

Local Happenings

Jefferson Evans, for long years a leading wheat raiser of the Lexington country, was down from his home at Walla Walla on Saturday, enjoying the reunion of pioneers. He was accompanied by Mrs. Minnie Evans, widow of the late Frank Evans, his brother and partner in the farming game in Morrow county. The Evans brothers were among those who made a success of wheat raising here, beginning under pioneer conditions. They retired from farming some fifteen years ago and moved to Walla Walla to reside, having disposed of their holdings in this county. Mr. Evans enjoyed a visit also with his brother, Marion Evans, another pioneer farmer of this community.

Dorothy Herren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Herren, departed from Portland on Saturday night by steamer, going to Los Angeles where she will enter the new county hospital, taking up nursing. This hospital has but recently been completed and it is said to be one of the largest on the Pacific coast, being prepared to care for 2000 patients and having a staff of nurses numbering 200. Some 1500 patients are now being cared for in this institution. Miss Herren graduated from Heppner high school with the class of '28, and has chosen nursing as her life work.

Tom Collins, winner of the prize given by Peoples Hardware Co. for the biggest buck deer weighed over their scales last hunting season, tells the editor of this paper that he succeeded in bagging a fine buck again this fall, using his prize gun. He did not bring the buck to Heppner, but states that he weighed 235 pounds and was altogether too fat for use, the meat being tough on that account. He was down from his home near Hardman on Saturday and took in the pioneer reunion at Lexington.

Elmer Hake, son of Mrs. H. G. Coxen of this city, was recently taken to the hospital at The Dalles where he underwent an operation on his head, having several pieces of bone removed. It will be remembered that Elmer was very seriously injured more than a year ago in an auto accident, and he was some time recovering from this. More recently, he was hurt again while playing football on the high school team and he was taken to The Dalles for treatment.

At the Parish house Friday night there was a jolly crowd, the occasion being a gypsy party in honor of the high school students and their teachers. The party was under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Gay M. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo in charge of the games, Mrs. Claude C. Cox, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mrs. Mary Armstrong and Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Moore. As refreshments, cider and doughnuts were served.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Githens arrived at Heppner on Monday afternoon from their home in Berkeley, Calif., for a visit of a week with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford. They are the parents of Mrs. Crawford, and for many years before going to California made their home here. They came via Crater Lake and expect to return home through the Willamette valley, making some stopovers with relatives at different points.

E. F. Gonty motored to Portland on Friday, accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Levi Morgan. Mrs. Gonty has been spending several weeks in Portland where she consulted specialists, and Mr. Gonty went down to bring her home. Mrs. Morgan enjoyed a nice visit with former neighbors at Portland where she and her family resided for a number of years. The party returned home Sunday evening.

Mrs. D. C. Wells and son Woodrow of Pendleton were week-end visitors at Heppner, coming over with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wells, who had been spending the week at Pilot Rock and Pendleton. Mr. Wells came over Saturday afternoon to take Mrs. Wells and Woodrow home. While here Mrs. Wells enjoyed the pioneer reunion at Lexington, where she formerly resided.

Frank Shively purchased the John Hughes residence property the past week, and will move into the same with his family immediately. The trade was made through the office of F. W. Turner & Co. The family of Edward Piercey, who have been living in the Hughes property, will move to the Roberts property vacated by Mr. Shively.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bothwell returned to their home at Maupin on Wednesday. Mrs. Bothwell and the children have been spending some two months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cowins, and Mr. Bothwell came over for her the first of the week. Their little daughter, Lorraine, will remain with her grandparents here and attend school during the winter.

Reld Buseick was in Heppner on Tuesday having just returned from a trip to Portland where he took in the stock show. Mr. and Mrs. Buseick came over from their home at John Day last week. Mrs. Buseick going to Pine City to visit with her people, Mr. and Mrs. Wattenburger, while her husband was in the city. They departed for home on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ida Dutton departed for her Portland home on Sunday, after spending a week with friends in Heppner. She was accompanied by Mrs. Stella Bailey, who was returning to her Portland home, and Robert Wightman, who went to the city to take in the stock show. Mrs. Dutton had been on a motor trip over much of eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Adams of Hardman, after spending a couple of days in Heppner at the home of their son, Floyd Adams, departed on Wednesday for Portland where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Adams maintain a home in the city and spend their winters there where the climate is not quite so rigorous as here.

D. J. Butcher, district manager of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., was at Heppner Monday evening, coming up from The Dalles for the purpose of paying company taxes. He went on to Condon from there to attend to a similar duty in Gilliam county.

Dr. Clarke of the Clarke Optical Co., 326 1/2 Washington St., corner 5th, Portland, Ore., EYESIGHT SPECIALISTS, will be in Heppner all day and evening, Sunday and Monday, November 3 and 4, at the Hotel Heppner. SEE HIM ABOUT YOUR EYES.

The family of C. B. Montgomery are recent arrivals in Heppner, coming from Corvallis. Mr. Montgomery is a painter and decorator by trade and his family is domiciled in the county residence on Jail street.

Dr. J. H. McCrady is enjoying a visit this week with his brother, Manuel McCrady, who is here from his home at Cle Elum, Wash. Mr. McCrady is also visiting with his uncle, J. I. Hanna on Hinton creek.

R. H. Stevens of Joseph is visiting with his sister, Mrs. R. D. Rodgers, county school superintendent, this week. Mr. Stevens is engaged in farming in Wallowa county.

Oscar Davis, veteran shepherd with the flocks of Hynd Bros. company, arrived at his Heppner home Sunday after spending the summer in the Wallowa county mountains. He says it's no little chore trailing a band of sheep more than 500 miles which he did coming from and going to Wallowa county.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reaney came up from their Salem home to attend the pioneer reunion at Lexington on Saturday, where they enjoyed meeting many of their old time friends. Mrs. Reaney visited a number of friends in Heppner on Monday.

W. T. Matlock, stockman and formerly engaged in business here, arrived the first of the week from his home at Missoula, Mont., and will spend some time in this vicinity while buying sheep.

Messrs. F. E. Lawson and R. C. Swanson from the office of Western Electric Co. in Portland, were at Heppner on Wednesday, putting in new equipment at the local telephone exchange.

The family of Uz French has moved to town from the ranch up Hinton creek to remain during the winter months, thus making it more convenient for the children to attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Becket were up from Portland over the week end, coming to attend the pioneer reunion at Lexington, and enjoy a visit with their relatives in Morrow county.

Regular meeting American Legion Auxiliary will be at Legion hall next Tuesday evening, Nov. 5, when a full attendance of members is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Monahan were week-end visitors at Portland, going down for the big stock show. They report a very pleasant trip.

Dick Sperry departed for Portland on Saturday where he will enter the Veterans hospital for a course of treatment.

Clerk Anderson issued a marriage license on Saturday to Arthur R. Jarvis and Ella E. Nelson, both of Condon.

Carl Cason returned home Saturday night from a motor trip which took him north into Canada. He visited at Bellingham, Wash., and other points, and took in several football games of interest.

Judge Alger Fee and J. S. Beckwith, court reporter, are in Heppner today from Pendleton, hearing some cases on the circuit court docket. Testimony was taken in some divorce cases and some argument heard on equity cases, the court disposing of such matters as were at issue at this time.
