

Local Happenings

The members of the high school football team were served a turkey dinner on Friday evening last at the Parish house, the mothers of the boys preparing the spread. The guest list included also the dads of the players, their coach, W. R. Poulson, and Supt. Burgess. It is reported that should the boys have been called on since that time to defend their title as champs of this district, they might have been humiliated in dire defeat, having taken on entirely too much of a load of the good things served them. They greatly appreciated the treat, just the same.

Earl Warner was in town for a short time Friday. While here he was getting some posters announcing the first dance of the season to be given on the new floor of Leach Memorial hall, the new I. O. O. F. building at Lexington, Saturday evening next. All the work on this building is not completed, but it is progressing nicely, and announcement will be made later concerning the date of dedication.

C. W. Valentine, a resident of Morrow county for the past 45 years or more, was looking after business here on Saturday. Charlie says that he has seen a number of seasons when it was as dry at it has been this fall, and after each one there have been good crops. It is too early to worry about the probable outcome anyway, as much depends on the weather conditions in the spring and early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Farnsworth arrived here on Monday from Monument, where they spent a few days visiting with relatives. They were on the return home from Salem where Mr. Farnsworth has been spending several weeks in the office of State Engineer Luper. They went on to their home at Enterprise Tuesday, where Mr. Farnsworth takes up his duties again as water master for Wallowa county.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Cotter were lone people in the city on Saturday afternoon, remaining for an hour or so while attending to business affairs. Mr. Cotter was making no complaint over crop prospects, as he feels everything will come out all right. His grain has been put in the ground in good shape and he will not worry about the outcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rice, who have been spending the summer and fall at Heppner, departed on Wednesday for San Francisco, where they will reside for the winter. Mr. Rice has been enjoying fairly good health since his stay here and had about made up his mind to remain, but Mrs. Rice has not been so well, so the trip south is made largely for her benefit.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sperry returned the end of the week from Portland where Mr. Sperry has been in the veterans' hospital for some time receiving treatment for sinus trouble. He is now well on the road to full recovery.

The new MacMarr grocery, which is occupying the south room in the Royal Block, opened for business Monday morning with B. E. Walters of Heppner, Ore., as local manager, and Joe Rogers of Walla Walla as assistant.—Walla Walla Times.

Harlan McCurdy and L. P. Davidson were lone folks in the city on Tuesday for a short time, looking after matters of business.

After ten years service at St. Peter's Catholic church, Father P. J. O'Rourke will leave, November 29, for Baker, where he will take charge of the St. Francis cathedral. His last service as pastor of the local church will be Sunday. Father E. O. D. Hayes, who has been pastor of the Catholic mission at Dufur for six years will succeed Father O'Rourke.—The Dalles Optimist.

Rhea Creek Grange will present at their hall on Saturday evening, December 7th, at 8:00 o'clock, the following 20-minute plays: "An Old Maid's Adventure," "The Henpecked Holler Gossip," and "Betty and Me." Between acts musical numbers will be given, and immediately after the entertainment there will be a jitney dance. Remember the date and everybody come. 37-8

Judge and Mrs. R. L. Bengtson departed on Wednesday for Portland to remain over the week end. They will meet their daughter and son there for the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Luola coming up from Medford where she is teaching, and Terrell from Corvallis where he is a student in Oregon State college.

Dr. Samuel Tyler, eyesight specialist of Bend, will make his next regular trip to Heppner on Sunday and Monday, Dec. 1-2. Comfortable glasses guaranteed. At Hotel Heppner. 36-37

Roy Campbell, wheatraiser of Social Ridge, was looking after business at Heppner on Monday. At that time the rain had been rather light in the Lexington section, but there was promise that more was coming.

Word received this week end by Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Barratt, announced arrival of a daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hodecker of Camas, Wash. Mrs. Hodecker was formerly Willetta Barratt.

Emil Johnson was down from his home at Hardman on Tuesday. That part of the county enjoyed a good rain on Monday night.

INSURATECTS!

Not just agents, but really insurance architects—for it is our business to plan and build for each client the policy or combination of policies which will serve him most efficiently. And, of course, that means economically, too.

"The Four Feathers"

Based on the story by A. E. W. Mason, known as "The British Bible of Courage."

Actually filmed in Africa—in the Sudan and the Tanganyika territory. Played for month in New York at $2.00 top at the Criterion Theater. Greeted by critics as one of the all-time favorites among the romance-adventure films.

"It is one of the great pictures of the year; certainly it is the greatest picture of pure action."—N. Y. Evening World.
"It is mighty in its spectacle, and packs a great thrill."—Daily News.

Sensational Scenes! Thunderous Thrills! Glamorous Romance!

Society calls him "coward." His sweetheart and his three comrades give him each a white feather—symbol of his shameful disgrace.

But he will show them the stuff he is made of! And he does show them! In the most amazing series of wild adventures a human being can encounter he redeems himself for honor and for love!

Into the lawless fastnesses of the African desert and jungle he journeys—into the strange unknown where seemingly superhuman terrors beset him at every turn. But he meets them all—wild beasts and wilder men—and wins each peril-ridden fray in the screen's greatest wonder picture of courage and gallantry.

See the mad flight of the baboons before the jungle in flames! See the attack of the ferocious hippos on the fugitive white men! See the charge of thousands of camel-riding "Fuzzy-Wuzzys" upon the little band of valiant royal troops!

So, hear and be thrilled by a veritable whirlwind of breath-taking scenes in the mightiest screen sensation of them all—

"THE FOUR FEATHERS"

With sound and music, but not a talkie.
Also Laurel & Hardy two reel comedy, WE FAW DOWN. Children 25c—Adults 50c
