THE 4-H CLUBS.

It would be difficult to name any single influence which is doing more for the development of the young men and young women of America into useful citizenship than the 4-H club movement. This year it is estimated that there will be more than ten thousand 4-H clubs organized in the United States. As the minimum number of members of a 4-H club is five, that means 50,000 boys and girls engaged in intensive, competitive effort for self-improvement in the fields which the four "H's" stand for—Head, Heart, Hand and Health.

At present there are eight different classes of competition around which the 4-H clubs are formed; corn, wheat, calves, pigs, sheep, for the boys and canning, cooking, and sewing for the girls, although there have been and still are many girl members of the grain and livestock clubs. If they did nothing more than train these young folk in the most modern methods the clubs would be doing a great and valuable service, but they go farther than that. They teach the elements of team-work, which in the future, even more than in the past, will be the key to successful farming, and they inculcate the principles of good sportsmanship in teaching the unsuccessful competitors to be good losers. More important than those, even, is the stress laid upon exact cost-accounting. The boy who has learned by his own 4-H club records just what it cost to grow a quarter-acre of corn or to raise a calf is going to be a better business man when he runs his own farm than most farmers are today. And farming is on its way to be more of a business and less of a gamble than it has been.

There are still many rural communities in the United States in which there are no 4-H clubs. Such communities are backward by comparison with those which have encouraged the development of this practical and productive method of helping the boys and girls to grow into better and healthier men and women.

Uncle Si Tinkiepaugh says he's noticed that with all the talking folks do about the weather nobody seems to be doing anything to change it.

Most people learn by their own experience. Wise men are those who learn by the experience of others. And a fool is one who keeps on making the same old mistakes.

CALF CLUB ORGANIZED.
Nine boys and girls living in the Gooseberry section have organized a 4-H calf club and have named it Standard 4-H Calf club. Officers have been elected and plans made for raising their calves. Children taking part in this project are raising eight Holstein calves and one Guernsey calf. Members of the club are Raymond Drake, Donald Drake, Joyce Carlson, Clifford Carlson, Arthur Bergstrom, Elaine Nelson, Theodore Thompson, Donald McElligott and Raymond Lundell.

JESUS TEACHING ABOUT HIMSELF

Matthew 11:2-6; 25-30

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.

Telling the truth can make a lot of trouble, though one does not regret that he was absolutely honest in standing steadfast for the right. John the Baptist was bold in denouncing sin wherever he found it, regardless of the social standing of the sinner. When Herod Antipas became involved with the wife of his brother Philip, John denounced the perfidy and said, "Thou shalt not have her." Though John had plenty of time to reverse his opinion, while a prisoner of Herod in the castle Nacherus, no waiver was uttered. Herodias was after the man that presumed to speak against her actions and called for John's head on a platter when her daughter Salome out-danced the professionals at the party.

Most refer to the discouragements of John during this period in the prison. Confine anyone and mental distress will follow. John looked for a fiery Messiah and Jesus was a gentle man who gave himself to unobtrusive teaching. To settle the matter the Baptizer sent a number of his loyal disciples to the Man in the midst of His ministry in Galilee and asked if He really was the One John thought He was when he said a year and more before, "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world."

As the inquirers drew near Jesus was in the midst of His healing and teaching. The Oriental would be apt to observe a while rather than abruptly ask his question. The formal reply that Jesus gave was to go back to John and tell him all that they had seen and heard. The

IRRIGON

Mrs. Leola Beavert and brother Bert Benefield went to Athena Wednesday to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Will Bohrer.

Mrs. O. Coryell, who has not been well for some time, became worse Sunday and was taken to The Dalles hospital Monday. It is feared she may have to undergo a second operation.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frederickson was taken to the Hermiston hospital Monday for treatment. Complications set in after an attack of the flu.

The regular meeting of the Irrigon grange was held Wednesday evening with quite a large attendance. Several new members were given the third and fourth degrees. Mr. and Mrs. Wicklander of Boardman, the assistant county organizer, and Chas. Wicklander, master of Boardman grange, were present with Chas. W. Smith, county agent from Heppner. Several interesting agricultural questions were discussed as was the program for the Pomona meeting, April 5, which will be held at Irrigon.

Earl Bessel was a Sunday visitor at the W. C. Isom home.

Agnes Kendler of Umatilla, who is attending the Northwestern business school at Spokane, and is home for a short stay, visited with Dorothy Isom Saturday afternoon.

Quite an epidemic of flu has been in evidence the last three weeks. The Frederickson family are about recovered, also the Smith family. Those on the sick list are Mrs. Burchett and little grandson, and two daughters, Dorothy and Donald Isom, and Mrs. W. C. Isom who was taken down Sunday.

Russell McCoy was a week-end visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. McCoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Oliver were Hermiston visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Markham visited in the McCoy home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaman, our former depot agent, visited friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Berry and family of Umatilla spent Sunday with Mrs. Berry's mother, Mrs. E. McCoy.

The regular meeting of the Home Economics club was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Leicht Thursday afternoon. Those present were Mrs. W. C. Isom, Mrs. Alfred Houghton, Mrs. Geo. Haskell, Mrs. Jess Oliver, Mrs. Bert Dexter, Mrs. Jean Dexter, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. Roscoe Williams and Mrs. Frank Brace. A drill team was organized at the request of the grange master, Frank Brace, to handle the third and fourth degree work. The question of improving the cemetery by setting trees and shrubbery was discussed and a committee appointed to go over the grounds and plan the work which will be done soon. At the close of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Chas. Benefield is visiting friends in Lexington a few days.

Joe Pickett, who has been visiting at the home of his father-in-law, Chas. Benefield, took his daughter Joice to Portland for a few days visit with her mother.

Pupils College Guests At Educational Event

Earl Wattenberger, Naomi Moore and Peggy Thompson of the Pine City high school, accompanied by Milton W. Bower of Heppner, attended the 1930 educational exposition held at Oregon State college, Corvallis, last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Bower reported the exposition of much interest and benefit.

The exposition is held annually at the college to give high school students aid in vocational guidance. Educators from various colleges and universities are obtained to aid in carrying out this work. The various schools and departments of the college give demonstrations and arrange exhibitions to give visiting students some idea of the courses offered. Part of the time of the exposition is devoted to entertainment and social activity.

message about the Kingdom

continued to be the same and every type of miracle was wrought. These marvels were as credentials to authenticate the teachings. The climax of the reply was "and the poor have good tidings preached unto them." That was a day when the poor might fall in getting even the crumbs from the table of the rich man. The Nazarene was the Man for all and He could satisfy their every need. The reply must have been satisfying to the prisoner, else Jesus would not have answered him that way.

It is likely that Jesus evaluated John to His disciples even as He did to the multitude after their departure. Read verses 7-19. Though John is placed so high because of his relationship as the Forerunner of Jesus, each one of us has a greater position because of our more extended knowledge of our Saviour.

Following the uplift of prayer, (Verse 25) Jesus made declaration of the oneness between Himself and the Father. There was no difference in power. Between both there was the most perfect understanding, for Jesus was so often misunderstood as John had been. Jesus knew the human heart perfectly, with all its needs, problems and sorrows. He understood that they had "labor and are heavy laden." Without any qualification he said to ALL, "Come unto me—and I will give you rest." All who have accepted the invitation have experienced "And ye shall find rest unto your souls."

Such blessed promises are naturally related to conditions. To receive we are first to be yoke-fellows with Jesus and learn of Him, Who is meek and lowly in heart. Under those conditions the "yoke" is a means to service rather than a burden.

Carrot Pie is Latest Oregon Food Delicacy

"Pumpkin" pies made of carrots were served to members of the Oregon Cooperative council at the annual banquet in Eugene. Until told of the change later by J. O. Holt, president of the council and manager of the Eugene Fruit Growers association, the diners could detect no difference.

The reason for using carrots, Holt explained, is simply that one national pie maker advertised, "Eat carrot pie for health and complexion," and said out all he could make. The council continued Holt as president and George O. Gatlin of Oregon State college as secretary. Glen B. Marsh of Hood River and C. W. Laughlin, Astoria, were named vice-presidents.

Robert Wightman, W. W. Smead, Jasper Crawford and Chas. Thomson motored to Pendleton Monday evening, where they attended the district convention of Knights of Pythias for Umatilla county.
