

Before coming to the University, Captain McEwan was for three years head coach at West Point, and prior to that was chief line coach there for five years.

For the last six years Reinhart has been head baseball and basketball coach, and for the last three years head freshman football coach. In the six years Reinhart has coached at Oregon the university has won the Northwest championship in basketball twice and twice finished second.

Shields has been a successful football coach at Commerce high school in Portland. His 1928 team was runner-up in the Portland high school league. That is a feat, considering that Commerce has fewer than 300 boys.

Gallison needs little introduction. As head coach at Medford high school his teams have won the state championship for five years in a row, and last year's Medford eleven was considered the strongest high school team on the entire coast and one of the most powerful in the United States.

Earl Harvey. Mr. and Mrs. Feldman from here attended the funeral services. Mr. Harvey who had been working in Canada, returned to Latourell Falls late Saturday night, Sept. 21. His wife and friends did not know he was coming and he was so ill it took him an hour and a half to walk the mile from the stage depot to his home.

On Wednesday evening of last week a reception was given the teachers of our school. A short program and refreshments were served. Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, county school superintendent was in attendance.

(Too late for last week.)

Friday the 13th brought no bad luck to the Paul Balsiger party that started out very early that morning on a most delightful auto trip through central Oregon, the coast regions and the Willamette valley.

"land of nod," and so drove on leaving them to pleasant dreams, little knowing that they had missed a short visit with former Ione friends. They crossed the high bridge over Crooked river and stopped, as does everything else, to toss pebbles into the water far, far below. At 11 o'clock the party was at Bend. A visit was paid to the wonderful lava caves, but no one cared to explore far into them.

Several of our people drove to Celilo Sunday to witness Al Faucett ride his boat through the foaming angry rush of waters of the Celilo falls. Among those who went were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk.

Rev. Cecil Ahalt of Toppenish, Wash., was here Thursday of last week and assisted in the religious services which his wife was conducting in the Pentecostal hall.

Last week Clarence Nelson was taken by Dr. Johnston from the Morrow General hospital to the Veterans' hospital in Portland. Mr. Nelson was also accompanied by his wife and baby.

Albert Pettes has received word that his wife who recently underwent a major operation at Hot Lake is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ahalt spent a couple of days last week visiting Mr. Ahalt's sister, Mrs. Herman Havercoast at Rhea Siding.

Roy Stender who has been farming the L. P. Davidson ranch, has rented what is known as the old Nate Cecil place below the town of Cecil.

Ed Buschke and son made a business trip to Portland last week.

Mrs. Kenneth Austin and little daughter departed Friday on a trip to Pendleton and La Grande.

Hazel and Kathryn Feldman left the first of last week to again take up their school work.

Miss Hazel goes to Oregon State college where she is taking a course in pharmacy.

Miss Kathryn goes to the University of Oregon where she is a student in interior decoration.

Hugh Holthouse of Sunnyside, Cal., was a guest last week in the Carl Feldman home.

He was on his way to visit an uncle who lives at Ozett Lake, Wash., and was traveling by auto.

After attending the Round-Up Mr. and Mrs. Alton V. Turner of Keating drove to Ione where they were week-end guests in the Elmer Griffith home.

They left Monday morning accompanied by Mrs. Kitty G. Turner who went to La Grande and Union for a brief visit with relatives and friends.

The regular monthly meeting of the missionary society of the Congregational church will be held in the church parlor Thursday afternoon, Oct. 3.

Mrs. Laxton McMurray was an outgoing passenger for The Dalles Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Ruby Roberts was transacting business in Portland the first of this week.

Mrs. Margaret Blake had charge of the post office during her absence.

Several of our people drove to Celilo Sunday to witness Al Faucett ride his boat through the foaming angry rush of waters of the Celilo falls.

Among those who went were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk.

SAVING COAL

During the past ten years the light and power industry has saved 180 million tons of coal a year because of increased efficiency in the art of generating electricity by steam plants.

Interesting, but—what of it?

And saving in the operating costs, which include the cost of fuel, must ultimately be passed on to the consumer under the present system of regulation.

Furthermore, conservation of natural resources is a contribution to the wealth of a nation.
