

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hedrick and little daughter arrived on Monday evening from Medford. Mr. Hedrick being on his way to Spokane to attend the meeting of the Inland Teachers' association, for which point he departed Tuesday forenoon. Mrs. Hedrick and daughter remained at Heppner and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sweek. For three years Mr. Hedrick was with Heppner schools as superintendent, going from here to Medford five years ago where he has been instrumental in perfecting one of the finest school systems in the state. He will continue as superintendent there the coming year. The Medford system is much larger than Heppner's, there being an enrollment of some 3600 pupils under Mr. Hedrick's supervision. Many friends at Heppner were pleased to greet Mr. and Mrs. Hedrick on their first visit to the city since leaving for Medford.

Chas. Marquardt and family of Lexington were visitors in the city on Monday afternoon, being here during the heavy downpour of rain. This shower was evidently intended for Heppner and immediate surrounding country, as it failed to reach as far as Lexington, and other parts of the county were passed up also. Mr. Marquardt says that his wheat is growing very nicely now, and the Lexington farmers would have appreciated getting a part of the surplus rain that struck Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. White of San Francisco, Cal., arrived in Heppner Sunday after motoring from the California city, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Nickerson. Mrs. White is a sister of Mrs. Nickerson. They will remain here a week or more. The Whites plan on locating in Western Oregon where Mr. White will follow his profession, that of teaching school.

Mrs. Sylvia Lloyd of Waitsburg, Wash., was called to Heppner on Monday by the death of Albert Williams, a friend of many years standing. Mr. Williams spent several years at Waitsburg, and during this time he worked for the family of Mrs. Lloyd and was held by them in high esteem. Mrs. Lloyd returned home on Tuesday afternoon by the Pendleton stage.

J. H. Cochran, in Heppner Monday from his wheat ranch near Ione, reported his wheat growing nicely as a result of the warm weather of the last two weeks. He expects Mrs. Cochran to be well recovered from her recent operation in a few weeks. She is now at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Holmes Holman, in Yakima, Wash.

Richard Peterson drove over from his home near Kimberley on Friday, spending the most of Saturday here looking after business. He reports the roads a little rough across the country, but quite passable. Spring has arrived in the Kimberley section and everything is looking fine, states Mr. Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Cox of Hinton creek enjoyed a visit of some two weeks from their daughter, Mrs. Reginald Clark of Corvallis. Mrs. Clark departed on Saturday for her home, after the pleasant season of visiting with her Morrow county relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wells entertained at their home over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wells and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schiffler of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Knotts of Pilot Rock. Mrs. Knotts is a sister of Mrs. Wells.

Claude Cox left on a trip to Monument Monday afternoon, expecting to be absent from the city for nearly a week. He will endeavor to develop a cream route in that direction.

Cleo Drake was a visitor in the city from Ione Tuesday.

Russell Pratt drove to Portland Friday evening, accompanied by the Misses Helen Curran and Blanche Hansen, who returned to Heppner with him Sunday evening. Mr. Pratt took Mrs. Pratt from a Portland hospital to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Roth who reside in Salem. Mrs. Pratt is much improved in health.

Judge and Mrs. R. L. Bengtson returned from Portland on Sunday evening. Mrs. Bengtson had been with their daughter, Miss Luola, teacher in the Medford schools, for some weeks, while she was recovering from an attack of scarlet fever. Miss Bengtson is fully recovered and has returned to her work in the school room.

Dr. and Mrs. Mark A. Leach of Pendleton were over for the funeral of Millard F. Parker at Lexington on Tuesday afternoon. They visited for a short time in Heppner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdock before returning to Pendleton.

Leonard Carlson and family were Saturday visitors in Heppner from their home in the Gooseberry section. Mr. Carlson reports wheat coming along rapidly since warmer weather conditions prevail.

George N. Peck, candidate on the republican ticket for commissioner, was in town a short while Tuesday morning. Mr. Peck is a busy man on the farm just now, getting the spring plowing over with.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, Morrow county school superintendent, left Heppner Tuesday morning to attend the Inland Empire Teachers association meeting at Spokane, Wash.

Leo Gogger, extensively engaged in wheatraising in the north Ione country, was looking after business in Heppner on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Poulson, Miss Miriam McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gordon, Mr. and Mrs.

Gerald Brunson and James T. Lumley spent Sunday picnicking in the mountains.

Mrs. W. E. Walbridge, who has large property interests in Heppner, Mrs. Gertrude Nash and children Edith and Frank, were here from Pendleton on a visit Saturday. Mrs. Nash has been teaching there for 13 years, and will be principal of the Hawthorne school in that city next year.

Dr. Clarke of the Clarke Optical Co., 326 1/2 Washington St., Cor. 6th, Portland, EYESIGHT SPECIALISTS, will be in Heppner, all day and evening, Sunday and Monday, April 13 and 14, at the Heppner Hotel. SEE HIM ABOUT YOUR EYES.

Frank Fraters was in town a short time Tuesday afternoon Spring plowing is all the rage out his way just now, plows going at a lively rate in most every field.

Mr. and Mrs. George McLaughlin of Lone Rock left Heppner Saturday evening for Portland, with their son Clarnel, for whom they sought medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neill and daughter were visitors here on Saturday, being interested in the declamatory contest of the afternoon and evening.

The Jack DeVore ranch of 828 acres was sold to Uzz French for $5600 in a sheriff's sale held at the Morrow county court house Saturday.

Judge R. L. Bengtson left for Portland Wednesday morning, where he will enter a hospital to receive medical attention.

The exterior of the Pacific Power and Light company store was brightened up Tuesday with a fresh coat of paint.

Jas. Higgins was in the city on Monday from down Pine City way, where he is engaged in running sheep.

Michael Healey and family spent several hours in the city on Saturday from their home on Rhea creek.

Charles H. Latourell again captured prizes at trapshooting Sunday, winning a hat and fishing rod as first place winner in both class A events of the Rieth-Pendleton Gun club shoot at the Collins park traps. Ben Patterson won a second prize in one of the events. Shooting his first 25-straight birds at the local traps, Latourell made it a 100-straight for the day by breaking his first 75 birds over the Pendleton traps.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Palster returned to Heppner Saturday. Mr. Palster has been receiving medical treatment for his feet in Portland. His condition is much improved, but he does not plan to return to his position as manager of the local MacMarr store for some time. He is contemplating a vacation in the mountains.

Dr. A. B. Gray, county health officer, was at the Boardman school Tuesday inoculating pupils with immunization serum to aid in the control of whooping cough in that section. The serum is said to prevent taking of the disease and to shorten the period of illness if it has been contracted.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lovgren are the parents of a 9-pound son, born Sunday at their home near Eight Mile.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Moyer are the parents of an 8-pound son, who arrived Sunday.

Robert Knighten Dies at Home Near Hardman

Robert A. Knighten who died at his home near Hardman, March 29, had reached the age of 64 years, 11 months and 18 days. He was born in Forest Grove on April 11, 1865. He moved with his parents from Forest Grove to Waitsburg, Wash., when still a child.

In 1885 they moved to Eight Mile and he had made his home in Morrow county most of the time since. He was married in the late 80's to Iona Shaner, who died about a year later. His second marriage was to Maggie Compton. To this union the following children remain to mourn his passing: James A. Knighten, Charles W. Knighten and Louis E. Knighten of Hardman, Frederick Knighten of Pendleton, Edgar A. Knighten of Monument, and Myrtle Inel of Oregon City. Other survivors are two sisters, Mrs. M. E.
