

Local Happenings

W. O. Bayless arrived home on Sunday forenoon from a trip to Denver. He recently went east with a shipment of sheep for Messrs. McNamer & Thompson, his destination being Chicago. Upon reaching Laramie, Wyo., however, the shipment was diverted to Denver. Mr. Bayless reports that he met up with no unpleasant weather on the journey, and when he left Denver there was a slight snowfall of some six inches, but the wintry conditions were beginning to prevail throughout the Rocky mountain section. He further reports that the sheep market there was none too good.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz went to Portland on Sunday, spending Monday in the city. The young men took a truck load of calves to the Portland market and the ladies drove down in the Ferguson car. An enjoyable day was spent in shopping about the city and having a visit with Mrs. O. T. Ferguson, who is in the city with the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Ferguson while the infant is receiving treatment at the Doernbecker hospital. They report that the little one is doing well and should be ready to return home before long.

Members of Willow lodge No. 66, I. O. O. F. and San Souci Rebekah lodge No. 23 will be hosts to the various lodges of these orders in the county in a big get-together meeting at their hall in this city on Saturday evening. The program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and will be followed by a pot luck supper. Any Odd Fellows or Rebekahs in the city or the county at the time will be made welcome and it is expected there will be general attendance on the part of the brethren and sisters of the Morrow county lodges.
