Charles HALL Republican
FOR GOVERNOR

A Proven Business Executive and a Leader in the Progress of Oregon.

Such is The Man Charles Hall. Attracted by the country, he came to Oregon when a young man just out of his teens. His first job was with a pick and shovel on the digging of a pipe line. Upon acquiring sufficient funds, he returned East and entered the University of Michigan. Coming back in 1906, he located at Hood River and from then on his progress was rapid . . .

Write to The Hall Headquarters, Imperial Hotel, Portland, for booklet giving the interesting life story and the platform of the man who as a proven business executive and a leader in the progress of Oregon will give our state the kind of administration it needs.
