

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gryder have come from Condon and have leased the Lee Mead ranch.

This has been a busy week from a social standpoint with several children's parties, a pre-social card party, Valentine parties and the dance given Saturday night by the Home Economics club.

One of the most delightful events of the week was the large card party given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard at their lovely suburban home. High honors went to Mrs. Martha Titus and Royal Rands, with low going to Mrs. F. A. Fortier and L. G. Smith. Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Spagle assisting. Guests were the Messrs. and Mesdames Kennedy, Hadley, Macomber, Hereim, L. G. Smith, Ransier, Faler, Strobel, Fortier, Coats, Dillabough, Bates, Spagle, Rands, R. Brown, Packard, Mr. D. W. Miller, Mrs. Titus, W. A. Price, J. C. Ballenger, R. Wasmer, Howard Packard, Katharine Brown and Norma Gibbons.

The Home Economics club gave one of the nicest dances of the season Saturday night at the school house. The local orchestra played. At ten o'clock dancing stopped while little Maxine Cooney drew numbers to see who was the winner of the cedar chest filled with lovely linens by the ladies of the club, an auxiliary of the Grange. The tenth number was held by the Columbia creamery of Portland. Andy Anderson, owner, is well known here so friends were glad he was the winner. Mrs. I. Skoubo secretary of the club, had sent him a bunch of twenty tickets and a check came back for $2 and it was one of these 20 that brought him the luck. Dancing ceased at midnight when lunch was served.

Geo. Wicklander has been ill with high blood pressure. H. V. Tyler who was quite ill is up and about. Dr. Gregson was called from Arlington on Wednesday to see him as pneumonia was feared.

On Tuesday evening a pie social was enjoyed at the church. Attendance was not very large since it was a school night, but all who came had a very pleasant evening. The pies brought good prices and were indeed delectable looking confections. Proceeds will be used as a nucleus for a fund with which to finish the basement.

Miss Ada Wilbanks was hostess at a party Thursday evening, having a group of her former schoolmates at her home for the evening. Games were played and later dancing was enjoyed, followed by refreshments. Present were George Wicklander, George Graves, John Chaffee, Dave Rose, Glen Berger, Warren Dillon, Warren Brice, Marvin Ransier, Sybil Macomber, Selma Ayers, Lena Rose, Mary Chaffee, Gloria Wicklander, Myrtle Wetherell, Margaret Smith and the hostess.

Boardman's fast little basketball team met their first defeat Friday night when they played Lexington over there. This defeat was not unexpected. Boardman had the short end of a 20-4 score. The last game of the season will be a return game with Heppner, Friday, Feb. 21, at Boardman.

Bobby Morgan of Portland who has not been well is with his grandmother, Mrs. H. H. Weston, for a time.

Mrs. H. V. Tyler was to entertain the Home Economics club on Wednesday but as Mr. Tyler was ill they met at the Hereim home. Twenty-one ladies were present and partook of the covered dish luncheon. A business meeting followed.

Each small guest received a clever little marshmallow man, a Valentine head band and a clever Valentine. Present were Maxine Cooney, Asta, Elnora, Dagmar and Erna Skobo, Ernest Tyler, Elizabeth Kristensen, Bobby and Stanley King and Harry Humphrey. The mothers enjoyed the party fully as well as the small folk. Ruth and Francine King waited table, wearing heart-shaped aprons and caps.

On Thursday Asta and Elnora Skobo, the twins of Mr. and Mrs. A. Skobo, were six years old, and a lovely party was given for them by their mother. Twin cakes were used for the centerpiece, with red and blue streamers reaching from the ceiling to the table. Little booklets were given the guests. Present were Bobby King, Elizabeth Kristensen, Harry Humphrey, Stanton Hadley, Maxine and Francine Cooney, Asta, Elnora, Dagmar and Erna Skobo and Caroline Hubbel. After school Lena and Dorothy Rose came. Mothers present were Mesdames King, Humphrey, Hadley, Cooney, Hubbel and Rose. Mrs. Kristensen was unable to attend as she had to spend her time in the dentist's chair.

Mrs. J. R. Johnson was hostess Wednesday at a charming Valentine party. Sixteen were present including the hostess, and after an afternoon of games and stunts a lovely two-course luncheon was served. Attending were Mesdames L. G. Smith, Porter, Blayden, Waite, Flickinger, Miller, Warner, J. F. Barlow, Ayers, Lottie Attebury, Alben, Messenger, Chas. Wicklander, Faler and Hereim.
