

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREIM, Correspondent.

Once more the Angel of Death entered this small community and for the second time in the course of eight months death visited the family circle of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nickerson when their daughter Pearl passed away on Wednesday, November 20, at The Dalles hospital, after an extended illness. Pearl was born February 15, 1914, at Rockland, Idaho, and leaves to mourn her passing her parents, two brothers, Charles and Willard, two sisters, Esther and Edith and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nickerson. Another brother, Fred, aged 19, died March 20 at Yakima following an emergency operation for appendicitis. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the church, with Rev. W. O. Miller in charge. He spoke words of comfort, selecting for his text, "The maid is not dead but sleepeth." There were many beautiful flowers. The Barlow quartette, Mrs. Coats, Mrs. Gillespie, Mr. Barlow and Ray, sang several selections. Pallbearers were Marvin Ransier, John Chaffee, Kenneth Duggan, Alvie McEford, Vernon Root and George Wicklander.

The story of Pearl's long illness and death is a story of a brave fight made by the family to do all within their power to save her. For some reason Pearl's blood lost the power of coagulation and when a severe nose bleed started the first part of September it was difficult to curb it. Small capillary hemorrhages would start beneath the skin and for several weeks all that doctors, nurses and good care could do was done at The Dalles hospital. Mrs. Nickerson was with her daughter day and night and gave of her own life blood for transfusion in an effort to aid her loved one, but all to no avail. The community all extends the deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nickerson, Jr., of Pendleton attended the funeral services of their niece Pearl Saturday. They were accompanied by Eli Knight.

Supt. and Mrs. L. E. Marschatt, Mrs. Martha Titus and Miss Ellen Henry motored to Heppner Saturday to consult with other educators and make plans for the annual Declamatory contest to be held in the spring.

Mrs. O. B. Olson spent a pleasant week in Portland, Mayger and other points, visiting friends and relatives and doing some shopping.

Mrs. J. R. Johnson, Rachel and Diabert motored to The Dalles on Monday.

Miss Mildred Messenger was a week-end visitor with friends in Pendleton.

The Home Economics club did not meet this week because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mrs. Ves Attebury came home on Wednesday from a six-weeks stay in Spokane, where she assisted in caring for her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Johnson who was seriously ill for some time. Mrs. Attebury left her much improved.

The community church has been stained recently. The work was done gratis by Les Root and is a great improvement. Although the church was built years ago, the staining has been neglected.

Plans were made to have the Rev. Ross Gulley of Eugene here next Sunday but he was unable to come so it was decided to continue the plans for a pot luck dinner at the close of the morning service. Mrs. Alquist of Irrigon, who is a licensed minister, will preach. Rev. Miller states that she has a message that will be worth hearing. Everyone is cordially invited.

Harry Murchie has been having much grief with a foot. A splinter caused an infection and he has made several visits to the doctor and suffered much pain.

Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Miller were overnight guests at the L. G. Smith home Saturday. Rev. Miller conducted the funeral services of the late Pearl Nickerson and remained over for the usual Sunday services.

The Umatilla quintet proved superior to the Boardman team at a practice game Friday night at Umatilla.

Mrs. Ella Shell left Thursday for Umatilla and planned to leave about Sunday for San Diego, Calif., to spend the winter with her son. She will be accompanied by Miss Effie Bullock of Umatilla.

Aid met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jack Gorham. 17 were present. Bazaar plans were discussed. The next Silver Tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Blayden with Mrs. Gorham's committee in charge.

W. O. King had the balance of his abscessed teeth extracted Saturday.

An excellent Thanksgiving program was given Sunday at the Sunday school hour. The small folk all acquitted themselves creditably. There were several musical selections, recitations and songs, and Rev. Miller gave a short and interesting talk apropos the season.

Earl Cramer and son Basil left Wednesday for a visit over the holidays with Mrs. Cramer who is teaching up near the Canadian line this year.

Mrs. Homer Cason has gone back to Portland after a weeks visit with her son, Bill Harrington.

One of the many lovely dinner parties planned for the holiday season will be given by Mr. and Mrs. L.

E. Marschat with W. O. King and family as guests.

Another of the Home Economic club card parties will be given Saturday night at the I. Skoubo home with Mesdames Skoubo, Kunzie and Duggan serving.

Michael Cassidy of Heppner was a Boardman visitor this week at the I. Skoubo home. He owns the land just north of the Skoubo place.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard will extend their hospitality on Thanksgiving, with Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Spagle, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jenkins and Elvira and the Berger family partaking of a turkey dinner. It is expected that Robert Berger will be here that day. He is operator at Gateway, Ore.

Miss Ellen Henry was a guest on Sunday at the Herheim home.

Another of the numerous Thanksgiving feasts was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander. Enjoying the huge turkey with them were the Mead, Rands, Dillabough and Geo. Wicklander families and C. H. Dillabough.

E. T. Messenger and family will enjoy a turkey dinner at the Flickinger home. Horace Williams of Pendleton is also expected to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Humphrey and Bob Harwood and sister Betty will be guests at the T. E. Broyles home at a lovely holiday dinner on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cramer will be guests at the Fortier home at a fine Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McEford and daughter, Mrs. Ed Barlow, are visiting in Southern Oregon. They stopped at Portland, Medford and other places enroute visiting friends and relatives.

The Rainvilles will spend the holiday at Pendleton with Mr. Rainville's brother, who was quite badly hurt in an automobile accident on Saturday at Pendleton.

H. H. Weston has sold his ranch to Y. P. Rutherford and will move soon. They are building on their ranch adjacent to the highway just east of the Porter ranch. Mr. Wilbanks and Robert Wilson are employed in constructing the house.

D. W. Miller is improving after a serious illness with erysipelas. Paul Partlow has returned from Florence, Ore., near the coast.

Mr. Rowell is building two rooms on to the Delano home.

Coyotes are quite populous again and some of the sheepmen are losing sheep.

Basketball Game—Friday night, the 22nd, the Boardman high school basketball team and the Umatilla boys played a very fast and exciting game on the Umatilla gym floor. The Umatilla boys were victorious by a score of 14-7.

7th and 8th Grades—Those on the honor roll this week are: Freda Richardson, Clayton Shane, John Harju, Basil Cramer, Delbert Mackan, Gloria Wicklander, Delbert Weddell, Myrtle Wehterell, Mitchell Ellis, Lawrence Tyler, Lois Messenger, Vernon Partlow, Margaret Smith, Imogene Wilson, Elsie Wilson, George Grammes, Tillie Harju, John Chaffee and Ruth Rowell.

Examination week has come and gone again. The six weeks examinations were given on Thursday and Friday of last week and the report cards on Tuesday of this week.

High School Play—The cast for the high school play, "The Patsy," has recently been chosen, as follows: Patricia Harrington, Nellie Dillon, Grace Harrington, Norma Gibbons; Mrs. Harrington, Linda Hango; Mr. Harrington, Carl Wicklander; Tony Anderson, Alvie McEford; Billy Caldwell, Dallas Wilson; Sadie Buchanan, Gladys Graves; O'Flaherty, Vernon Root; "Trip" Busty, Eugene Mingus. They practiced several nights last week and will practice every night that it is possible until the play is given.

1st and 2nd Grades—The first and second grades have completed their sand table which they started at the first of the year. They are now very much interested in watching some bulbs grow and start the little green sprouts.

The teachers and parents have been busy lately making little while suits for the band children, and also costumes for the operetta which is to be given Wednesday night, the 27th. The band will make its first appearance in uniform that night.

Personals—Mr. Marschat motored to Heppner Saturday to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the Declamatory contest.

Mrs. Titus was in Heppner to aid in drawing up plans for the proposed county spelling contest next spring.

Lost—A new Waterman's pencil. Owner and identification given at G-T. office. 32tf.

Editorial
And now that a committee has been appointed to restore confidence there is only one thing to be decided—where will they restore it?
ALBERT ADKINS, Manager, Editor.

TAL It wasn't raining when Noah built the Ark, but he was sure sitting on top of the world when it was over. The same way coal—it is hard to get after a little cold weather.

TAL Is life worth living or would it be better to try and change a tire on the pavement some Sunday afternoon?

TAL Because you have occasional spells of dependency, don't despair. The sun has a sinking spell every night, but it rises the next morning.
