

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREIM, Correspondent.

Sunday, June 7 was Children's day at the church, an excellent program being given under the direction of Mrs. Titus during the church hour. After the services a picnic dinner was enjoyed in the shade at Warner's camp grounds, an abundance of good eats, an ideal day, quantities of lemonade and ice cream, and games made it a delightful day. Mr. Warner's kindness in opening the camp grounds for the day was much appreciated, for with the shade, the benches and tables and other conveniences it makes a splendid picnic grounds. About 70 attended the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Kennedy motored to Weston Saturday and visited relatives, returning home Sunday evening.

Helen and Catherine Mead who have been visiting in The Dalles with their grandmother came home Sunday. The Meads are planning a vacation trip to Michigan to visit relatives. They will leave the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Matthews of Portland were overnight guests at the O. B. Olson home Saturday. The guests were on their way to Montana by motor.

Jean Ludemann was 13 years old Wednesday, so her mother and sisters planned a very pleasant surprise for her that day. After an afternoon of games and fun the guests all partook of a fine lunch. Present were Hazel and Lucile Tyler, Elizabeth Sanger, Lillian Hango, Norine Olson, Ruth and Francine King and Anna and Jean Ludemann.

Alton Klitz is home for a short visit with his mother. He will return to Corvallis shortly for a six weeks term when he will receive his diploma in mining engineering.

Mrs. Leo Root and son Vernon have gone to Wapato to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Price of Portland were house guests at the home of their son, W. A. Price, for several days last week. Their other son, Robert, came down from Cove for a short visit with them.

Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie came home Sunday from Elkton where she has been teaching for the past several months. She stopped on the way home to visit the Ed Barlow's at Corvallis. The previous week she was a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jay Cox and family at Madford.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sharpe and baby came up Friday from Portland for a stay at the E. T. Messenger home. Mr. Sharpe is recovering from a serious operation for appendicitis. Miss Mildred Messenger who has been with them in Portland also returned home.

George Agee who has been an expert bladesman for years with the state highway department suffered the loss of a toe in an accident last week with the blade. Particulars were not learned.

Miss Mildred Allen is spending part of her vacation at the Art Allen home in La Grande.

The Ladies Aid of Umatilla will put on the Tom Thumb wedding there June 20. This was given in Boardman several years ago with much success.

Lois Messenger stepped on a nail last week that caused much pain and inconvenience for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow and baby, Mrs. F. A. Fortier and Norma and Mrs. Frank Cramer shopped in Pendleton last Tuesday.

Boardman will be well represented at the meeting of the state grange held this week at Redmond. Mrs. Raymond Shane is the delegate from this grange, but Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander, Mrs. Brice Dillabough and Mrs. H. V. Tyler are also attending the sessions.

The Rands family were dinner guests at the Haneline home at Hermiton on Monday of last week.

The work of the calf club is under the direction of L. C. Cooney this year, and is progressing nicely. Parents are urged to remember that the club leader cannot do it all and that any club project that the average youngster enters requires constant cooperation on the part of parents as well as leader, for when the novelty wears off the children tire, and the feeding of the lamb or calf becomes a great effort, especially when warm weather comes. However, the joy of possession and the possibility of prizes makes it worth the effort.

One of the most delightful meetings the Ladies Aid ever had was that held Wednesday when Mrs. B. B. Lewis graciously opened her home. Over fifty ladies attended. After a short business meeting Mrs. E. T. Messenger presented Mrs. J. R. Johnson a lovely vase filled with flowers on behalf of the Aid. Mrs. Johnson is the retiring president and much was accomplished by the organization under her regime.

After the gift was presented the final stories of the capsules were told and they brought many surprises, showing that many of the ladies would not make expert detectives. In the capsule stunt names were drawn and for a period of three months each person was to do a kindness, or give some small gift without disclosing her identity, at least once each month. A few of the ladies learned the identity of their donors, but many were wrong in their surmises. A lot of thanks was extended to Mrs. Root, Mr. Goham and clerks and Victor Hango each of whom acted as clearing houses for the secret delivery of the capsules. It was a clever little stunt that brought much entertainment, for in nearly every home the entire family was interested in the mysterious packages. Mrs. W. O. Miller of Umatilla was a guest.

The next meeting which is the missionary meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Johnson. The next silver tea will be at the Strobel home with Mrs. King's committee in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Daly of Pendleton are living in the Fortier house back of the Murchie building. Mr. Daly is working on the section under Mr. Rainville.

The most of the Boardman men who are out shearing are now in Montana.

Mrs. L. C. Cooney and children attended a party Monday at the Jack Kennedy home at Umatilla.

Ludemann's attended the dance at Echo on Saturday night. Buster Rands and Eldon Wilson were other Boardmanites who were there.

Mrs. Ray Brown left Saturday for Ellensburg to visit with Mabel and Catherine for a time and will later go to Walla Walla to visit relatives until harvest time when she will again cook at Rietmann's.

Chas. Jenkins and family of John Day stopped for a short visit at the J. L. Jenkins home, en route to McMinnville.

It is hoped that persons breaking the phone line when moving stacks will at least take a few minutes time and repair it.

Ben and Yes Attebury returned from Spokane. Mrs. Attebury remained to be with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Johnson who had a serious operation recently.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Broyles, Grace and Roscoe left Tuesday for La Grande to attend the graduating exercises of the normal. Miss Ethel is one of the graduates.

Billy Doherty of Stanfield was a visitor at the Farley and Slevin homes Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Titus conducted eighth grade exams last week for the few who failed in the May tests. Ballengers were up from The Dalles for a few days the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers were at Hermiton Wednesday, having some dental work done. Margaret had four teeth extracted and Mr. Myers one.

Miss Adeline Wilbanks was a guest at the Paul Smith home last week.

Gladys and Carl Wicklander attended the dance at Juniper Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandler of Cecil were guests recently at the Wilbanks home.

N. G. Florence came to Heppner Thursday to bring his daughter, Mary Eleanor, to a physician to have a barbed wire cut on her leg dressed.

Animals may be dumb, as alleged, but you never heard of a rabbit marrying a wild cat, or an old crow ruining his health digging worms for a young bird of paradise.

To Women Who Travel

This bank recommends the new dollar size American Express Travelers Cheques as the ideal travel funds, to all its patrons and, in particular, to women who travel.

The woman carrying Travelers Cheques is not alone even though she may be traveling in far off Siam. American Express couriers meet her at piers and frontier points and await her at trains; interpreters assist her through the customs; she uses the numerous American Express offices as her mail addresses; their efficient travel men plan her trips and arrange for her accommodations at the better hotels; in a word, her journey is everywhere made more pleasant and comfortable.

As a thoughtful gesture to women who travel, the American Express has reduced its Travelers Cheques to the size of the new U. S. Currency, so that a compact, trim wallet of Cheques takes up but little storage space in the interior of the fashionably small handbag.

A New Method of Refrigeration

—Makes available city convenience for homes anywhere. No longer need one endure the drudgery of cutting and hauling ice, of trotting up and down the cellar steps, or out to the spring house to protect foods during the heat of summer weather. Old-fashioned makeshift "coolers" never were satisfactory, never provided the constant waste-preventing and health-protecting temperatures possible with modern refrigeration. No matter how far you are from power lines or ice houses, you may now keep food and supplies always at the proper temperature, right in the house where they belong, by using

Superflex

The Oil Burning Refrigerator

These refrigerators have no belts, gears or moving parts; no noise, no odor, no electrical connections necessary. Once a day at your convenience, you light the burners—then leave it. Superflex does the rest. The refrigerating cycle is completed automatically when the fuel is consumed, and the temperature in the food compartment remains always at the same protective level. In addition to its economies and simplicity you will delight in the many delicious and healthful new dishes you can prepare—because modern refrigeration means something more than merely chilling food. Ask for a personal demonstration of this device which will bring the finest city convenience to your home—wherever you are.
