

BOARDMAN

The Home Economics club met with Mrs. Lee Mead on Wednesday. A large attendance was had and after the usual sumptuous meal a business meeting was held. It was decided to have a supper on the evening of November 16 when about 30 candidates will be initiated into the grange. This will be a pot luck supper and will be held at 8:30 in the schoolhouse. After the business meeting the group who are to present the tableaux at the state grange Saturday, practiced. The next meeting will be at the Duggan home with Mrs. Faler and Mrs. Duggan, hostesses.

Mrs. Beecher Lewis experienced the thrill that comes once in a lifetime when, on Wednesday morning, she was driving to The Dalles in their fine new Hupmobile. She fell asleep at the wheel near Heppner Junction and the car left the road, falling a distance of approximately 60 feet, turning over three times before landing on its side at the foot near the railroad track. Mrs. Lewis is crawling out unharmed, climbed the embankment and hailed a passing stage and came home. It was merely another of those strange miracles that continue to occur that she was not killed or seriously hurt. The car was damaged to some extent but the glass was not even broken.

Mrs. A. A. Agee has been ill for some time. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mitchell plan to leave next week for Portland for a visit, going down to be with Mrs. Mitchell's mother who will be 86 years of age November 7.

Mrs. Guy Barlow and her committee will entertain at the next Silver Tea on November 6 at the home of Mrs. D. W. Miller. Everyone invited.

L. G. Smith sold his band of sheep to Crofton Bros. of Washington. Kristensen & King sold their lambs recently to Shane Bros. of Arlington.

W. A. Price and son Billy, Mrs. Lottie Attebury and Harry Murchie motored to The Dalles Sunday to see Mrs. Price who is in the Mid-Columbia hospital there. She is not at all well and Mr. Price was called back again in the night as she was much worse.

The sum of $21.50 was cleared Friday night at the movie, "Dress Parade," given by the P. T. A. This included $221 from the sale of candy made by Miss Spike and the girls. This brings the sum up to near $100 to be made as the first payment on the school Victrola soon to be bought.

Guy Barlow has purchased a new model Ford sedan.

Rood Eckleberry and Harold Townsend of Ione drove over Sunday and spent the day at the John Graves home.

Marvin Ransier, Geo. Wicklander and Geo. Graves left Sunday for Portland to attend the Pacific International Livestock exposition as the stock judging team from Morrow county. These boys had their first training in judging at the project fair at Hermiston and later at the Eastern Oregon hospital in Pendleton.

Mrs. A. B. Chaffee had a painful arm last week caused from pricking her finger with a needle.

Friends of Fred C. Houghton were sorry to hear of his injury Sunday when he was shot through the hand as he was taking his gun from the car while hunting. Stray shot struck him in the face also but the hand injury was more serious. The doctor thought that he could save the hand. Mr. Houghton is the project manager and lives near the division dam at Umatilla.

H. C. Ellis has purchased a Ford sedan.

Mrs. Lee Mead and daughters Helen and Catherine went to La Grande Friday afternoon and visited with her sister and husband. On Saturday Mrs. Mead attended the meeting of state grange.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graves attended the charivari of her brother and his bride last Friday night in the mountains 25 miles above Heppner, going over with Walter Rowell. Mrs. Mike Rowell of Ione has rented the Delano ranch and is moving here with her family.

Nicholas Muller was hurt last week, a big gash being cut in his leg from contact with barbed wire.

Neis Isaacson of Spokane spent several days at the O. B. Olson home last week. Mr. Isaacson was an old neighbor of the Olsons when they lived in Red Deer, Canada.

Francine King was hostess at a charming autumn party on Saturday afternoon to a group of friends. After various outdoor games each guest found a sack hanging on the trees and each contained a dainty luncheon. Marshmallows were toasted at a bonfire. Autumn leaves with a toy balloon folded at the base of the leaf like a bud made clever little favors. Guests were Wanda Shane, Hazel and Lucile Tyler, Lillian Hango, Norine Olson, Bertie Richardson, Maxine Machan, Francine and Ruth King, Kenneth Ransier, Reuben and Lawrence Wetherell, A. T. Herlein.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Blayden have returned to Spokane after visiting his parents. It is reported that Keller and Arnold have purchased the north 40 of the Harry Crawford place. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold will live on the place and run a dairy herd.

Howard Bates and wife will move to the John Brice place which has been fixed up and the barn made ready for their dairy herd.

Mrs. L. V. Root is still unable to be at her place in the post office. She has been ill the past two weeks.

Rev. G. H. Wilbur of Hood River will preach here Sunday evening, November 3.

The ranch belonging to Dr. Donnelly west of Boardman two miles was sold to Mr. Stout of Fossil. This is one of the best ranches on the project.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullrock of Portland came Friday for a few days visit. On Sunday they motored to Umatilla to visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Healey of Portland were guests at the Hereim home several days last week.

The local grange members who attended the meeting of the state grange at La Grande report having a splendid time. Twenty-four Boardmanites attended and were royally entertained. A banquet was given the visiting delegates on Saturday evening. Many of the local people visited with former Boardman folks and had a fine time. Mrs. Tyler, Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wicklander and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander were overnight guests at the Chas. Nizer home. Nizers are building a new home to replace the one burned some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Faler, Mr. and Mrs. I. Skoubo, John Brice and son Warren and Claude Myers were overnight guests at the Knauff home. On Sunday the group motored to Hot Lake, Union, Cove and other points. On Sunday afternoon a marvelous dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Knauff with 25 present. Seated at the table with them were Messrs. and Mesdames I. Skoubo, Nick Faler, Ray Brown, Glen Hadley, Royal Rands and Donna Jane, Miss Catherine Brown, Gladys Wilson, Mrs. Brice Dillabough, Mrs. Dan Ransier, Andy Andregg of Hermiston, Alfred Skoubo, John Brice and son Warren.

Other Boardman people attending were Mrs. D. W. Miller, Mrs. Lee Mead and Geo. Mitchell. The Boardman staff put on some beautiful tableaux at the meeting. Mr. Chandler and wife (nee Mildred Duncan) were visitors on the project Monday at the Willbanks and McIntyre homes.

Miss Erma Broyles has been quite ill in Portland and her mother and Grace went down and spent several days with her. Erma will come home soon for a vacation.

Paul and Frank Partlow have a contract to haul logs on the John Day.

A huller was brought down from Irigoin and the alfalfa seeds on the Fred Edmunds place was hulled. M. K. Flickinger has several acres of seed.
