

1930 CITY TAX BILL MAY BE LOWERED

Proposed Budget Shows $3,273 Saving; Council Met Monday.

Taxpayers of Heppner will experience a cut in their tax bill for city purposes next year if the budget submitted by the city budget committee Monday evening is adopted. The proposed budget for 1930 calls for $9,177 to be raised by taxation as against $12,450, the amount raised in 1929, a decrease of $3,273. The proposed budget, a copy of which appears in this issue of the Gazette Times, will be voted upon for approval at the December meeting of the city council, Monday evening, December 2 at 7:30 p. m.

Acting on the tax levying board with the council are Jas. G. Thomson, chairman, M. D. Clark and D. A. Wilson. But one material slice was made in the proposed budget from that in effect for 1929. This appears in the item of "maintenance and bridges," where $3000 was lopped off due to the fact that the city was up against building several bridges this year that have been completed, and such a large sum is not needed for the purpose next year. An increase under the items "interest" and "bond redemption" was necessitated because of a larger slice of bonds coming due in 1930, as well as an increased interest payment. This is for the retirement of city water bonds which are on a serial basis with a block of the bonds retired each year. An increase of $1,125 over 1929 is made in these items combined. An item of $550 which was in the 1929 budget for "grave improvements and sprinkling streets" was eliminated from the proposed budget, while a new item of $900 under "night watchman" appears.

A balance on hand in the general fund of $994 appears in the budget for 1930, also another item of receipts as the amount expected to be received from the county as the city's apportionment of the general road levy of $1100.

Besides the transaction of routine business, the council gave N. D. Bailey a temporary permit of six months for the placing of a wood and canvas structure on lower Main street. They also ordered the removal of a structure of like nature next to the Elks building which is declared to be a fire menace, and for the placement of which a permit had never been granted.

MR. NOTSON ENJOYS TRIP.

District Attorney Samuel E. Notson arrived home on last Thursday afternoon from his trip to Memphis, Tenn., where he went to attend the convention of attorney generals and district attorneys assembled in that city during the meeting of the American Bar association. Attorney General Van Winkle of Oregon was also in attendance at this meeting, and it so happened that Mr. Notson was the only district attorney from this state that was able to attend. It was supposed that members representing President Hoover's anti-crime commission would meet with the attorney generals and district attorneys, but none of them appeared, causing no little disappointment, as well as depriving the officials gathered from all over the country of the valuable discussion that doubtless would have resulted from their attendance. However, Mr. Notson received much of value from the convention and was well repaid for the time spent in making the journey to Memphis.

The Junior English class of Heppner High school is preparing to issue the first number of a magazine to be known as "Pirates Pages." Miss Bernita Lamson, English instructor, is the director. Aside from carrying pertinent news of the school, it will have selected work of the English classes.

Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold their regular meeting Monday evening at an earlier hour, due to Armistice Day. The meeting will convene promptly at 7 o'clock, and as there will be initiation of new members, all members are requested to be there on time.

Local Interest Keen in Pacific International

Samples of Morrow county wheat taken to the land products show at the Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland last week won more than their share of prizes, is the report of Chas. W. Smith, county agent, who had charge of the exhibits. Eighty per cent of the local wheat shown got into the money. The wheat was shown in both the variety and market classes. Exhibitors were Carlson Bros. and M. Rowell, Ione, Floyd Adams, Hardman and John Hughes, Heppner, C. D. Mentor, in charge of the land products show, declared the show to have been the best yet. Quality was better on the average with more entries.

The Morrow county stock judging team from Boardman, composed of George Wicklander, George Graves, and Marvin Ransier, made an exceptionally good showing, declared Mr. Smith, considering this being their first year and that they were in competition with some of the best teams in the country. Entered were six championship teams including teams from the Oregon State fair, California, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Nevada. The Morrow county boys judged five of the eight classes correctly and were well up on the list of teams in the tallied results.

A lively interest in the exposition was shown by Morrow county people, many going from here to take in at least part of the show. Among those noted were John Kilkenny, who purchased two thoroughbred bulls while there, one shorthorn and two Herefords; Claude Cox, R. L. Bengt, Bob Wightman, Del Ward, Carlson Bros., Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Misner, Fred McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barratt, Dillard French, Tom O'Brien, Joe Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thomson, Mrs. R. A. Thompson and girls, Mr. and Mrs. D. Cox, Ben Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Huston and son Milo, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Neill, and Dick Wightman, Clair Cox, Stephen Thompson and Russell Mefford, four Morrow county boys who came up from Corvallis where they are attending Oregon State college.

Record Crowd Expected For Homecoming Game

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 6.—A capacity crowd for the Oregon-Oregon State homecoming game here November 16, has been predicted by the A. S. U. ticket office. The grandstand seat sale has been heavy, and there are only a few reservations left in both the west and the east stands. The best seats, constructor in front of the stands on both sides of the field, still remain and are obtainable thru advance reservation at the Oregon graduate manager's office.

Covered seats at the north end of Hayward field are not yet sold. There are also 2250 uncovered seats at the northern end which are still to go. About 4000 general admission tickets will be placed on sale at the field the day of the game. The grandstand seats are being sold for $2.50, the field seats along the sidelines and the covered seats at the north for $2.00, and the general admission at $1.50. The $1.50 seats at the north end of the field will be reserved upon application to the A. S. U. ticket office, Eugene.

A fine bunch of turkeys has been obtained, he says, and there will be plenty of birds for everyone. Those who do not care to shoot may try their skill at a Benzo game to be provided by the club, he says.

MOVING PICTURES TO ENHANCE STUDY

High School Has New Equipment Provided by Student Body.

A keener zest will be put into studies at Heppner High school through the use of moving pictures, complete equipment for which has been installed with the arrival of one of the very latest types of projecting machines Saturday morning. The equipment was contracted for by the student body and will be paid for from student body funds.

"The school has no intention of competing with the local theater," declared Jas. M. Burgess, superintendent, "as the equipment will be used almost entirely in connection with class work, especially in the study of history, literature, science and geography." A wide range of educational films is available to the school from Oregon State college, University of Oregon, the U. S. department of commerce and the Yale University press. Among those to be shown will be the "Chronicles of America," a series of pictures put out by the Yale press depicting the history of America along various lines. This is the best series of educational pictures, Mr. Burgess asserted, that it has been his privilege to see.

The pictures will be shown in the auditorium-gymnasium where the new machine was successfully tried out Saturday afternoon. A modern fire-proof projecting room was built into the building at the time it was constructed, the school management then having in sight the acquisition of such equipment as has been installed. The late type machine, which will project standard size films, uses an incandescent lamp instead of the arc light, throws very clear pictures, and is automatic. A big silvered screen is installed as part of the equipment, this being the same type as used by commercial show houses.

Summary of Assessment Roll for the Year 1929

Assessor J. J. Wells has completed his summary of the assessment rolls of Morrow county for the year 1929, which shows a total valuation of $10,582,274. This, of course, does not include the railroad and other public service corporations, which amount will be assessed by the State Tax commission and the valuations reported to the county assessor's office after the first of December. We are informed by the assessor that when this sum is added to the total, the valuations for the year 1929 will be less than former years by a very considerable sum. One item heretofore carried was the assessment of bank stock. Under the new law this is exempt. Added to this is the amount of the lands bought in by the county on tax foreclosures, besides there has been quite a general decrease this year in valuations.

The figures of the summary, given in detail, and as equalized by the County Board of Equalization, follows: (First in each item is given the classification, followed by number if any, then value.) Acres of all lands, 1,043,734, $7,370,237; improvements on deeded or patented lands, $491,850; Town and city lots, $270,046; improvements on town and city lots, $685,370; improvements on lands not deeded or patented, $1,450; steamboats, sailboats, stationery engines, and manufacturing machinery, $61,265; merchandise and stock in trade, $164,805; farming implements, wagons, carriages, automobiles, etc., $229,545; hotel and office furniture, etc., $226,140; horses, 4,513, $212,420; cattle, 5,401, $175,225; sheep, 140,888, $865,561; swine, 693, $5,865; bees, 1106, $3,310; poultry, 23,712, $12,183. Total value, $10,582,274. Soldiers' exemption, $9,545.00, has been deducted from above totals.

Supt. Jas. M. Burgess will depart on tonight's train for Salem where he has been called by State Supt. Howard to sit as one member of a committee investigating the standards of small office schools of the state. The object of the investigation is the raising of the standards of these schools and Mr. Howard is calling to assistance several of the superintendents from Eastern Oregon as well as other parts of the state.

Announcement is made of a meeting of the local Union Missionary society at the Christian church on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Everyone invited.

Levyng Board Allows $2400 for Health Nurse

The proposal for a health nurse for Morrow county made to the county tax levying board yesterday by a committee from the Heppner Lions club and other representative interests, received favorable consideration, and if the proposed budget is adopted $2400 will be allotted to carry on this work in 1930. Jas. M. Burgess, local superintendent of schools and president of the Lions club, who has been in close contact with the need of a county health nurse, headed the Lions club delegation.

All members of the levyng board expressed their approval of the move, the only drawback for a time being the finding of available funds without exceeding the six per cent limitation. Those asking for the county health nurse declared she should be put on a full-time basis, and the $2400 was allotted with this end in view.

In discussion of the need of a county health nurse at the Lions club meeting Monday, it was the consensus of opinion that there was practically no argument against the advisability of providing the same. "Men are too prone to spend their time and money looking to the welfare of their stock, while ignoring the health of their children," was one statement made. Figures were given showing where county health nurses had saved their salaries several times over in one year by assisting in the correction of child defects, which, had they not been discovered, would have led to large doctor bills aside from keeping the affected children back in school. It costs the taxpayers of school district No. 1 of Heppner $143 to educate a pupil for one year. Each year that a pupil is held back means a duplication of this expense. Records show that a majority of failures in school are due to some, or many, physical defect. Thus by seeking out and correcting these defects, the child is enabled to do his work satisfactorily and thus relieve taxpayers of the expense of failure.

This, as pointed out, is but one example of many ways in which the county health nurse work pays its way. By preventing epidemics, seeking out tuberculars in the early stage, and innumerable other services, it was asserted the work is invaluable.

HUNDRED MILLION TO AID WHEAT MEN

For the first time since the governmental action during the World War, when all grains were handled by a board headed by Julius Barnes, the Federal government has stepped into the grain marketing situation to aid farmers.

Ample federal funds were pledged to the American farmers for the purpose of stabilizing wheat prices when the Farm Board, meeting in Chicago, announced that it has put $100,000,000 at the disposal of the newly organized Farmers' National Grain corporation, with the promise that more will be asked of Congress if necessary.

Prevailing wheat prices, based on world supply, are too low, in the opinion of the Farm Board. Scanning the drop in prices during the week, the board, in a statement issued by Chairman Legge, expressed the belief that "this unsatisfactory price level is chiefly due to the rapid or disorderly movement which is putting a large part of the year's supply of wheat on the market within a short time."

Nearly half the present wheat crop has been sold in one week, Mr. Legge said.

The unprecedented liquidation of industrial stocks and shrinkage in values within the last few days has also had an effect on wheat values which is entirely unwarranted and wheat producers should not be forced to sell on a market affected by these conditions," the statement asserted.

The board announced that it had authorized immediately the use of any funds at its command to help farmers hold the remainder of their crop for better prices. To assist in the orderly marketing program which is the board's avowed purpose, it proposes to lend to legally justified wheat cooperatives sums sufficient to bring the total amount borrowed from all sources by such associations up to a prescribed ceiling.

The board listed what is considered minimum wheat prices this year. The loans made through the cooperative will be carried until the close of the marketing season and will be prorated on these basic prices per bushel, taking into account the customary differentials. The prices range from $1.12 for No. 1, white amber, basis Seattle, to $1.25 for No. 1, red Winter, basis St. Louis.

The organization of the $200,000,000 National Farmers' Grain corporation was perfected after a week of conferences, and it is expected that the marketing of other grains, such as corn, oats, barley and rye, can be financed with Farm Board money through this agency. The corporation, from its headquarters at Chicago, will also handle stabilization activities on wheat for the board.

HEPPNER INVITES ALL COUNTY FOR THE 11TH

All Morrow county is invited to attend the big American Legion Armistice Day celebration in Heppner next Monday, the 11th. A full day of activities has been planned. The patriotic program will be held at 10:30 in the Elks' temple. A feature parade to Rodeo field at 1:30 will be followed by the annual football classic between Hermiston and Heppner high schools. At 6:30 there will be a free feed for all Legion and Auxiliary members and ex-service men, all-talkie picture show at Star theater at 7:30, followed by the annual Armistice Day dance at Elks' temple.

Dr. Poling, the speaker at the morning program, has a nationwide reputation as an entertainer and public speaker. Following his participation in the World War as an entertainer, he toured the country for several years as a lecturer. He had one son in the service who failed to return from France, and his talk next Monday will be one no one interested in his country can well afford to miss.

Hermiston and Ione posts of the Legion and Auxiliary have been invited to celebrate with the Heppner post this year, and latest reports indicate these two towns will be represented by large delegations. Aside from the members of the organizations it is expected that a large number of citizens from the two towns will be here.

Other features of the program will be carried out as announced last week, Commander C. W. Smith of the local post being authority for the statement that all committees are functioning well and there seems to be no possibility of a hitch in the proceedings. "We desire to have the entire county in Heppner Monday," he said, "and promise there will be plenty for their entertainment."

Ida B. Woodson, Former Resident Here, is Dead

From the Portland Journal of Wednesday we learn that Mrs. Ida B. Woodson, for many years a resident of Heppner and formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Oregon, died Tuesday at the Hollywood hospital, Hollywood, Calif., following an illness of several months.

Mrs. Woodson was the widow of the late C. E. Woodson, former attorney of Heppner, who was a member of the Oregon legislature for several terms.

Mrs. Woodson was born at Monroe, Oregon, December 19, 1873. She graduated from the University of Oregon shortly before teaching there. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. D. K. Park, of Los Angeles, and Miss Margaret Woodson, Portland. Services will be held privately at the Portland crematorium at 10:30 a. m., Saturday.

Mrs. Woodson had a large circle of friends at Heppner who were saddened at the announcement of her death.

Maple Circle Members Guests of Pendleton

A large delegation of Maple Circle No. 259 of this city motored to Pendleton on Wednesday evening, where they met with Friendship Circle at their regular session and were royally entertained. A banquet was served at 8:30 to visiting neighbors from La Grande, Baker, Weston and Heppner. This was followed by an enjoyable entertainment preceding the regular meeting of the Pendleton circle.

Those attending from Heppner were Neighbors Raymond Blahm, Oscar and Leatha Rippee, Alma and Doris Hiatt, Elsie Cowins, Elizabeth Barton, Anna Brown, Lelia Curran, Clara Sprinkel, Valma Cole, Lillie Fell, Elsie Rasmus, Lola Bennett, Mable French and Kate Swindell.

The budget committee for Morrow county, consisting of D. O. Justice, R. A. Thompson and Ernest Heiker, sat with the members of the county court on Wednesday afternoon and prepared the budget for 1930. They found it some chore to figure out just how to make 50 cents do the work of a dollar, and yet keep the grand total down to a figure that would not exceed the so-called six per cent limitation.

Bernard Walter, who has been manager of the local MacMarr store since its establishment at Heppner under the name of Stone's Cash store, has been transferred from Heppner to Walsburg, Wash., where he will manage the new MacMarr store just being opened there. Mr. Walter is succeeded at Heppner by Fred Painter who has also been with the store here since it was established.

Mrs. Pauline Quaid of Portland spent the week end at Heppner looking after matters of business. Mrs. Quaid is gradually making disposition of her real estate holdings in Morrow county, but is still interested in a considerable tract of land in the timber belt, as well as some wheat land south of Heppner.

The pupils of the intermediate department of All Saints church school had a Halloween party at the Parish house last Thursday evening. A chicken dinner was served, after which Halloween games were played, and lots of fun was had by everyone.

Leaving Heppner at 6 o'clock sharp tomorrow morning, a delegation of 24 Heppner business men go to Canyon City to appear before the Grant county court in the interest of the Heppner-Spray road and the Heppner-Spray road. This step is taken following action of the Heppner Lions club endorsing such a move. Paul M. Gemmill, chairman of the Heppner-Spray road committee of the Lions club, took the lead in forming the junket.

Included in the party are L. Van Marter, W. G. McCarty, Jim Cash, Geo. Bleakman, Al Rankin, Dean T. Goodman, M. L. Case, Chas. Thomson, S. E. Notson, W. O. Dix, D. A. Wilson, O. T. A guest of the junketeers on this trip will be R. J. Carsner, daddy of the Heppner-Spray road. Mr. Carsner is state senator from his district, residing at Spray. Aside from divers other affairs, he has been untiring in his efforts to make this road a reality, and is probably the best posted authority on all angles of the project. The local men feel fortunate in obtaining his company.

Three of the cars will make their itinerary over the Heppner-Spray road to the John Day highway and thence into Canyon City, in order that some members of the party who have not been over the route may see the practicality of it. The cars expect to pull back into Heppner at a late hour tomorrow evening.

METHODIST CHURCH

9:45 a. m., Sunday school.
11:00, Armistice Day sermon.
Anxiety and suffering prevailed during the days of the World War. Then came the memorable date, November 11, 1918, when the Armistice became effective. What a delirium of joy was experienced. The fighting was over, the cause which America championed was victorious, and the speedy return of our lads anticipated. Everyone was happy.

Then followed an unforgettable event on the 11th of November in a later year. An Unknown Warrior, selected from American sons, was laid to rest in Arlington. From what part of our great country did he go forth to serve his land? No one knows. East, West, North, South, solitary farm house, village and city may alike think of him as their own. He represents that number who lie in unmarked graves; and in a broader sense he represents all who made the supreme sacrifice in a terrific conflict. Surely Armistice Day is one of sacred memories. It is a day for reflection and the reverent expression of patriotism.

6:30, Young People's meeting.
7:30, Gospel message, "Seven Reasons Why I Know the Bible is True."
