

IONE

MRS. JENNIE E. McMURRAY, Correspondent

Undismayed by the severe cold weather, 80 members and friends of the order gathered at Odd Fellows hall in Ione Saturday evening for the county get-together meeting of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Every lodge in the county was represented except Lexington. W. W. Head was general announcer for the evening, and the following interesting program was given: Music by Ione orchestra; vocal solo, Miss Fern Engelmann; reading, Dorothy Howell; instrumental duet, Lee Howell and Earl Blase; vocal solo, Mike Matthews; piano solo, Mildred Smith; reading, Mrs. Della Corson; orchestra; piano solos, Sybil Howell. Refreshments were served after the program, and from then to the wee small hours of the morning the friends enjoyed games and dancing.

The thermometers have been hovering near the zero mark, bringing the usual number of frozen water pipes and radiators. Tom Johnson and family, who have been living in the Louy apartments, have moved to the Jim Agee ranch.

On January 6, Virginia Griffith celebrated her eleventh birthday. Four of her friends came in at the supper hour and spent the evening playing games. Those invited were Margaret Lindken, Miriam Hale, Mildred Lundell and Mildred Kelley.

On January 8, Katherine Griffith celebrated her ninth birthday. Four of her little friends also came for supper and spent the evening with her. Those present were Eleanor Bullard, Wallace Bullard, Mary Katherine Blake and Helen Blake.

The slippery highway was the cause of three automobile wrecks near Ione on Thursday of last week. A car went into the ditch and was badly wrecked near the Frank Mason ranch on Rhea creek. The wrecker was called from Heppner to move the damaged car. We understand the driver was unhurt. A few miles below town the same day a wheel was torn from Mike Rowell's car, but no one was injured. Near town a car driven by Robert Marty of Pendleton collided with a car driven by Al Henriksen of Ione. Both cars were badly damaged and a wrecker came from Pendleton to move them. It was reported that Mr. Henriksen received some severe bruises.

A. A. McCabe attended the meeting of the Eastern Oregon Wheat league which held its annual meeting in Pendleton, January 13 to 15 inclusive.

Local Girls Lose to Umatilla

Ione's second practice game of the season was played at Umatilla Tuesday night of last week. Ione met defeat by a score of 33-18. Ione scored the first basket, but Umatilla's baskets followed in rapid succession. At the close of the first half of the game the score was 21-6 in favor of Umatilla. The Ione girls played a good game but were handicapped by having to play on a small court. They had also had only one practice after the Christmas holidays. The line-up—Ione: Gladys Brashears, Veda Eubanks, f. Josephine Healy, j. Margaret Crawford, sc. Helen Smouse, Geneva Pettyjohn, g. Lexington: Larine Lash, Agnes Thompson, f. Verna Burnes, j. Dorothy Lash, sc. Mignon Davis, Margaret Ford, g. Substitutes for Ione: Beulah Pettyjohn; Umatilla: Bernice Burnes, Gladys Connell. Following the boys' game an appetizing lunch was served to the members of the teams by the Umatilla girls. Thursday night Ione's team journeyed to Lexington to play them a return practice game. The Ione girls' basketball team has received new suits. They are made in the school colors, scarlet and white. The girls are quite proud of their suits, as they have needed new ones for some time.

Girls Lose to Lexington

The Lexington girls were victorious by a score of 16-17 in the practice game last Thursday night, when Ione met them on Lexington's floor. Veda Eubanks made the most baskets for Ione, and Mae Gentry was high scorer for Lexington. The line-up—Ione: Gladys Brashears, Veda Eubanks, f. Josephine Healy, j. Margaret Crawford, sc. Helen Smouse, Geneva Pettyjohn, g. Lexington: LaVerne White, Mae Gentry, f. Ruth Lundell, j. Nellie Davy, sc. Neva Warner, Fay Gray, g. Substitutes: Ione, Beulah Pettyjohn for Margaret Crawford; Lexington, Mary Slocum for Fay Gray and Nellie Davis. Veronica Brashears for LaVerne White.

A lunch was served to the members to the teams after the boys' game. The Ione boys' team played at Umatilla Tuesday, Jan. 7, and at Lexington, Thursday, Jan. 9, losing both games.

W. H. A. Smith returned last week after spending the holiday vacation with his daughter, Miss Marcia Smith, a teacher in the Tacoma schools. While away Mr. Smith underwent an operation or the removal of a growth on his eyes. Some time ago it was necessary for him to have a similar operation. He is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Christopherson returned Friday from an auto trip to Merced, Calif., where they visited Mr. Christopherson's parents. On the way home they visited with friends and relatives at various points. Mr. Christopherson states that he found some bad roads due to the deep snow.

The high school play, "Whose Little Bride Are You?" was given Friday night before a small audience due, no doubt, to the severe cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engelman went to Portland on Thursday of last week. They made the trip by stage.

George Ritchie was in town a few days last week. When he returned to Portland he was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Barbara Ritchie. Mrs. Ritchie has been boarding for some time at the home of Mrs. Ida Fletcher.

The missionary society of the Congregational church held an interesting meeting last Thursday afternoon. The newly elected president, Mrs. Martha Dick, led the meeting, and plans were made for the year's work. Refreshments consisting of fruit salad, cake and tea were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heinbach and daughter Dorothy of Portland were recent guests at the Louis Balsiger home on Second street.

Mrs. J. W. Howk was agreeably surprised Sunday when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith and their families came to spend the day with her. The self-invited guests brought a roasted turkey and all the fixin's for the dinner. The occasion was Mrs. Howk's birthday.

Mrs. Wrex Hicoek returned Friday to her home in Portland after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Moore. Mrs. Oscar Cochran returned home Sunday after an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Warfield, at Peck, Idaho. She was accompanied by Mrs. Warfield and little son, Charles Wayne, who will remain here for a visit with relatives and friends.

Work on the Ione-Boardman road has stopped until the weather moderates.

Norman Swanson has been quite ill with flu.

Carl Troedson returned Saturday from California, making the trip by auto. Mr. Troedson had been away several months, most of the time doing warehouse work at Santa Paula.

A. E. Feller and Larry Londergan were passengers to Portland last week. Mr. Feller went on business. Mr. Londergan went to visit his mother and sister.

David Head, a former Ione boy, has purchased the Skamokawa Eagle, a weekly newspaper published at Skamokawa, Wash. Mr. Head is a son of W. W. Head, editor of the Ione Independent. He was graduated from the Ione school with the class of '27. His many friends here wish 'em success in his new business venture.

Combining of Events

Hurts Dairy Markets

The present disastrous slump in dairy products markets has resulted from a combination of overproduction and reduced consumption of butter coupled with increased production of butter substitutes, according to the current dairy situation report issued by the Oregon Extension service.

Production of creamery butter for the first 11 months of 1929 exceeded that of the same period in 1928 by some 25 million pounds. Consumption decreased by 29 million pounds, while consumption of butter substitutes mounted by a similar amount. The federal outlook report a year ago said that a national increase of one per cent in dairy production would reach the limit of present domestic consumption.

Consumers can help the situation by taking advantage of the abnormally low prices to increase their use of wholesome dairy products, says P. M. Brandt, head of the dairy department at Oregon State college.
