

IONE

was held Thanksgiving day at the McCabe home in Ione.

A. A. McCabe has been enjoying a visit with his sister, Miss Mabel McCabe, whom he had not seen for thirty years. Miss McCabe's home is in Nebraska. Miss Janice Carmichael of Sand Point, Ida., has also been a guest in the McCabe home, she being a niece of Mr. McCabe's. Both ladies left Ione the first of this week.

Friends who were in Portland recently, and visited Gus Liebl, report that he is still quite ill. Mr. Liebl has been moved from the open air sanatorium to Emanuel hospital.

Ernest Lundell is opening a radio shop in the room east of the Independent print shop. Here Mr. Lundell will have both new and second hand radios for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howell of Heppner were Thanksgiving guests at the home of their son, Lee Howell, of this place.

Mrs. Cole Smith spent Friday and Saturday visiting relatives in The Dalles.

David Head departed last week for Cathlamet, Wash., where he expects to spend the winter.

Mrs. Hannah Ahalt left the first of this week for Toppenish, Wash., where she plans on visiting until February with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Montague.

Mrs. Earl Allen of Lostine, Ore., is here for a few weeks' stay with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Shipley. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmateer had as house guests during Thanksgiving week, Mrs. Palmateer's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beers of Estacada.

Last week Fred Nicholson who has been drilling a well on the Frank Fraters ranch in the Gooseberry country, struck water at a depth of 188 feet. The flow is especially strong, furnishing six gallons of water a minute. Mr. Fraters has had two other holes drilled on his ranch, one of them to a depth of 500 feet, without striking water.

Bill Ahalt who has been in Montana with Krebs' Brothers' sheep, returned to Oregon when the sheep were shipped home last week. Bill was calling on relatives and friends in Ione Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell, accompanied by Mrs. Ida Fletcher and Mrs. Ted Troge motored to Pendleton Friday to attend the funeral services for Mrs. Ernest Howell who died Tuesday in the Eastern Oregon Tuberculosis hospital at The Dalles. Mrs. Howell's death came following a lingering illness. She leaves to mourn her loss besides her husband, two small daughters, five and seven years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howell of Heppner also motored to Pendleton to attend the funeral of their daughter-in-law.

Coach C. M. Daniels spent his Thanksgiving vacation in Portland and Vernonia. Mrs. Hannah Ahalt visited with her daughter, Mrs. Herman Haverkost and with her son, Harold Ahalt, Saturday. Both of these families live near Rhea Sliding. E. J. Bristow and family drove to Baker to spend Thanksgiving with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Bristow. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson and Norman and Eva went to Salem to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Elmo McMillan. Dwight Misner has made several trips into Washington lately in connection with his work as auctioneer. Mr. Misner is working in conjunction with E. D. Hobson, the livestock auctioneer of Granger, Wash. George Ely and son Frances motored to Pullman, Wash., for a few days visit last week. A representative of Swift and Co. was at the Ione Market December 5 receiving turkeys for eastern shipment. Sixteen relatives and friends partook of the Thanksgiving dinner prepared and served by Mrs. John Bryson at her home on Third street. The many friends will be glad to know that Mrs. Katie Pettes who has been very ill is now on the road to recovery.

IRRIGON

The Thanksgiving program put on by the school Wednesday afternoon was attended by a majority of the parents and was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harden of Portland spent Sunday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grebell.

Lucille Wilson went as far as Ontario with Mr. Hosington where she is spending a few days with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ward from La Grande and Mr. and Mrs. Kowper from Pendleton spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiks.

Friday evening the little nine-year-old nephew of Jess Badges who arrived a week ago from Canada, passed away very suddenly. He had been having a cold and it developed into pneumonia. His heart being weak, the results were fatal. This community extends their sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Dorothy Isom who is attending Cheney Normal school spent the holidays with her parents here. Mr. and Mrs. O. Coryell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brice motored to The Dalles Saturday to attend the funeral of an old friend who had passed away.

On December 7th, at 8:00 o'clock p. m., three 20-minute plays will be presented by Rhea Creek Grange at their hall. These are entitled "An Old Maid's Adventure," "The Henpecked Gossip," and "Betty and Me." Between the plays musical numbers are to be given and immediately after there will be a jitney dance. Keep this date in mind and come.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father to summon to her Eternal Home our beloved sister, Emma Allison, who was a faithful member of Ruth Chapter, No. 32, for many years;

Be it resolved that we bow in humble submission to the will of the Omnipotent, and that we extend to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy; that we drape our charter in mourning in memory of our departed sister; that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the chapter and a copy be sent to the family and one to the press.

"There must be something after death; Behind the toll of man. There must exist a God divine, Who's working out a plan; And this brief journey that we know As life, must really be The gateway to a finer world, That some day we shall see."
