

Local Happenings

A. A. McCabe was a visitor in the city on Wednesday from his home at Ione. The weather conditions were softening up and Lon was looking for a general thaw in the west and north ends of the county. He was accompanied to Heppner by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Allinger, who were making a short visit with their daughter, Miss Lillie Allinger.

Enjoying the tobogganing party at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben O. Anderson Sunday were the following Heppner people: Misses Angott Frigaard, Irene Riechel, Blanche Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sperry, Alfred Bergstrom, Russell Pratt, Wm. Poulson and Jasper Crawford.

Paul Marble, district manager of the Pacific Power and Light company, accompanied by Mrs. Marble, returned Sunday from Portland, where he attended the annual sales meeting of that organization. They drove between The Dalles and Heppner, finding the roads in good condition.

Mrs. Mae McPherrin, formerly employed in the Morrow county assessor's office, returned to her home in Athena after assisting with the extension of the tax roll. Because of her familiarity with the work she returns each year to help during the busy period.

Arthur Miller has returned to Heppner after a brief visit with friends in Arlington. He has not entirely recovered from acid burns received while fighting the recent fire in the Curran and Barr pool room.

Editor W. W. Head of Ione Independent, spent a few hours in this city on Wednesday, reporting that his section had been struck by warmer weather conditions, and a genuine thaw was in progress.

Victor McKenzie, hardware salesman and a prominent man in American Legion activities in Oregon, was in Heppner on business Wednesday and Thursday.

Charles Marquardt, Lexington wheat farmer, who recently purchased the Leach property below Lexington, was in Heppner Tuesday transacting business.

J. W. Becket of Portland, brother-in-law of Stacy Roberts, returned to that city Tuesday, after attending the funeral services of Mrs. Roberts Monday.

David E. Long of Portland, president of the state board of chiropractic examiners, was in Heppner Friday in connection with his official duties.

Percy Cox of Lexington came to Heppner Wednesday, obtaining poison at the county agricultural agent's office to kill off the rabbits on his farm.

Miss Jean Hinkle, after a visit of a few days in Portland, returned to Heppner, opening her school near the R. A. Thompson ranch, Wednesday.

Ed Strevlow of Ione, who has been suffering an attack of intestinal influenza, was admitted to the Heppner hospital for treatment, on Monday.

Dillard French, who came to Heppner from Gurdane Thursday, reported that they were having plenty of wintry weather in that section.

Fred Akers was in Heppner Thursday looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner drove up from their home at Salem on Saturday to attend the funeral of little Keith Turner. They returned to Salem on Monday, finding the highway open in good shape all the way, and the weather was not too cold to make travel in a closed car extremely uncomfortable.

Mrs. M. L. Curran was called to White Salmon, Wash., Friday night to attend the funeral services of her brother-in-law, Odessor Groshong, who had suffered with diabetes for some time. During her absence, Miss Helen Curran and Miss Mildred Wright had charge of her store.

Fred Tash of Arlington, a former Heppner resident, was in the city on business Monday. During his stay here he had an opportunity for brief visits with his many friends.

Gene Doherty encountered rough going coming to Heppner from Blackhorse Thursday. He had to break trail until he reached Lexington.

Mrs. Guy Barlow of Boardman arrived in Heppner Sunday to be present at the funeral ceremonies for her grandmother, Mrs. Stacy Roberts.

Orain Wright came in from his ranch on Rhea creek to do some shopping Thursday. Feeding stock has occupied most of their time of late.

Alice Keithley, who has closed the school on Blachorse because of unfavorable weather conditions, is visiting with her brothers at Eight Mile.

Mrs. Elva Perry, daughter of Stacy B. Roberts, has come to Heppner to make her home with her father and keep the house.

Emmett Smith entered the Heppner hospital Monday to receive treatment for a gathering in one of his ears.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McCabe of Ione came to Heppner to take care of business matters Wednesday.

Henry Krebs of Cecil was a caller at the office of the county agricultural agent Tuesday.

Joe Devine of Lexington came to Heppner Tuesday to market eggs from his farm.

LOCAL FIRM GETS VALUABLE AGENCY

Patterson & Son Druggists Secure Exclusive 5 Year Franchise for New and Celebrated Scientific Formula.

Local citizens who have heard of the amazing results which have been accomplished by Sargon will be interested in the important announcement that this new and scientific formula can now be obtained in this city.

Manufacturers of this revolutionary medicine have followed out the policy of selecting outstanding firms as exclusive agents in every city where it has been introduced. Leading druggists everywhere have acclaimed it as a triumph in the field of modern chemistry and have been eager to be among the first to supply it to their trade.

Never before in the history of the world has the progress of Medical Science been so rapid. One important discovery after another has been made which will have a far-reaching effect upon the health and well-being of mankind. Some of these discoveries are startling in the extreme and absolutely disprove many of the beliefs, practices and theories we have known for a lifetime.

As scientific investigators learn more and more about the human anatomy, the practice of medicine changes—the old is discarded for the new.

As a result of this world-wide medical research, Science has learned that good health is largely governed and maintained by three vital organs and fluids of the body.

What is more important, we have learned that these organs and fluids can often be aided and strengthened by certain basic elements.

Having knowledge of these important discoveries, one of America's leading bio-chemists succeeded, after two and one-half years of laboratory research, in combining many of these basic elements in one formula—which may well be considered one of the greatest health-sustaining remedies of the age. It is called Sargon. This formula and the formula for Sargon Soft Mass Pills, which are an essential and integral part of the treatment, are the property of the Sargon Laboratories and can be obtained by no other firm or individual in the world.

This new scientific treatment which represents much of our latest knowledge on modern therapy, has been acclaimed by druggists throughout America as a triumph in the field of pharmaceutical chemistry.

With the needs of their customers uppermost in their minds, leading druggists everywhere have been eager to be among the first to supply it to their trade.

The exclusive agency for Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills for this city and section has been awarded to Patterson & Son, Druggists.—(Paid Adv.)

Miss Mae Kilkenny, who was attending the University of Washington last term, came to town from the Hinton creek ranch Thursday.

Mrs. Walter Evans and Mrs. Earl Evans, who came in from the ranch Friday, reported lambing keeping all hands busy.
