

Public to Be Guests
At Flag Day Program

Flag day, June 12, which is observed annually throughout the nation by Elks lodges, will be marked with a program open to the public, which will be given tonight at the Elks temple at 8:30 o'clock. The program is being held at this time, for it is the meeting night of the lodge closest to flag day.

Cooperation of the Heppner schools has been given. The first grade will give a flag drill. The high school boys chorus will sing "Massa Dear." Fletcher Walker will relate the history of the flag. Miss Agodt Frigaard will sing a song appropriate to the occasion. Those attending will join in mass singing of patriotic songs.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our appreciation to all those who aided us during the death of our beloved one. Especially we thank David Wilson of Heppner and the Willows Grange. Your kindness will never be forgotten. We also thank those who were responsible for the beautiful floral offerings.

Lana E. Deos,
Jesse F. Deos and family,
Mrs. Maurice W. Sharrard and family,
Levi M. Hills and family.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend to the many friends our heartfelt thanks for the floral offerings and deep sympathy during the bereavement of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. George Lambirth,
Celatha, Doris and Lester Lambirth.

Examination of 30 applicants was made Saturday at a tuberculosis clinic held at the court house. Dr. Ralph Matson of Portland of the Oregon Tuberculosis association was in charge, and had the assistance of local physicians and Miss Edith Stallard, county nurse. Others aiding in the work were Miss Helen Curran, Mrs. Laura Jones, Mrs. Helen LeTrace and Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers. No active cases of tuberculosis were discovered. Advice and recommendations were given those who attend the clinic.

Elbert Cox went to Portland this morning with Clarence Bauman, after receiving word that Mrs. Cox's condition is more serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Baldwin are the parents of a 7-pound son born at the home of Mrs. James Gentry, Sunday.

Paul Gemmill went to Portland Tuesday to serve as a witness in federal court.
