

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sweek and son Jack, and S. E. Notson motored to Pendleton and return Wednesday. Mr. Sweek, president, and Mr. Notson, a member of the Bar Association of the Sixth Judicial district, attended a meeting of that organization. Mr. Sweek, succeeded by Judge I. M. Schanep of Pendleton as president, was elected delegate to the convention of the Oregon State Bar association. Mr. Notson was elected vice president of the association.

Lowell Sturdevant, who has been employed in the Richard Wells' barber shop for some time, is planning on leaving Heppner in the near future for he is contemplating the purchase of a shop of his own. Ray H. Baker of Portland, who spent his boyhood days near The Dalles, will replace Mr. Sturdevant. Mr. Baker and Mr. Sturdevant are handling the work of the shop until Saturday night while Mr. Wells is taking a few days' vacation.

M. C. Merrill of Monument has been spending a few days in Heppner this week, while perfecting arrangements to start operating a truck line between that place and here. It will be a part of Mr. Merrill's work to gather up cream shipments from his section for Morrow County Creamery company, which is making a lively bid for the butter fat of the Monument and Kimberley sections and the territory intervening.

Horace Addis, representative of the Oregon Farmer, has been in Heppner and Morrow county all week obtaining material for his publication. He has visited a number of the farmers here. He was particularly impressed with the cost accounting system used by the Hynd brothers. Wednesday evening he attended the meeting of Lexington grange.

Jason Biddle, Rhea creek farmer, reports that he has finished with the spring plowing. Grain is coming along now quite well, and all vegetation growing rapidly. With showers coming occasionally, and a big rain or two thrown in, the crop prospects have been improved. Mr. Biddle was looking after business here on Monday.

Tom O'Brien, Pine City sheepman, was looking after business in Heppner the first of the week. He reports a fine lambing season, and there has been plenty of green feed. The past week or so has been spent in irrigating the alfalfa fields while there is a good run of water in Butter creek.

Glen Boyer of Courtrock, according to word received by Heppner friends, is confined to the Prairie City hospital, having had the misfortune of breaking his leg in three places. Meager reports received indicate that the accident happened in connection with an automobile or team.

Attorney Jos. J. Nys and family returned home on Tuesday evening after an absence of several days. Mr. Nys was called to Portland on business, following which he motored on to Salem where he and Mrs. Nys and the children enjoyed a few days visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Fred E. Farrior of Pendleton visited in this city over the week-end. While here, Mrs. Farrior made a sale of her residence property in Heppner to F. B. Nickerson. The residence has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stone since Dr. Farrior and family moved to Pendleton.

Dean T. Goodman and family returned from Portland on Sunday. They were called to the city to attend the celebration of the 83rd birthday of A. J. Goodman, father of Dean, which occurred on Saturday. The event was the occasion for a family reunion.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers returned to Heppner Sunday after attending the convention of the Inland Empire Teachers association at Spokane, Wash. The trip from Umatilla was made with Miss Edith Stallard, who motored there to meet her.

Egbert Young, who farms near Liberty school house on Eight Mile, was a visitor here on Friday afternoon. He has no complaint to make as to conditions of grain in his section.

Dwight Misner, one of the big wheat farmers of Ione, was looking after business in this city on Tuesday.

Gene Mikesell has a broken nose, the result of an accident Friday evening when he collided with Billy Cox, while in pursuit of a baseball at a school picnic held at the forks of Willow creek. The blow of the impact rendered Gene unconscious for several hours.

Mrs. Josephine Mahoney went to Portland Sunday on a combined business and pleasure trip. The trip to the city was made with C. J. D. Bauman and J. J. Wightman, who were en route to a Masonic meeting in Corvallis.

Joe Hughes, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Healy, Mrs. D. McNamee and daughter Ann, motored to The Dalles Tuesday to visit Tom Hughes, who is in the sanitarium in that city. The party returned to Heppner Wednesday.

A new adding machine has been added to the equipment of the county school superintendent's office. The old machine had become old and obsolete, and would no longer do accurate work.

Mrs. Polly Church departed for her home at Dee, the first of the week. She had spent the past winter in Heppner and is returning to Dee to care for her place there.

For Sale—3-plate Hotpoint automatic electric range. Also electric water heater with all fittings necessary for installation; a bargain. Lester Doolittle, phone 493. 51f.

Mrs. Mabel Brumbach of The Dalles, daughter of the late Mrs. Hattie Kinney, was in Heppner Wednesday attending to matters of the estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wells motored to Pendleton Wednesday afternoon to visit with friends. They expect to be gone over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hanshaw were visitors in Heppner Saturday, coming from their home in Pendleton.

Frank Elder of Umapine was a visitor in Heppner on Wednesday.

"Mother Machree," Star theater, Sunday and Monday.

School Worker Praises Fine Institute Program

That the meeting of the Inland Empire Teachers association, held last week at Spokane, Wash., was the most interesting and instructive teachers' institute she had ever attended, was the report of Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, county school superintendent, upon her return to Heppner Sunday. The organization is the largest of its kind in the northwest. More than 3000 teachers were in attendance at the sessions. Speakers and their addresses considered outstanding by Mrs. Rodgers, were: Dr. William F. Russell, Teachers college, Columbia university, "Education and American Ideals;" James E. Rodgers, president National Playground association, "The New Day and the New Education;" Lewis Brown, author and lecturer, writer of "Why Are Jews That Way?" "Credulous America" and "Can We Do Without Religion;" A. R. Brubacher, president State Teachers college, Albany, N. Y., "Quantitative Efforts in Education;" James M. Glass, Rollins college, Florida, "Junior High Schools;" and C. A. Howard, state superintendent of schools of Oregon, "Vocational Education in the Rural State."

SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE

FRIDAY-SATURDAY, APRIL 18-19:

Hal Skelly, William Powell, Fay Wray in
"BEHIND THE MAKE-UP"

Based on the famous story, "The Feeder" by Mildred Cram. Here is the ultimate in romance-drama—a pulsating play of human loves and hates. Hear Skelly sing his two great songs, "Little Pale" and "Never Say Die." All-talking-singing-dancing.

Also Taylor Holmes in HE LOVED THE LADIES, two-reel comedy.

SUNDAY-MONDAY, APRIL 20-21:

Belle Bennett in

with Neil Hamilton and Victor McLaglen and all star cast. Even as the song has sung its way into the hearts of every race, so does the picture capture the heart of the world. Earth's graest miracle—Mother Love—at last portrayed in all its flaming beauty, with Irish wit to ease he sympathetic tears. A silent picture, but its technique is so superb you will never miss the dialogue. A picture to stir the heart and become a treasured memory.

Also two reel talking comedy.
