

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.
(Carried over from last week.)

The annual bazaar was quite a success in spite of the menace of chicken pox, postponement, Friday the 13th and various hoodoos. Everyone on the various committees worked hard. A chicken supper was served by Mrs. Nate Macomber and her able committee. The fancy work booth in charge of Mrs. L. G. Smith, Mrs. Titus and Mrs. Falter brought in a neat sum. The fish pond was the "best ever"—it was conducted by Mrs. Coats, Mrs. Gorham and helpers, and a five cent pond where grown-ups couldn't fish gave the little folks a chance. Mrs. Messenger and Mrs. Russell had the candy booth with a fine assortment of home made candies. The concessions provided amusements for the crowd and were nickel teasers. Mrs. J. F. Barlow had the museum which contained all sorts of strange things. Mrs. Guy Barlow and Mrs. Frank Cramer had the zoo which boasted even a pole cat and a butterfly. The nickel show—it did show the tumblers and the telescope through which one could see the milky way, were all under Mrs. Flickinger's care. Miss Brown had the most popular concession, "The Baby Show." At the last moment some of the babies developed chicken pox and the boys lost courage—but the babies on hand performed very realistically. Myrtle Wetherell was voted the prettiest baby. Mrs. Marschat's band made a hit. This was not the band with which she usually appears but an impromptu one. Jack Gorham said it was a shame to take the money. Mrs. Blayden had the "nigger baby" concession which has been used for years and is always popular. Jack Rainville made a fine speller for this. Miss Mildred Messenger was a most attractive gypsy fortune teller in a cleverly arranged booth. Mr. and Mrs. George Wicklander arranged this booth. Over $129 was taken in by the various departments.

The Aid wishes to thank everyone who contributed so generously of their time, their money and food for the dinner and who helped in every way to make the bazaar a success.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith and Buddy left Tuesday for Portland to visit relatives and friends for a few weeks.

The Duggans are moving this week to the Lee Mead ranch. They have been on the Falter place for the past year.

Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Edwards of Umatilla were here Friday night attending the bazaar.

Boardman again met defeat at the hands of the Umatilla quintet in a closely contested game Friday night played after the bazaar. At the call of the game both teams were even and when the tie was played off Umatilla won by four points, 16 to 20 score.

Mrs. Elva Perry is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Guy Barlow.

The McConnells of Coyote plan to spend Christmas in Portland with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Blayden are here from Spokane, guests at the Blayden home.

The Home Economics club, auxiliary of the grange, met Wednesday with Mrs. I. Skubos. With 21 present, a wonderful luncheon was enjoyed. After the luncheon hour election of officers was held. The president is appointed by the grange master, George Wicklander, who selected Mrs. Brice Dillabough for this office. Mrs. Nick Falter was elected vice, Mrs. I. Skubo was re-elected secretary, and Mrs. George Wicklander, treasurer. The next meeting will be held in January at the home of Mrs. V. H. Tyler.

Ray Brown is using crutches for a time. He had a baler block dropped on his foot.

One of the prettiest of the many parties given this winter was the announcement party Wednesday evening, Dec. 11 given by Mesdames Marschat and Titus and Misses Spike and Henry at the Marschats. "Bug" was the diversion of the evening and the game provided plenty of thrills and excitement with Miss Henry and Eldon Wilson receiving first prizes and Mrs. Coats and Royal Rands the consolation. After the game the tables were placed in a row and covers laid for a lovely lunch. Miniature loud speakers were used for place cards for the men and tiny berry-filled baskets for the ladies, with a little bride and groom before the honor guests, Helen Chaffee and Carrol Kennedy. Each favor contained a small scroll announcing the engagement of the honor guests who were showered with congratulations and advice. Attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Guy Barlow, A. T. Hereim, W. O. King, Claude Coats, Brice Dillabough, the Marschats, Mrs. Titus, the Misses Catherine Brown, Ellen Henry, Frances Spike, Helen Chaffee, Rachel Johnson, Messrs. Buster Rands, Carrol Kennedy, Alvin McCarty of Willow creek, Eldon Wilson and Deibert Johnson.

Beautiful Young Victims of Movie Studio Fire

Among the ten who lost their lives when the Pathe Talking Picture Studio in New York caught fire were these two beautiful girls. Catherine Porter (left) was only sixteen. Edna Barford, known on the stage as Virginia May, was nineteen. They were taking part in a picture which was being filmed when the flimsy scenery caught fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Uthey accompanied W. A. Price to Yakima Saturday. The Utheys will remain there for a time. Mr. Price has returned. Chicken pox is the popular malady at the present time among the youngsters. No one is very ill so it is not serious. There is thought to be one case of whooping cough on the project with a number of youngsters exposed. If your child shows any symptoms of this dread disease KEEP HIM HOME and do not spread it. Have him inoculated and it will be much easier for him. A few precautions will keep this from becoming rampant. Whooping cough is a terrible thing and is to be feared.

A number of active grange members motored to Lexington Wednesday to assist in the joint installation there. Going from here were the Rands, Myers, I. Skubos, Chas. and Geo. Wicklanders.

The Messengers and Mrs. M. K. Flickinger shopped in Pendleton Saturday.

Mrs. Ward Graves and Mrs. Ves Aitbury were in Pendleton Wednesday having dental work done.

Mrs. Clarence Johnson of Spokane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ves Aitbury, is recovering from a prolonged illness.

The old time dance given by the I. O. O. F. Saturday night was a fine success in spite of the numerous activities of the week. The Rose family played. About 40 couples attended.

Ward Graves moved this week from the Clarence Berger ranch to the Albright place recently purchased from Mr. Launtz of Portland. Shelby Graves was over from Lexington helping his parents move.

Mrs. D. W. Miller left Saturday for Portland to visit her daughter and friends for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Farley visited Joe Curran at the hospital Saturday.

Edgar Hedgren who has been at the Bates home for some time, has gone to his home in La Grande.

Alec Wilson was over Sunday from Heppner, a visitor at the Paul Partlow home.

Bob Harwood brought a load of wheat up for John McEntire.

Paul Hatch is here from Beaver-ton for the week-end. Paul who is an electrician is negotiating with the city council to lease the city light plant for a period of years. Paul is a graduate of E. H. S.

The Myers and Falter were dinner guests at the I. Skubos home Wednesday evening. They were joined later by Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Duggan, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Smith, R. Wasmer and Aage Jensen, a young man recently arrived from Denmark.

She Swings a Sledge

Mrs. Natalie Holt, the woman blacksmith of Georgetown, Mass., has mounted her forge and anvil on a motor truck and goes from farm to farm repairing tools and machinery.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shane were guests Sunday at the Ray Shane home.

"The Patsy," the high school play, will be given Friday night, Dec. 20. Advance tickets are being sold by the school children and tickets may also be purchased the night of the play for 25 and 50 cents. "The Patsy" is a play of unusual merit, well cast, with Miss Spike directing.

Earl Cramer had his finger cut quite badly in a corn sheller at the M. Mulligan place.

Dan Ransier was in Hermiston Monday. While there he called on Joe Curran.

McEntires are moving into their new house on their ranch. They have been occupying the Eck Warren house.

Chas. Wicklander has a new Chevrolet car to use in his work as grange organizer. His brother George will look after the ranch.

J. L. Jenkins is home. They will remain after several months absence. Mr. Jenkins had his ranch leased to Raymond Shane during the past year.

HARDMAN.

The play, "Who's Crazy Now," that was given by the Hardman high school was a great success. It was well attended especially by out of town people. The minstrel comedy was very successful.

The Christmas pageant given by the Hardman Sunday school Monday night was very successful. The characters were dressed very beautifully, representing the dress at the birth of Christ.

Mrs. Percy Bleakman is home during the Christmas vacation. Mrs. Bleakman is teaching near Banks.

The upper grades of the Hardman school had a Christmas poster contest. Muri Farness won first prize for the best poster. The prize was the well known picture, "At the End of the Trail."

honor guests who were showered day from Portland, where he had been visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. R. H. Stillwell.

Mrs. Retta Knighten returned from La Grande last week. She has been taking care of her sister, Mrs. Lucy Glascock who has had blood poisoning in her hand.

The little son of Mrs. Ethel McDaniel has been very ill with the scarache.

Mrs. Laura Ward and son Wilfred from Portland are visiting with friends and relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mahrt and Leah are spending the Christmas vacation in Portland.

Miss Juanita Leathers from Vancouver was a visitor in town Saturday.

Ernest Cannon was transacting business in Heppner Friday.

Roy Ashbaugh, Retta Knighten and Neal Knighten were visitors in Heppner Monday.

N. A. Clark of Eight Mile was a visitor in the city on Saturday and reports a fine lot of moisture which is of much benefit to the sown grain.

THANKS, FOLKS!

If it wasn't for the trade you folks give us we couldn't continue in business, that's all. You just bet we are mighty thankful for your patronage during 1929.

To make our business of even greater value and service to you individually and to the community at large is going to be our guiding principle in 1930.

The past year may have brought its disappointment and troubles but let's not carry them over into this year for we probably will get some nice new ones without even looking for them.

A NEW YEAR! Shouldn't we be a considerate of our monopoly on happiness and prosperity we would certainly pour out a mighty generous share for you in 1930.

—TAL—
WE COULD DO WITHOUT

The man in office could do without one meal a day, but he would not like it. The man on the farm could get along without a seed drill or corn planter—he could do his planting by hand. And a woman could get along without any labor saving conveniences in her kitchen. We men folks never hesitate to buy equipment that will save time and work. Why shouldn't we be a considerate of our wives as we are of ourselves. A built-in kitchen cabinet, new floors and a coat or two of fresh bright paint on the wood-work is what she wants—and we have 'em.

—TAL—
Be careful of too many New Year resolutions.

—TAL—
The man getting his hair cut noticed that the barber's dog had his eyes fixed on his customer. "Nice dog," said the barber. "He seems very fond of watching you cut hair." "Tain't that," said the barber. "You see, sometimes I makes a mistake and snips off a piece of a customer's ear."

Wishing You a Happy, Prosperous New Year

Fifty Years Ago

—this month Thomas A. Edison gave his first public demonstration of lighting with incandescent lamps. Special trains were run to Menlo Park, New Jersey, to care for the crowds, who wanted to see this wonderful new light.

No one man has ever given a great people so wonderful a Christmas gift. Today there is scarcely a hamlet so small that it does not receive electric service.

There is no Christmas gift as welcome today as some electrical device for use in the home. Their name is legion and there is something within the reach of almost every pocket-book.

A Definite Object

Do not save money just for the sake of saving. That isn't the idea at all. Have a definite object. Then thrift will have a new meaning to you.

Save to pay for a home; to give the children an education; to take that vacation you long for. Save to eventually have an income from your investments. Save to be able to start in business for yourself. Have some definite object in view—you can attain it. Let our bank help you.
