TOO WEAK TO HOLD JOB, SAYS MORROW

"I was so rundown I had to quit my job, but 6 bottles of Sargon gave me an 11 pound gain in weight and I'm ready to tackle the job again."

E. S. MORROW

"I had indigestion so bad that I could hardly eat anything. I suffered with bilious dizziness and finally had to give up entirely. I was so weak and rundown, Sargon proved a powerful strengthener for me, and put me back on my feet feeling like a new man. I am eating anything I want and my digestion is better than it has been in years. Sargon Pills ended my biliousness, straightened out my liver and didn't gripe or sicken in anyway."—E. S. Morrow, 422 2nd St., Portland.

PUZZLE SECTION.

How many times can 11 be subtracted from 99?

A blind man saw it, a legless man ran after it, a man with no arms shot it, a deaf man eulogized it. What is it? See answer at bottom of last column.

Roses are red Pears are not plums When you think of building See the Tum-A-Lum.

All winter we talked about insulating against the cold, now that summer is approaching we will start talking about insulating against heat. It works all year round for your comfort. S'funny—the more insulation we sell the less coal you will buy. Why do we try to sell it?

A house to house salesman says he owes his success to his first four words he says when a woman answers the door. Which are, "Is your mother in?"

Say boy, I've got a girl that has only been kissed by two parties. Yeah, I know them kind, by the Republicans and Democrats.

Barney Devlin was in town after lumber to fix up for lambing. His sheep are on the Wm. Instone place in Jones canyon.

11 can be subtracted as many times as you want.

Answer to puzzle: It ain't anything, we just made it up.
