

MRS. CHAS. SHAVER DIES AT IONE HOME

Nolan Page Takes Position With University of Wisconsin; Sheep Being Moved for Lambing.

By JENNIE E. McMURRAY

Mrs. Mary Shaver, wife of Charles Shaver, died at her home in Ione at 11:30 a. m. Tuesday, January 28, following an illness of two weeks duration. Mrs. Shaver had been suffering from tonsillitis, but seemed much improved and the friends who were caring for her felt that she was on the road to recovery, when death came without any warning. Mr. Shaver, who was located out from Ione, was reached with much difficulty. He left Bend Monday night and is expected to reach Ione Tuesday night. No funeral arrangements will be made until he reaches here. Besides her husband, Mrs. Shaver leaves to mourn her passing, her mother and step-father who reside in Boise, Idaho, and a sister, Mrs. Kelly, who's home is in Caldwell, Idaho. Mrs. Shaver was an active member of Bunchgrass Rebekah lodge, No. 91.
