

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Booher of Athena who have been visiting with relatives in this county since the pioneer reunion at Lexington departed the first of the week for their home. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Booher at Lexington, and their niece, Mrs. Tom Beymer and family on Hinton creek. Mrs. Carl Crow, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Booher, came from her home at Armstrong, B. C. to be present at the Lexington gathering and she will remain at the home of her mother for the winter, assisting in caring for her. Mrs. Booher, who was largely instrumental in starting the pioneer reunion at Lexington, is one of the real pioneers of this community. She is 84 years of age, enjoys good health and does lots of hard work yet, and her interest in the gathering of the pioneers each year is very keen. While in Heppner on Saturday, Mrs. Booher stated to the editor that she was busy these days in ministering to other folks, this being one of her greatest pleasures in life; that she would be working hard for the reunion next year and expected a larger gathering than ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Farnsworth and family of Enterprise visited with Heppner relatives and friends for a few days. They departed on Monday morning for Salem, where Mr. Farnsworth goes to work in the office of Rhea Luper, state engineer, for a time. From Heppner they were accompanied by John Parker who was on his way to Eugene to spend homecoming week with his brother, Vawter Parker, taking this opportunity to get a glimpse of college life and look over the big campus of the university.

Friends in Heppner will be pleased to learn of the marriage recently at Seattle, Wash., of Philip Mahoney, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney of this city to Miss Leda Pettier of Seattle. The young people were students together at the University of Washington. Mr. Mahoney is a graduate in law from the university, and at present holds a position with the University National bank as a teller.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have a Thanksgiving cooked food sale on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 26, in the basement of the church. Come and buy our good things for your Thanksgiving dinner.

Harold Dobyns, in charge of government trappers for this territory, was a visitor in the city on Tuesday, accompanied by D. V. Nicley who recently took charge of the territory between Sand Hollow and Butter creek, and who makes his headquarters at the Luckman ranch near Lena. The gentlemen were here to consult with sheepmen, and to secure poison and trapping tools. Mr. Dobyns states that Mr. Nicley has been successful in landing some of the worst of the coyote pests in his territory already, just recently trapping an old crippled female that had escaped traps, poison and gurs of the various trappers for the past five years. This old lady has been the torment of the hen and turkey roosts in the vicinity of the Frank Swaggart ranch on Butter creek for these many years. Mr. Nicley took her with a trap. Adam Knoblock has also just recently put some more of the old-timers out of commission in his territory, and Mr. Dobyns is of the opinion that these two trappers will get rid of many of these pests during the season at hand.

Newton Gaby who works for Judge Bengo on the ranch, met with an accident on Friday while wielding an axe. The implement was deflected by a limb of a tree and struck the great toe of his right foot, laying that member wide open through flesh and bone. He was brought to town and his injuries attended to at the office of Dr. McMurdo. It will be necessary for him to remain off his feet for some days while the injury heals.

W. H. Padberg, extensive wheat raiser of Clarks canyon, thinks that it is pretty dry and would like to see some more moisture; in fact he thinks we will have it by Christmas, if not sooner, but does not know what can be done about it in case his prediction fails. Billy was looking after business in Heppner on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McEntire of Portland were week-end visitors at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Venable in this city. They remained over Armistice Day.

Freddie Nelson, son of Albert Nelson of Lexington, was brought to Heppner hospital on Sunday. He is suffering from a severe infection of the throat.

O. T. Ferguson, of Ferguson Chevrolet company, was among those who made the trip into Grant county on Friday. He, with Mayor McCarty, traveled over the Ritter road and was privileged to get a glimpse of that part of Grant county for the first time. He is quite enthusiastic for the completion of this road into Heppner, which is now very largely completed to the Grant county line by Morrow county. He feels that it will add much to the trade of this community, and the sentiment of the people of that community seems strongly in favor of Grant county getting their part of the work done to connect up with the road at this end. Mr. Ferguson says he is a booster for this road into Heppner from now on.

The range conditions in the vicinity of the Jerm O'Connor ranch are fairly good just now, though no green feed has been able to come forth because of the long dry season. Mr. O'Connor, in town on business Wednesday, thinks the stockmen are facing a pretty long feeding season again this fall and winter, and this will prove to be very expensive from the present outlook. With corn quoted at $54 per ton and hay at $15 our sheepmen are praying for a short feeding season, which can only be brought about by an open winter and prospects for this are not bright.

Ed Clark is visiting with relatives and friends here this week. He was accompanied as far as Hood River by his wife, who stopped off there to see her relatives. For the past two years Mr. Clark has been located at Healdsburg, Calif., in charge of the Maytag agency. He is here looking after his small farm near town, and thinks he may return to Heppner and go on the place again.

Carl McDaniel of Hardman and Miss Sylvia Smith of Monument were united in marriage at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, at the parsonage of the Methodist church in Heppner, Rev. Glen P. White, pastor, officiating. The wedding was a quiet affair, with a few of the immediate relatives of the family being present.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union meets Thursday, Nov. 21, in the parlor of the Christian church. Come prepared to pay your dues if possible.—Clara Beamer, Secretary.

Quite a large crowd attended the carnival at the I. O. O. F. hall on Friday evening, sponsored by the Epworth league of the Methodist church. The results, financially, were quite satisfactory, the total receipts being $62.55. The entertainment was greatly enjoyed by those attending and much merriment was created at the various booths.

W. B. Barratt is up from his Portland home for a few days while attending to business matters. Mr. Barratt tells friends at Heppner that it will be necessary for him to enter a hospital at Portland soon to undergo what is considered a very serious operation. His many friends here ardently hope that his recovery will be prompt.

The small acreage and home of the late William Lawson, located just below town, was this week disposed of by the heirs of the estate to W. W. Hinton of Ukiah. Mr. Hinton and his family are moving on to the place immediately and will make it their future home.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys visited over the week end at Hillsboro, where she met other members of the family and also attended the dedicatory services of the new Christian church. She returned home Tuesday night.

Mrs. E. N. Gonty is a patient at Heppner hospital where she is recovering from a quite severe operation performed during the week. She is reported to be getting along well.

The Little Niceties Count

The most adept cuisine may prove uninteresting if the surroundings are not right.

Sparkling new silverware of an individual design is not a luxury. In lending an air of brightness and cleanliness to the table, it provokes cheerfulness, thereby helping to stimulate the appetite—an investment worth while.

You will be surprised at the low prices for which good silverware can be had.
