

IONE

Mrs. John Louy returned home Friday morning after a very pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Nora Holland, in Seattle.

Announcement has been received here of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bartlemay of Mays, Mrs. Bartlemay and baby are being cared for in The Dalles hospital. Mrs. M. R. Morgan returned home the first of the week after spending some time with her daughter in The Dalles.

Ten of our brother Odd Fellows journeyed to Heppner on Wednesday evening of last week to meet with the neighboring lodge. Those making the trip were E. J. Bristow, Lee Howell, George Ely, W. W. Head, Frank Lundell, Richard Lundell, Lowell Clark, Henry Clark, Bill Clark and Thure Peterson.

Jesse Daly left the first of last week for Portland. Mr. Daly, who had been quite ill, had been resting at the home of his foster mother, Mrs. M. Jordan.

John Williams has purchased a new John Deere tractor.

E. A. Lindeken is the proud possessor of a new 20 h.p. Best tractor. Mr. Lindeken is an extensive wheat farmer, doing all of his farm work by tractor power.

Paul Balsiger has been a busy salesman since his return home. He reports the following sales of Oliver tractor plows: E. A. Lindeken one four-bottom, 16 inch; Alfred Nelson two two-bottom, 18 inch; Art Turner two three-bottom, 14 inch; Groger Brothers two three-bottom, 18 inch; and George Miller one four-bottom, 14 inch.

Emil Swanson now owns a palatial mansion on wheels which will be moved shortly to his ranch northeast of town to be used as a domicile for his tractor crew.

The Civics club of the high school has started work on the play, "Deacon Dubbs," which will be given in the near future.

Mrs. Katie Petteys is quite ill.

Mrs. Victor Rietmann returned Sunday from a business and pleasure trip to Portland.

Revival services will begin Sunday evening, Feb. 23, in the Christian church in Ione under the efficient leadership of Rev. C. L. Fessler, former pastor of the church at North Bend. Rev. Fessler is an interesting speaker and good singer, being song leader for the Teddy Leavett gospel team. Come out and hear him. It is necessary for Mr. Leavett to undergo a throat operation. As soon as he is sufficiently recovered he will come to Ione to assist in the services.

A pleasant party was held Saturday evening at the Ralph Akers home on First street in honor of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller. Twenty or more friends and well-wishers of the newweds were present, and the bride was given many beautiful gifts. Music and games were enjoyed and at the close of a very happy evening delicious refreshments were served.

A ten pound baby girl was born Friday, Feb. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. Ned Carr. The baby has been named Marjory Alice. The mother and daughter are at the home of Mrs. M. Jordan on Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Swanson motored to Salem on Saturday, returning Sunday. On the return trip they were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Elmo McMillan and their little grand daughter, Beverly June, who will visit here for some time. Their son, Garland, also returned with them. He has been a student in a school of aviation at Salem, but will now take charge of the tractor on his father's farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson and two children returned the first of last week from a very pleasant visit with Mrs. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Anderson, and her brothers and sisters in Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dobyns who were looking after the Peterson ranch during their absence have returned to the Herb Olden ranch.

Paul Balsiger has received word that his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koehring of Indianapolis, Ind., are the proud parents of a daughter. Mrs. Paul Balsiger is still with her daughter in Indianapolis, but will leave shortly for Greenville, Illinois, for a brief visit with her mother, Mrs. Mange, after which she will return to her home here.

Kenneth Smouse, Earl McCabe, Mildred Smith and Mary Healy of the Ione high school were four of the more than seven hundred delegates to have the privilege of participating in the campus party at Oregon State college at Corvallis, Feb. 14 and 15. The outstanding addresses of the meeting were by Dr. Alfred Atkinson, president of Montana State college, and Miss Helen Bennett, manager of the Chicago collegiate bureau of occupations. While in the college city our two girls were guests of Miss Janet Carlson at Waldo hall, and the two boys and Principal Earle A. Brown, who accompanied the delegation, enjoyed the generous hospitality of Theta Beta Nu fraternity. The four young folks will give a report of their trip, probably Friday at the school house.

METHODIST CHURCH.
Sunday school 9:45 a. m., preaching at 11. Message by Rev. Mr. Canaday. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Preaching, Rev. Mr. Canaday. A good interest has been manifested in the meeting during the last week. Mr. Canaday was a vaudeville singer for a number of years. He now sings the gospel message in the spirit and his voice has been a blessing to multitudes. He will preach at both services Sunday and each night during the week except Saturday. Don't miss this special opportunity of hearing him.

F. T. A. TO MEET.
The Lexington Parent-Teachers association will hold its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the school auditorium. Rev. Stanley Moore will speak on the Boy Scout movement. Miss Edith J. Stallard, Morrow county health nurse, will speak. Mrs. Lavilla Howell and Mrs. Lester White of the Lexington grade school will speak on "Art in the School." A dramatization of the "Mad Hatter" scene from "Alice in Wonderland" will be presented by the third and fourth grades under the direction of Miss Helen Wells.

GIRLS' WORK PRAISED.
Friends at Heppner are in receipt of a program recently given in the high school auditorium at Laguna Beach, Calif., wherein Marjorie Gowan, pupil of Holly Lash Visel, was featured in recital. Marjorie, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Gowan, was highly complimented by the Laguna papers as a reader of rare ability. Mrs. Frank P. Gowan was formerly Miss Hazel Hale of Heppner, and her former friends here are pleased to note the progress her young daughter is making as a reader.

DR. GRAY MOVES OFFICE.
Dr. A. B. Gray, who has maintained his office in the Odd Fellows building, moved today to new quarters in the Heppner hotel building. This office is located on the ground floor on the Willow street side of the building, just east of the Farmers and Stockgrowers bank.

JESUS, THE MARVELOUS MAN.
The above title tells of the Sunday morning sermon at the Church of Christ. The evening topic will be, "Is the Bible Scientific?" Bible school at 9:45. Be on time. Christian Endeavor at 6:45.
MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

Political Announcements

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.
I hereby announce myself for the office of County Commissioner of Morrow County, subject to the will of the voters of the Republican party at the May Primaries.
GEORGE W. DYKSTRA.
(Paid Adv.) Heppner, Ore.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.
This is to announce that I will be a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the will of the voters of Morrow County, at the Primary elections, May 16th, 1930. I wish to thank my friends, both republican and democratic, for their generous support in the past, and hope I have proved worthy of their confidence.
LEON W. BRIGGS,
(Paid Adv.) present incumbent.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE.
To the Voters of Morrow County:

Bill Der Says
FEB 22

George Washington
George Washington "discovered" cherries!
Bill Der knows how to save your cherries!
George Washington ne'er told a lie: "And neither," says Bill Der, "did I!"
o-o-o

Washington's birthday stands thruout the world as a symbol of truth and honesty. And since this business is based on truth and honesty, plus good service and sensible prices for our first-class merchandise, we look upon February 22 as a day of real celebration.
