Mr. and Mrs. Jos. B. Snyder arrived at Heppner on Tuesday from Grangeville, Idaho, where they have been living for the past three years. After spending a couple of days here, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder motored on to Seaside where they will reside for the summer at least. For years Mr. Snyder was employed at the shoe store of E. N. Gonty in this city, and is left here for the Idaho city to engage in the shoe business.

The home economics club of the Lexington grange was entertained last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Harry Dinges. A social hour was conducted, with the serving of refreshments following. Guests for the meeting were Mrs. Archie Nichols, Mrs. Joe Devine, Mrs. Myles Martin, Mrs. R. B. Wilcox, Mrs. John Graves, Mrs. Merle Miller, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. George White and Mrs. Alfred Nelson.

Mrs. Elbert Cox, who is confined to St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, is reported slightly improved in condition. Seven blood transfusions have been made in an attempt to better her condition. Mrs. Earl Gilliam was the donor for three transfusions, her husband, Elbert Cox, for three and Mrs. Ralph Bengt for one. The last transfusion was made Monday.

John Maidment, Lone Rock sheep man, was looking after business here on Thursday last. It has been several years since John made his old trading point a visit, and he noted that there had been quite a change in the appearance of the little city in the meantime. He reports range conditions good over his way and stock doing well.

Nels M. Johnson, farmer and stockman of lower Gooseberry, was a business visitor here on Monday. He had just finished with the shearing of his sheep and was hoping that the weather conditions did not turn too stormy and cold. Grain in his vicinity is coming along well, thanks to the many good showers of May.

Two bands of sheep are leaving the D. O. Justus ranch this week for the summer range in the high mountains. John Turley, who has been at the Justus ranch for some weeks, will have charge of one of the bands for the summer and the sheep will be ranged in the vicinity of McEwen, Baker county.

Erik Bergstrom, pioneer wheat-raiser of the Gooseberry section, was a visitor in Heppner on Monday. He reports wheat doing well, and remarked to the editor of this paper that it was a little unusual to have so much wet weather during the month of May, but of this fact he was not complaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Luper motored up from Salem on Friday, spending the day here and at the Emil Groshen ranch on Rhea creek. Mr. Luper, who is state engineer, maintains his voting residence at Heppner while holding down a job at the state capitol, and he came here to cast his ballot.

Mrs. J. D. Callaway returned to Heppner during the week after spending the winter at Corning, Cal. at the home of her mother, Mrs. Rogers. Coming to Heppner, she made the journey by train to Klamath Falls, where she was met by her son, Charles Henry, who drove to that city.

William Meidinger, who was principal of the Hardman high school two years ago, visited friends in Heppner and Hardman last weekend. Since leaving Hardman he has been superintendent of the Dufur schools, to which he will return next fall to start his third year there.

Mont Bundy, wheat-raiser of the Alpine country, was looking after business here Monday. He reports many good showers out his way and lots of weeds in the wheat that will help to keep down production somewhat in accord with the desires of the national farm commission.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Devin and daughter, Nellie Larson, of Bend, were visitors at the home of Mr. Devin's brother, S. P. Devin, Tuesday. During their stay here they made a trip to the artesian well. Mr. Devin is connected with the state traffic department.

A. A. Amort of Seattle visited here for a day with Mrs. Rebecca Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Patterson. He was on his way to points in Montana, Idaho and eastern Washington. Mr. Amort is with the Shell Oil company at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Cash, accompanied by children, Phyllis Jane, Robert and Richard, motored to Walla Walla, Wash., Friday, where Mrs. Cash's mother, Mrs. J. A. Wetzel, is ill. Mr. Cash and the boys returned to Heppner Sunday.

Geo. J. Currin of Gresham, formerly extensively engaged in the stock business and owning one of the largest ranches in Morrow county, arrived here on Friday, spending a few days in the city while looking after business affairs.

C. J. D. Bauman, county sheriff, motored to Portland Monday, accompanied by Miss Edith Stallard, county nurse. They returned Tuesday evening, accompanied by Elbert Cox, who has been with Mrs. Cox during her illness.

Creed Owens is taking the Krebs brothers sheep to Montana for summer range. He plans to return before July 1 to take over the stage run to Hardman.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bell of National City, Cal., are being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Latourell.

Miss Velma Huston, who during the past year has been teaching at the Liberty school, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Moyer since Tuesday evening. She will teach at the Rhea creek school next year.

Engineers of the Standard Oil company were making a survey of the Ashbaugh property on Main street Monday. It is stated that the company has purchased this lot and will erect a filling station on the corner.

Sheriff Melvin Logan of Gilliam county was a caller at Heppner on Friday afternoon while in pursuit of official duties.

Egbert Young, Eight Mile, spent a few hours in the city on Monday while attending to matters of business.

John Hayes is spending a few days at Heppner, having arrived from his Portland home the end of the week. He is enjoying the time visiting with numerous old time friends.

Tom O'Brien was up from his Butter creek sheep ranch on Tuesday. He reports rather cool weather down that way of late—none too pleasant for the newly sheared sheep.

J. C. Sprouls, who injured his foot when he stepped on a nail at the Alva Jones ranch, is making favorable recovery from the injury.

Jas. Hams, young farmer of Hardman, spent some time in the city on Monday while looking after business matters.

Stanley Reavis and Paul Marble motored to Crooked river Saturday afternoon for a week-end fishing trip. They returned Sunday after making a catch of 42 rainbow trout, some of which were a foot long.

The home of Mrs. Lucy Rodgers is being improved by painting of the exterior.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Bergstrom were Eight Mile people in the city for a short while on Monday.

The morning preaching service will be a union meeting at the Methodist church at 11 o'clock.

The evening service gives way for the high school baccalaureate.

MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

Rev. B. Stanley Moore, missionary-in-charge.

Holy communion at 8 o'clock. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. Church school at 9:45 o'clock.

Three Sundays to go! Our Sunday School contest with Halfway offers us just three more opportunities to make a name for ourselves. Be on time and then stay for the communion service.

For a few hours in the city on Monday while attending to matters of business.

A COLUMN OF FUN AND FACTS (Edited by Dean T. Goodman from his private sanctum down at the Heppner Garage.)

May 22, 1930.

WELL FOLKS THE POLITICAL HORIZON HAS CLEARED CONSIDERABLY. ALL THE CANDIDATES ARE SATISFIED—BUT SOME OF THEM ARE NOT CONTENTED.

The only satisfactory reducing exercise we know of is to open the mouth and say, "No more, thank you."

And the only way to keep your car running satisfactorily is to have it greased regularly. Our power equipment enables us to do this very thoroughly.

DID YOU EVER NOTICE HOW SOME PEOPLE RESEMBLE THE MOON? FULLER AND BRIGHTER AT TIMES.

Lee Sprinkles says that in the barber school where he learned his trade they used to tell ghost stories to the customers to make their hair stand up so it would be easier to cut.

Employment Agent: "Can you live on thirty dollars a week?" Applicant: "Yes, but no longer."

Sitting at the ladies' minstrel the other night, the writer overheard a young man address his sweetheart as "Dove." But the only thing that we could see about her that was dove-like was the fact that she was pigeon-toed.

THE VOCABULARY OF THE AVERAGE WOMAN IS FIVE HUNDRED WORDS—A SMALL INVENTORY BUT A TREMENDOUS TURNOVER.

Since 1916 GOODYEAR has built more auto tires annually than any company in the world. In 1929 GOODYEAR built 123,000,000 tires—nearly one fourth of all the tires made in the United States. Now millions more people ride on GOODYEAR tires than on any other kind.

Moral: Most of the people can't be fooled when it comes to buying tires.

Of course you have heard of the Scotchman who took his caviar in capsule form, so that he wouldn't acquire a taste for it.

JOHN WIGHTMAN SAYS THE REASON THEY CHARGE MORE FOR CREAM IS BECAUSE IT IS HARDER TO MAKE THE COWS SIT ON THE SMALL BOTTLES.

If business is quiet don't be disturbed. Even the little bees have to call their honey.

Decoration Day falls on Friday this year. Lots of you will take a trip over the week-end. If you need Tires, Fan Belts, Spark Plugs, or anything automotive, don't forget we are in position to serve you.

Cal Sweek says his wife broke a string of beads the other night and he found them by turning off the light and walking over the floor in his bare feet.

COME TO THINK OF IT. LOTS OF PEOPLE GO BROKE BUYING BOOKS ON ECONOMY.

Paul Marble says his only complaint about the set of Goodyear Double Eagles he put on his car is that he burns out his brake bands so fast trying to hold the car back.

All W. Tread sez, "There is just one thing more surprisin' than the readiness a young man gives up smoking when his fiancée asks him to—and that is the rapidity with which he takes it up again after they are married."

Physicians have reported that women are losing their voices from smoking cigarettes. And of course some guy has to come forward with the statement that what this country needs is more cigarettes.

THERE GOES THE BELL, MARCH OUT QUIETLY AND DON'T PUSH GOING DOWN THE STAIRS.
