

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. French were in the city on Tuesday from their home at Gurdane. They had just returned from a visit to Klamath Falls, where Mr. French attended the meeting of the Horsemen and Cattlemen association of Oregon, being the only representative there from Morrow and Umatilla counties. He reports a very fine meeting and both he and Mrs. French greatly enjoyed the trip going and coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Gramse motored to Ontario Monday, where they will visit with Mr. Gramse parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Gramse. They may locate in that city, but have no definite plans for the future at the present time. Mr. and Mrs. Gramse took an active part in the work of many of Heppner's organizations, and they will be missed by their many friends here.

Joseph Nys returned to Heppner from Portland Friday evening, bringing with him his daughter, Margaret, who has been confined to the Doernbecher hospital. She is declared to be in perfect health, by physicians at the hospital. While in Portland Mr. Nys met Judge Ralph L. Bengo, who reports he is feeling fine, and will return to Heppner within a week or two.

Neil Shurman, who will be graduated from the University of Washington in June, and will be instructor in physical education in the Heppner schools next fall, arrived in Heppner Thursday and spent Friday here in making plans for the coming year's work. He plans to start a business men's gymnasium class to be carried on in addition to his regular work.

That death benefit claims for those holding insurance policies in the Neighbors of Woodcraft are promptly paid, is indicated by the fact that the beneficiaries of the late James Corbett Mead received his insurance two weeks after application was filed, according to Mrs. Henry Howell, secretary of Maple Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker and daughter Katherine motored to Pasco on Sunday afternoon for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Jones and other relatives residing in Franklin and Walla Walla counties. They returned home on Monday evening.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers motored to Walla Walla, Wash., today to visit with her brother-in-law, T. C. Rodgers and Mrs. Rodgers. She was accompanied on the trip by her mother, Mrs. Ruth Stevens, who will visit with her sister, Mrs. Nettie Kenton, at Prescott, Wash.

Mrs. S. E. Notson returned to Heppner Saturday with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thorp, Wash., after visiting for several days at their home. The E. A. Notson family returned to Thorp Tuesday.

Miss Mary Notson returned home Sunday with V. M. Sackett and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Notson. Mr. and Mrs. Notson and Mr. Sackett returned to Portland Tuesday after a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Notson.

S. R. Cooper, Stanfield dairyman, who is secretary of the Umatilla Herd Improvement association with a number of members in Morrow county, was a business visitor in Heppner Monday and Tuesday.

S. E. Notson returned last Thursday night from Thorp, Wash., where he delivered the high school commencement address. His son, Edward A. Notson, is superintendent of schools at Thorp.

Miss Ethel Hughes, who returned Saturday from Sherwood, where she has been teaching, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Kelly on the Turner ranch.

Harold Buhman, who will be principal of the grade school and eighth grade instructor next year, was in Heppner from Umatilla on a business visit Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McMillan were in town from Lexington Saturday. While here Mrs. McMillan received medical advice from her physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Jones returned to Heppner Saturday after spending a two week's vacation in western Oregon and Washington.

A new awning was installed Monday by the Case Furniture company in preparation for the coming summer weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers of Harlan departed Saturday for Hyak, Wash., where they will spend the summer.

Miss Ethel Moore has returned to her home in Heppner after spending the year teaching at Tigard.

Mrs. John Krebs and Mrs. George Krebs of Cecil were in Heppner Monday shopping at the local stores.

Mrs. Andy Baldwin and son James Clayton left the James Gentry home Saturday to return home.

Heppner Faculty Plans Activities for Summer

Faculty members of the Heppner high and grade schools will spend their summer vacations in various ways, some plan to attend summer schools at colleges and universities, others will travel and visit friends and relatives, while a number will spend a major portion of their time at the homes of their parents.

William E. Poulson, superintendent of schools, will attend the six weeks summer school at the University of Washington, Seattle, going from there to Vancouver Barracks, Wash., to attend officers training camp. Mrs. Poulson will spend the summer at the home of her parents in Eugene, and will study music at the University of Oregon.

Miss Elizabeth Galloway plans to visit for about a month at Walla Walla, Wash., before going to her home at Weiser, Idaho, where she will spend part of the summer. Miss Irene Riechel will be at her home in Woodburn, where she will be occupied with office work. In the fall she will enter Columbia university in New York City.

Miss Kate Francis Ede will visit at her home in Vancouver, B. C. James T. Lamley plans to be married June 18, and with his bride will make a wedding trip to Michigan. Miss Bernita Lamson will spend the summer at the home of her parents in Eugene. Miss Erna Dennis will be married June 15, and will establish her residence in Washington state. Miss Beth Bleakman will spend part of her time here at her home and will devote some time to visiting friends in the northwest.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dix will attend the summer school of the University of Oregon in Portland. Miss Harriet Case plans to spend the summer in Portland. Mrs. Adelyn O'Shea will be at the home of her parents in Ellensburg, Wash. Miss Miriam McDonald will attend summer school for 12 weeks at the University of Washington.

Miss Agodt Frigaard will visit at the home of her parents in Colton. Miss Blanche Hansen will journey from Portland to Los Angeles, Calif., to spend the summer in southern California visiting relatives and friends.

Gerald Brunson, accompanied by Mrs. Brunson, will be in Seattle, where he will operate a miniature golf course, owned by his father-in-law.

RECOUNT MADE. A revised count of the vote for Morrow county judge gave Campbell 359, Bleakman 279 and McNamara 149. The figures as first announced were 353, 290 and 159, respectively.

In Retrospect

FIVE YEARS AGO.

(From Gazette Times of May 28, 1925.) A fire, which broke out in the Henry Schwarz meat market at 4:45 o'clock Wednesday morning caused $35,000 damage, with only a small amount being covered by insurance. The building occupied by the market, the Ashbaugh building on the corner were completely destroyed, while the two-story frame building occupied by the Farmers Elevator company suffered a loss by the burning of the second floor and roof.

Some 50 men went to Lexington on Saturday from Heppner to assist with the work of removing mud and debris from the buildings and streets, the result of the cloudburst of last Wednesday evening.

The Heppner American Legion swimming pool has been open for the past week and Charles Ayers, in charge, reports good patronage. Many improvements in the pool and bath houses have been made and others are contemplated.

Lower Willow creek farmers are now busy with the cutting of the first crop of alfalfa. The yield is very heavy. Hay harvest will soon be general from the mouth of the creek to Heppner.

TEN YEARS AGO.

(From Gazette Times of May 27, 1920.) The Heppner fire department held annual election of officers in the council chambers Tuesday evening. S. E. Notson was reelected president and voted the 100 per cent increase in salary, which was the main plank in his pre-election platform.

Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California was victor in the Oregon preferential primary vote last Friday. When all the votes have been counted, it is not likely that the senator will have a lead over his nearest opponent, Leonard Wood, of more than 2000 votes.

The advertised price of the Ford coupe was $850 f. o. b. Detroit. William Howard Taft, former president, will speak in Happy Canyon, Pendleton, Tuesday evening, appearing for the last number of the lyceum course presented by Pendleton high school.

Census returns given out from Washington, D. C., the first of the week, show Portland to have a population of 258,288, an increase of 51,074 in 10 years or 24.8 per cent.

Arrangements are being made for one of the popular "stockmen's and cowpunchers' balls" at Cecil Saturday. Prizes will be given for the best dressed cowboy and cowgirl, as well as the homeliest and toughest cowboy of the lot. FIFTEEN YEARS AGO. (From Gazette Times of May 27, 1915.) Paul Webb purchased a sack of poisoned oats from Emmett Smith on Rhea creek, and was unaware that a large portion of the oats had dribbled out along the road, from a hole in the sack until he had reached home. Returning the next day, he found the poisoned grain had had its effect, for dead rodents in great numbers were found lying in the highway along the trail of death-dealing oats.

Free Air

A COLUMN OF FUN AND FACTS (Edited by Dean T. Goodman from his private sanctum down at the Heppner Garage.)

May 29, 1930.

WARNING! Commencement time is here. All business men are advised to step lively or be shoved clear out of the business world by the new graduates.

A 108 story building is to be built in New York. Imagine how much money could be saved at $10 a flight, if there was a clothing store on the top floor.

While on the other hand, there is positively no imagination in the savings YOU may enjoy, if you buy GOODYEAR TIRES.

This should be called national party week or something for the high school graduates at Heppner High school. The past week has been a mad whirl with plays, banquets, etc., and tonight comes commencement.

EDITOR'S MAIL Dear Mr. Editor: Judging from the number of columns you write, you must be obliged to dictate rapidly. Are you too fast for your stenographer? JOE.

Dear Joe: No, not too fast; too old. EDITOR.

STRANGE AS IT MAY SEEM, THERE IS AN UNDERTAKER IN DENVER WHOSE NAME IS I. BARRYMORE.

Proper lubrication insures many thousand extra miles of carefree travel. Our greasing equipment is the finest in Eastern Oregon and our men are competent. Give us a trial.

When a man boasts of his family tree, it generally means he is a sap.

Which leads us to remark that you are surely no sap if you use GOODYEAR tires.

WANTED—Married man to milk and drive a Ford.

We acknowledge with pleasure the receipt of a check from Ringling Bros. circus. We wrote them advising the utilizing of used auto tires as teething rings for baby elephants and it has proven quite successful.

One of the readers down at Ione sent this one in. Kinda deep for us. See if you can figure it out.

He kissed Helen; Hell ensued. He left Helen; Helen sued. THE END.

Vaughn & Goodman (HEPPNER GARAGE) "Where Quality and Service Meet"

he found the poisoned grain had had its effect, for dead rodents in great numbers were found lying in the highway along the trail of death-dealing oats. The G. A. R. post and the Women's Relief corps attended in a body memorial services at the Christian church last Sunday.

Heppner high school won the first interscholastic track meet at Ione Saturday by a score of 76 1/2 to 49 1/2 for Ione. Merle Blake of Ione, who scored 20 points, and Emmett Hughes who made 15 1/2, were the outstanding athletes of the meet.

Several Heppner citizens are improving their property by putting in concrete walks across the front of their lots. Crockett Kirk, Charles Thomson and S. E. Notson in west Heppner have torn out the old wood walks, and these will be replaced with the hard surface kind.

DELEGATES RETURN. A. J. Chaffee, delegate of the local Odd Fellows lodge and Mrs. Chaffee and Mrs. Opal Ayers, delegates of the local Rebekahs, returned to Heppner Friday night after attending the 75th annual convention of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Oregon. Corvallis was selected as the convention city for 1931, with the time set for May.

MUSICALS ANNOUNCED. A half-hour musical program featuring Ruth Cofer, mezzo-soprano, Klamath Falls; Eunice Steel, pianist, Portland; and John Platt, tenor, Corvallis, will be broadcast from KOAC Thursday evening, May 29, at 8:15 o'clock.

FOR SALE 1926 Case Hillside Combine. Completely overhauled and ready to take the field. Guaranteed by us in every way. $1000 This combine is a genuine bargain. Peoples Hardware Company

Delicious Sodas

Milk shakes, sundaes and other favorite ice cream dishes and drinks, as served at our fountain, just hit the right spot on warm days.

FOR A MEAL OR SANDWICH

Day or night, drop in and let us appease your appetite. Strawberry shortcake and fresh vegetables are included on our menu now.

ELKHORN RESTAURANT ED CHINN, Prop.

"THE WAY OF THE BURNING HEART." On Sunday evening the local Church of Christ will go to Lexington for the last trip to foreign parts. The subject is above and the hour will be 8 o'clock. The morning sermon will continue the Pentecost series, "Peter, the Pentecost Preacher." Be sure and tune in on your radio at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon and get the Pentecost program on a nation-wide hook-up. Bible school at 9:45 offers us an opportunity to beat Halfway at least once. Come on and show your loyalty! MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

FLANE VISITS HEPPNER. Pilot H. W. Barnhill, who was connected with the search for Pilot Carl Ben Eilson and his mechanic, Earl Borland, both of whom were killed when their plane crashed near Nanuk, Siberia, after a flight from Seward peninsula, Alaska, landed on the local aviation field and was busy during Tuesday taking up passengers. Mr. Barnhill, accompanied by William Goodhue of Bend, flew from White Salmon, Wash., to Heppner on a barnstorming tour, that he is making before returning to Alaska a month hence.

SCHOOL OPENING SET. The Heppner schools will open Monday, September 1, after a vacation period of slightly more than three months, according to William R. Poulson, superintendent.

Majestic RADIO Prices Advance June 1st Place your orders now and make a worthwhile saving. The prices until the advance are: Model 90.....$116.50 Model 91..... 137.50 Model 92..... 179.50 Model 93..... 167.50 Radio-phonograph combinations can be had at prices just as reasonable. Latourell Auto Co.

SPEEDY and ECONOMICAL Freight Service For convenience, dependability and reasonable prices on shipments between HEPPNER, PORTLAND and JOHN DAY Highway points, make use of our DAILY SERVICE. Our trucks will call at your door to pick-up and deliver freight. Shipments are protected by $10,000 cargo insurance. John Day Valley Freight Line (Incorporated) Office on May St. Phone 1363. M. Venable, Mgr.

SMART NEW SUITS that are outstanding for Style and Quality $24.75 Other Suits at $19.75 and $29.75 WHY envy the well-dressed man his smart appearance! You can be well dressed, too, and economically, at the J. C. Penney Co. Store. We have here the right suit for every man and occasion, smart in style, rich in quality, reasonable in price. Don't wait—come in now! We are selling these suits every day to young men who like nice clothes and know where to come to get them. J.C. PENNEY CO. INC.

STAR THEATER Doors open 7:30 p. m.; Show starts 8 p. m. Theater Phone 474, Home 635. Admission: Children under 12, 20c; Adults, 40c—Unless otherwise advertised. SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE THURSDAY, MAY 29: HIGH TREASON —A glimpse into the future. An imaginative, thrilling, romantic story of life and love in 1940. New York and London bombed from the air. Giant battle cruisers of the skies raining destruction upon earth. Passenger trains blown up in a tunnel under English channels. Marvels of science that would tax the ingenuity of a Jules Verne. Spectacular, gripping, dramatic, all-talking. Also TICKLISH BUSINESS, two reel talking comedy. SUN.-MON., June 1-2 Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Marie Prevost, Jeanette Loff and Judith Barrie in THE PARTY GIRL It's big night every night for her, just one party after another for the out-of-town buyer. See her. Hear her. You'll like her. Also WHIRLS AND GIRLS two reel talking comedy. 25c & 50c TUES.- WEDS.-THURS., JUNE 3-4-5: Florenz Ziegfeld's GLORIFYING THE AMERICAN GIRL with Mary Eaton Mary Eaton and Edward Crandall heading a fine cast in Flo Ziegfeld's GLORIFYING THE AMERICAN GIRL Lavish, Singing, Dancing Girl and Music Extravaganza—Part Technicolor. Eddie Cantor, Helen Morgan and Buddy Vallee in revue scenes. Music hits by Irving Berlin, Walter Donaldson and others. Also LOVE OR MONEY, two reel comedy. FRIDAY & SATURDAY, MAY 30-31: Evelyn Brent and Neil Hamilton in DARKENED ROOMS Sensational mystery-melodrama that will hold you spellbound. Breath-taking action. Sir Philip Gibbs' hair-raising society novel and spiritualistic expose now in talking picture. Also two reel talking comedy WEAK BUT WILLING. COMING NEXT WEEK: William Boyd in HIS FIRST COMMAND, June 6-7. Maurice Chevalier in THE LOVE PARADE, June 8-9-10. Aileen Pringle and Ian Keith in PRINCE OF DIAMONDS, June 11-12.

J.C. PENNEY CO. INC. DEPARTMENT STORE Store Phone 502 HEPPNER, ORE. Manager's Phone 1383 The Dresses You Want Will Cost Only $4.98 each This summer your dress should be as fresh-looking as apple-blossoms... as captivating as youth itself! These new silk dresses have the very essence of summertime and youthfulness that can't help but make you look that way, too! In gay prints and lovely solid colors. Sizes for women, misses and juniors.