

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERHEIM, Correspondent. Boardman fans saw one of the most exciting games of the season Friday night when the local boys met Heppner here. Although the score would make it seem decidedly one-sided, the game was most interesting. The Heppner boys made the local team seem like Lilliputians in comparison, but that size was a mere trifle as shown by the superior team work of Boardman high. Both sides were rough and a number of fouls were called. Eugene Mingus was high point man for Boardman.

Mrs. Mabel Miller of Seattle, who has been visiting at the Ransier home, went to Pendleton to assist in caring for some of her relatives who were ill with influenza.

W. H. Mefford, Mrs. W. O. King, Hazel Tyler and Mrs. Royal Rands have all been on the sick list the past week.

Alvie Mefford and his sister, Mrs. Ed Barlow, spent several days in the Yakima valley, going over to see Alvie's friend who was ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden were pleased to have their daughter, Mrs. Will Anderson and husband of New Plymouth, Ida., and son, Louie Blayden of Vale, with them over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ballenger of The Dalles spent the week end here. They make their home in The Dalles but still keep their former home here. On Saturday night the Ballengers entertained at a card party, having five tables of "500". Everyone had a most delightful evening.

At the call of the game, Mrs. Packard had high for the ladies and Nate Macomber for the men. Low honors went to Mrs. Lee Mead and A. T. Hereim. Present were Macombers, Spagles, Packards, Strobel, L. G. Smiths, Ray Browns, Meads, Hereims, Mrs. Dillabough, W. A. Price and Mrs. Pat Siscell, and Mrs. Sybil McMillan of Wasco who came up for the party. They and the Ballengers returned on Sunday to Wasco and The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow and Mrs. J. F. Barlow motored to Heppner Saturday.

Revival meetings will be held here beginning Sunday morning, Feb. 16, in charge of Rev. Boudenet Seely. Rev. Seely has spoken here at various times and is a fluent and able speaker. Keep the date in mind and attend. The song service will start at 7:30 each evening.

Margaret Myers was seven on February 11, and Orthon Hereim was seven the 7th, so they had a party together Friday afternoon at the school with the first and second graders for guests. After games cake and jello were served. Little baskets filled with candy and animal crackers were given the small guests.

R. B. Wilcox and family of Lexington were guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Graves, on Sunday.

The Home Economics club will give their cedar chest Saturday night, Feb. 15, at the dance.

On Sunday as Mr. Dillon was returning from Hermiston he stopped at the Graves ranch and as he started out the engine backfired and the truck caught fire. It was extinguished, however, before any damage was done.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith are home from an extended stay in Portland. They drove back in a fine new Chevrolet sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Fortier gave the third of a series of card parties on Tuesday evening at their home. There were four tables of "500" and when scores were counted it was found that Miss Katharine Brown and Glen Hadley were high and Mrs. Hadley and Mr. Rainville low. An elaborate luncheon was served by the hostess. Attending were the Roots, Spagles, Hadleys, Guy Barlows, Ray Browns, Rainvilles, Mrs. Titus and Miss Brown.

Another pleasant card party was that given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coats with four tables of "500" in play. Mrs. A. T. Hereim and Glen Hadley received the high prize and Mrs. Rainville and Ed Barlow low. Lovely refreshments were served. The guest list included the Rainvilles, Hereims, Meads, Fortiers, Hadleys, Guy Barlows, Ed Barlow and Z. J. Gillespie.

Harry Murchie has been at The Dalles hospital for the past nine weeks suffering with a badly infected foot. He had his small toe and part of his foot removed several weeks ago. The infection has spread and he may have to undergo another operation. W. A. Murchie continues about the same. He cannot see nor hear but is able to be up and about daily.

One of the most pleasant meetings of the Ladies Aid was that on Wednesday at which Mrs. Royal Rands and Mrs. Brice Dillabough entertained at the Rands home. At this meeting the tales were told of the "capsules" and some amusing incidents were related. Many who were certain they knew the identity of their capsules found themselves entirely wrong. Mrs. Flickinger read a clever original poem as did Mrs. Messenger. It was voted to continue the capsule stunt for another three months. Names will be drawn at the March Silver Tea and everyone is urged to attend. Place will be announced later. Members were pleased to have Mrs. Wilkins and Mrs. Stout, to attend; in fact, all the ladies from the Spillway attended. Mrs. Stout, Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Weston, Mrs. Hendricks and Mrs. Geo. Wicklander and Mrs. Porter. Mrs. Geo. Brown, a newcomer on the East End, was also present. Mrs. Dillabough and Mrs. Rands served a lovely lunch at the close of the meeting.

The Porter house was destroyed by fire some time Friday night. Origin of the fire is unknown but it followed a dance held there that night. This house is on one of the abandoned farms of the project and belonged to the Campbell estate. It had been used for dances this winter.

Jack Hale who lives on the Calkins place has been under the weather for the past two or three weeks.

A hen which apparently thought that spring had arrived hatched a brood of baby chicks during the bitter cold weather at the Ayers ranch. When found only three had survived as the mother hen lacked sufficient heat in her body to keep the chicks warm. The three survivors are lusty young birds and will make fine fliers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lundstrom and two children left Friday for Cascade Locks. They have lived at Coyote since last summer.

Gorhams motored to Pendleton Monday.

Mrs. W. A. Baer and three children came Thursday from Longview and will make their home on their ranch formerly the Eck Warren place. Mr. Baker is employed by the Long Bell company and will remain there. The Bakers have two children of school age, a baby of eight months. Mrs. Baker is a sister of Mrs. Bates.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hadley extended their hospitality Sunday evening when they gave a "nutty party" at their home. Everyone had an especially good time with various games, stunts and contests followed by a delicious lunch. The guest list included Messrs. and Mesdames Coats, Fortier, Humphrey, Spagle and the hosts.

E. T. Messenger and family motored to Athena on Sunday and visited at the Truman Messenger home.

W. R. Wilkins has the brooder house on his ranch completed and the family will occupy it until the ranch house is completed.

A movie sponsored by the P. T. A. was given Saturday night. Attendance was small.

Arthur Porter came home last week from a pleasant sea voyage to various points of interest in South America and California. He had a severe cold on his return and pneumonia was threatened, but by dint of excellent care it was averted.

Friends are sorry to learn that Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith are to leave the project and will make their home near Portland.

A number of changes have been made in the plans for the declamatory contest. The county has been divided into zones and each section will hold a divisional contest, the winners to go to the county contest at Heppner, April 5. The high school division contests will be held March 29 at Lexington and at Boardman. Competing with the Boardman school will be Alpine, Pine City and Irrigon. The grade sectional contests will be held on March 2 at Alpine, Heppner and Ione. At Alpine will be represented Boardman, Irrigon, Pine City and Alpine. Charges of 15 and 25 cents will be made for these contests. Instead of having word limits a time limit has been set. Division 1, 12 minutes; division 2, 8 minutes, and division 3, 6 minutes. Prize winners at Heppner will meet Umatilla county in an inter-county contest, April 19.

Ray Shane is lambing on the Crawford place and is having very good success.

Mr. Andrews who has been working on the new coal chutes at Messner left Sunday for Portland. He has just finished painting there.

Bill Harrington has had a telephone installed.

Rowells motored to Ione Saturday. The Rowells live on the Delano place.

Oppie Waggoner was a visitor on the project Sunday. He has been at Condon for some time.

It All Depends

"It is impossible for me to save any money on my present income." No doubt you have often heard such a remark. Is it true?

Well, it all depends. Most people could save SOMETHING, be it ever so small, if they would give up some of the things they lead themselves to think necessary. The trouble is, they often refuse to deny themselves. They are not willing to pay the price NOW. But most of them pay LATER, when they can ill afford to pay.
